CONVERT YOUR REGULAR BED TO CONTOUR

The above illustration shows the new fully automatic Select-A-Rest unit by Dura, on a Regular 54-inch double bed, which gives you instant choice of 101 contour positions by push-button control.

The Select-A-Rest unit is available in various widths, i.e., twin (30"-39"), three-quarter bed—48", double bed—54" King size bed—74". Extra long (80") are available in all sizes.

In just 3 minutes you can convert your twin or Hollywood bed into a relaxing contour bed without changing the decor of your bedroom. And if you have been having trouble relaxing, a new Select-A-Rest contour unit may be just the answer to relieve muscle fatigue and tension.

Ask your doctor about the benefits derived from proper positioning while relaxing. Many units have been sold to people suffering from heart disease, asthma, varicose veins, respiratory problems and orthopedic ailments.

The fully automatic hydraulic electric Select-A-Rest unit is easily adaptable to any existing bed as well as all types of adjustable frames.

Simply remove the mattress and box spring, place the Select-A-Rest unit where the box spring was, place the mattress back on top and the conversion is complete.

After assembly, plug the unit into any standard 110 to 125 volt AC outlet for immediate use.

The unit operates as smoothly as a convertible top. No wonder! It was developed by Dura Corporation, of Oak Park, Michigan, the exclusive supplier of hydraulically operated convertible tops to the automotive industry.

Beverly Man To Represent Chicago Paper

Appointment of Harold E. Dyer to the Detroit advertising office of the Chicago Tribune was announced this week by Robert C. Tower, general display advertising manager for the newspaper.

Dyer will assist Wallace E. Bates, manager of the Detroit office. He will be responsible for automotive and other general display advertising accounts in eastern Michigan and the Toledo, Ohio area.

Dyer, of 32215 Sheridan, Beverly Hills, joined the Tribune's advertising staff in July, 1952. He has been assigned to the western division of its general display advertising department since June, 1960.

Behind The Store Fronts

Good news from Oscar Shriber, of the Cock-N-Bull food establishment at 6445 N. Telegraph, Al. Recently elected officers are: pres., Charles Heinen; Educational vice pres., Edwin Rake; administrative vice pres., Stanley Mack; secretary, Richard Joy; treasurer, Denis Royston; sergeant-at-arms, Michael O'Leary. Term of office for one year, May through April. The club meets every Tuesday evening through May, at the YMCA. After this month there will be no further meetings until September.

The club counts a membership of about 18. Because of transfers, vacancies do occur occasionally. Those interested may contact Stanley Mack, MI 7-0534, after 6 p.m.

NIGHT TIME motorists passing 250 N. Hunter Blvd. are no longer in doubt as to the location of Joseph A. Stoltz, custom tailor. His new building is illuminated by a sign 21 feet long, and three feet high.

When career Americans live abroad it is with a special appreciation that they enjoy a visit home. So it is with Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Olson, Jr., of Tripoli, Libya, where he is employed by the Mobil Oil Co. of Canada. Mrs. Olson is the former Linda Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Ball, Birmingham (of the McClellan-Hall Co.). The homecoming dinner was a festive occasion with Mrs. Ball's red, white and blue table decorations, including the American flag, of course!

The ability to speak easily and confidently on one's feet does not come naturally to many. To help people overcome this handicap and to give added poise to everyday living, the Birmingham Toastmasters' Club was organized. It represents a cross section of the area's business and professional people. Mrs. Ruth Nelson, 620 Bloomfield Court, Birmingham, is the owner of the new Econo-Crest coin operated dry cleaning plant at 4702 N. Woodward, just below 14-Mile Rd. The plant is equipped by the American Laundry & Machine Division of McGraw Edison, a 95-year old manufacturer. There are eight cleaning units in operation, with a 45 minute cycle (10 lbs.). An attendant is on duty to assist.

IBM Names Forsythe

W. R. Forsythe, 694 Pilgrim Road, Birmingham, has been appointed to the newly created position of manager of community affairs for the Detroit area of International Business Machines Corp.

Does Your Husband Ask Directions?

Would your husband rather take a drink from the radiator than stop and ask where he is and where to go? Does the Christopher Columbus of your family "discover" detours, disappointments and discomforts?

Cranbrook's Thinclads, Baseball Club Triumph

Cranbrook School's highly-polished track team hardly worked up a sweat Monday as it pulverized Lakeview, 84-25, in a dual meet.

The baseball team rebounded after four straight defeats edging Ferndale, 3-2, last Thursday and evened its Inter-State Preparatory League record at 1-1 by downing Western Reserve High, 3-2.

COACH BEN Snyder shuffled his lineup, but the power of the Cranes was too much for the Lakeview squad. It was the sixth straight dual meet win for Cranbrook.

For the first time in many seasons, Cranbrook had a double triple-winner in Jeff Brewer and Al Wilkinson.

Brewer captured both the high and low hurdles in :17.2 and :14.6, respectively. He also added a first place in the broad jump with a leap of 18 feet two inches.

Wilkinson, who has been developing into a top sprinter, capped the century and 220 in :10.6 and :24.0. He vaulted 11 feet 2 to win his specialty.

The Cranes head for the Ecorse Relay Saturday and a chance to even the score with River Rouge, which nudged them last Saturday for the Central Michigan University Class B title.

JOHN BILLESDON and Dick Mosher went the distance to lead the Cranes pushed their baseball record to 4-5 overall.

Cranbrook put together four hits and some heady base running to nip Ferndale with a two-run seventh inning spurt. Billesdon fanned 11 and walked six and scattered three Ferndale hits.

Couch Art Palmer's tennis squad snapped a five-match losing streak Monday as it whipped Ferndale, 4-1.

John Harada (6-2, 6-2), Tim Conrad (6-3, 6-2), Kent Rakas (6-2, 6-2) won singles matches. Bruce Henderson lost the only match.

In doubles, Steve Erickson-Sam Walker (6-1, 6-1), John Brandt-Steve O'Grady, Jim Alexander-Rick Rattner (6-1, 6-3) were victorious.

The Cranes sport a 3-5 mark.

THE CRANBROOK Frosh track team suffered two defeats to Royal Oak Kimball, 67½-23½, April 30, and to Royal Oak Dondero, 56-35, last Thursday.

Against Kimball, the 440 and 880 relay teams registered wins. Dave Craig, John French, Bill Porterfield and Tom Love scored the 440 distance in 2:24.1. Morgan Stevenson, Steve Locke, Ron Sill and Craig posted a 1:54.9 time in the 880.
