John Augustin Hurlburt No-Litter Barons Set Two Cinder Marks

Respected John Augustin was the hero last Monday as Bloomfield registered its seventh Wayne-Oakland County league baseball win in eight consecutive games.

The eighth neighbor recorded the area's first no-hitter. He faced 23 batters, fanning seven. Two reached first on errors.

Augustin, 5'11" junior, also was hot at the plate, collecting a double and single. He scored his team's first run in the third frame by hitting a two-bagger and scoring on a brouching error.

In the fourth, Gary Garwood walked, Bill Bennett doubled and both stroked home on Mike Griffin's two-out single.

The Barons built up a 4-0 lead and hung on to nip Brighton, 4-3, last Thursday.

Augustin again chalked up the victory. He weakened in the seventh after holding Brighton to two hits. However, three Barons errors knock off Cranbrook, 50-49, earlier in the campaign, had 42 points and Milford 31-4.

DAVID NOYES, speedy quarter-mile runner, collected four bettered school records. Noyes, who was the lead-off runner of the 886 foursome, toured the 440-yard dash in an excellent 5:03.

Brother John Fagan's Warriors got some sterling efforts from the 'rush and sport team members.

DENNIS CAMPBELL and Ken Skover, both sophomores, finished 41st, Andy McGuire slot 29 for medal honors. Freshman Jim Voss carried 40, Larry Vogt 47, Tom Hopkins 51.

Last Friday, the Warriors' second-best effort, the 4-0 in a match play. Skover shot a 30, Campbell 43, and Hopkins a 40.

Brother Rice suffered its lone setback April 27 to Royal Oak Dondoro, 4-4-1/2. Campbell posted a 40.

NORM KOLTSKY, sophomore, won last Saturday's 4-0 in a match play. Skover shot a 30, Campbell 43, and Hopkins a 40.

Coach Paul Malone's Brother Rice track team earned one point at the U-I Relays as the two-mile relay team of George O'Brien, Chuck Schaefer, Bob Stark and a James Dean finished fifth with a 9:32 time.

weren't able to practice much and the fellows were off a week for vacation. They really surprised me with their performance. Ted Barrett, our outstanding hurdler, injured his eye in a tennis match and wasn't able to compete.

BLOOMFIELD BEACH AND BOAT FACILITY Private—Unoccupied. Located near the big spring-fed lake. Everything is water proof. Call for details.

THIS YEAR, Campoli, defending state champion, is the only one to reach the finals in the three classes. So the possible triple crown of fencing could become a reality for him if they continue to give these prizes.

Friday the program of entertainment will include a talk by Dr. John Van der Westhuizen, Presbyterian Church of Detroit. Dr. Visser will give his impressions after having completed his 4 1/2 month trip around the world.

THE CLUB'S Discussion Group will have "What is Real Success" for their topic.

The tempo of shuffleboard play on the courts at the Community House has increased considerably since the return of members who have vacationed in Florida this Winter.

Krause (Continued from 1-E) participate on the athletic field. The biggest factor down from competition is character, which the young men have in an invaluable asset in his later years.

He said proper emphasis is very important. "Overemphasis in the physical aspect of athletics is the country's greatest athletic, caused him to die a pauper," he said.

"With intelligence and respect for the physical aspect of athletics," said Krause. "It doesn't matter how small in size a team is but what is important is to stop the opponent's attack."

IN ADDITION to Krause, Bruce MacKay, Alex Karpis, of the Detroit Lions, and Gordie Howe, of the Detroit Red Wings, attended the banquet, sponsored by the Daughters Club.

Football coach Paul Malone and basketball coach Ken Yastie handed out school letters.

John Godfrey was master of ceremonies.

Seaholm Student Wins Coveted Expert Rifleman Medal

The Expert Rifleman Medal, second highest award in American rifle shooting, was won by Edward Walter of 1884, Norfolk, Birmingham, the National Rifle Association recently announced.

Shooting several hundred targets in the last few months, the new expert marksman fired his way through 15 NRA qualifications to achieve his new rating. With one more set of targets to fire, Walter, who attends Seaholm High, will up his rating to Distinguished Expert Rifleman, the select top qualification rating for the shooters of the nation. The new expert is a member of the Oakland County Sportsman's Club Junior Rifle Club.

DENNIS CAMPBELL and Ken Skover, both sophomores, finished 41st, Andy McGuire slot 29 for medal honors. Freshman Jim Voss carried 40, Larry Vogt 47, Tom Hopkins 51.
