

First Presbyterian Sets Married Life Program

"Married Life—Duel or Duet" is the theme of the annual ladies' night meeting of the Men's Club of First Presbyterian Church Thursday.

Ogle Scott and Ray Walker, co-chairmen of the program committee, announce that couples from the church will participate in a program planned to emphasize the team spirit in contemporary married life. Former presidents of the club will receive recognition for their service.

The club slogan is "Fellowship and Service" and emphasis is placed on making new members feel at home and welcome.

THE CHANCEL Choirs of the First Presbyterian Church will be honored at the Annual Recognition Dinner Tuesday in the social hall. Chorists who have served with loyalty and devotion will be presented with certificates by Paul Mattson, chairman of the Music Committee.

Mrs. Robert Killen, soprano soloist for many years, is leaving the choir and will be given special recognition.

Following the dinner and recognition ceremony, the choir, under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, Minister of Music, will present a light and varied program of popular music including selections from "Sound of Music" and "Music Man." Negro spirituals and several patriotic numbers at 8 p.m. Several solos, trios and special instrumental presentations will be made by members of the choir.

Miss Powell To Speak at Unity Center

"What can a Christian do to help improve world affairs and conditions?" is a question asked of Miss Wilma Powell, Lee's Summit, Mo., a Unity teacher and lecturer.

"We can do much today by sending out Christlike thoughts of love and understanding, to people in every nation. This continuous flow of constructive and prayerful blessings will do much to unify individuals and nations, to quicken them to a new understanding, and to inspire world leaders to right action for the security and progress of all mankind," said Miss Powell.

MISS POWELL will be the guest speaker at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Unity Center—Birmingham, 550 W. Maple.

Miss Powell is on the teaching staff of Unity Training School and in Unity Village Chapel, and is also director of the Unity Correspondence School.

Miss Powell has served Unity posts in Vancouver, Canada; Honolulu, Hawaii; Puerto Rico, and as supply minister in Santa Monica, California and many other cities in the U.S. In her association with Unity School, she has served in the ministry of Silent Unity and in the Unity Field Department, as well as a substitute minister among Unity churches throughout the country.

Discuss Traffic Safety at Catholic Women Meeting

The Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, North Oakland Deaneary quarterly meeting will be held at noon next Thursday at St. Andrews Hall in Rochester, Michigan.

The program will be particularly seasonal interest to all present. Edward V. Offer, safety coordinator for Detroit Edison will speak and show a film on Water Safety and demonstrate the new mouth-to-mouth method of artificial respiration.

MORE EMPHASIS is being placed on the moral approach in the solution of the existing safety problem in the world. It is from this point of view that the Traffic Safety Committee of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women seeks to promote ways and means of safety consciousness in the home, on the streets and in the water.

Birmingham residents planning to attend are: Mrs. Eugene Seals, Mrs. George Duncan, Mrs. P. C. Byrnes and Mrs. D. E. Scriven.

The reservation deadline is Monday.

Franklin Woman Visited Nation's Capital Recently

Mrs. Hollis Halladay, 30532 Greenbrier, Franklin, a member of St. James Episcopal Church parish recently attended an international seminar in Washington, D. C., as the only representative from the Diocese of Michigan. Thirty Episcopalians were among the 200 delegates from the U. S. and Canada who attended.

The theme of the conference, "Your Government and You," offered an opportunity for religious leaders to study the operations of the Federal Government at its source.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH brought its 200 delegates together before and twice during the conference for the purpose of relating the general experience of the seminar to the work of diocesan departments of Christian Social Relations.

A coffee for all newcomers to St. James Episcopal Church parish will be given by the Episcopal Church Women in the parish lounge at 10 a.m. next Thursday. Invitations have been mailed to all new women of the parish, but if any one is new and has been overlooked, please do attend.

Members of the Episcopal Church Women Board, current and new guild presidents and the clergy will greet the newcomers. Mrs. Robert Mooney, 4352 Middleton Ct., Orchard Lake, Membership Chairman is in charge of the affair.
