MRS. SAM RICHARDS of Fairway Drive entertained members of her sewing club at luncheon last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCombe, formerly of Lakeview Avenue, spent last week-end in Birmingham visiting friends and relatives. It was their first visit here since moving to Hinsdale, Ill.

Mrs. William Bagley of Burning Bush entertained at a brunch Wednesday for some of the mothers whose sons go to Detroit Country Day School. Among the guests were Mesdames James Nance, David Aver, Charles O'Neill, Frank Boyer, Donald Flemming, Bagley Elms, John Hartwick, Fred Fisk, C. C. Pritchard, H. O. Mellen and Barney Bannan.

Sylvia A. Trythall To Be Married In July Rites

Dr. and Mrs. Sylvester W. Trythall of Orchard Lake announce the engagement of their daughter Sylvia Ann to Richard Leslie of Chicago.

Miss Trythall was graduated from Kingswood School Cranbrook and the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta. She is a member of Sigma Gamma.

Her fiancé, son of the Richard S. Leslies of Battle Creek, was graduated from the University of Florida and the University of Michigan Law School. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta and Delta Theta Phi.

A July wedding is planned.

DAC Slates Wind-up Floor Show

Detroit Athletic Club's current season of dinner-dance-floor show galas for members and their guests will come to an end this month, with "resumption slated for the autumn."

This seven-evening "do" is scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, May 18 and 19, and then will skip Sunday and Monday to continue next week through May 26. Each evening will have dinner starting at 7 o'clock and dancing to the music of Eric Correa's orchestra.

Headliner will be singer Susan Barrett, whose voice and song styling have charmed supper club and television audiences. In a different vein will be juggler Gil Dova's entertainment, which blends comedy pantomime with intricate juggling routines.

Arrangements are in the hands of DAC's entertainment committee which includes Birminghamites Thomas J. Bolton, Clyde P. Craine Jr. and William A. Prew.

The Carl B. Marrs are among those with reservations for opening night, the John C. Kinels have a table for the coming Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Ahrens will entertain some 40 friends on the last show evening, May 26.

Thetas Will Give Dinner Party

Members of Birmingham Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae and their husbands will attend a subscription cocktail party and dinner Friday night in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox of Ridgemoor Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Among those planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. W. Burr Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foulk, Mr. and Mrs. William McGaughey, Dr. and Mrs. William Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson, the Donald Stantons, the Leslie Stauffers and Dr. and Mrs. John R. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemmons Ludden and son George of Woodlea Drive, are back home after a visit in Lincoln, Neb.

CULVER MILITARY Academy was well represented by Bloomfield parents this past Mother's Day week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olsen of Marblehead Drive and Mr. and Mrs. William Hartman Jr. of Lahser Road drove down to see sons Rick Olsen and Bill Hartman.

On Saturday night there was a theatre production of "No Time For Seargent" in the beautiful new auditorium, and on Sunday the boys put on a special full dress review.

Mrs. Jack Lawrence of Lake Park Drive and her daughter Judy, who attends Webber College, are home from Florida and today's friends will be glad to hear that she is recuperating very well from the automobile accident she was in last March.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fischer of Lahser Road entertained Saturday evening at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Klenke of Harpole Road who are moving to California later this month. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chase of New York City, who were weekend house-guests of the Klenkes, and also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blythin of Philadelphia who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schine of Yosemite Drive. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin S. McEvoy, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chase and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Lichwardt.

MRS. PRESTON WEIR of Bryn Mawr Road is back from Bethesda, where she visited her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Weir, (the former Jean Webster of Birmingham) and was on hand to greet her new grandson, Gregg Webster, born on April 30. The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Webster of Hampstead Road.

Announcement is being made this week of the recent marriage of former Birminghamite Jamie Bond, now of Grosse Pointe, to Mrs. Martz Ruedemann also of Grosse Pointe.

Very clever invitations, done by the hostess, bid friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James Nance of Burning Bush Road, to a Derby Party a week ago Saturday.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Jehle of Avon Lane entertained at cocktails in their home, later taking their guests to Oakland Hills for dinner. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Milford N. Childs of Buffalo, who came over from Grosse Pointe with the J. Henry Smiths, with whom they spent the weekend. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Blackles Jr. of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Schmidt Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. John Godfrey, both of Birmingham.

Local Women Attending State Council

Six members of the League of Women Voters of Birmingham are attending the bi-annual State Council in Ypsilanti May 16-17.

Official delegates to Council from the Birmingham League are Mrs. James W. Atkinson and Mrs. Hilfinger.

"After hearing a Council recap of the work of the Michigan Constitutional Convention," Mrs. Hilfinger said, "delegates from 33 Michigan Leagues will block out next year's work on ConCon." Delegates will also make plans for a year's study of present and needed state laws covering home rule for local and metropolitan units of government, mergers of local units of government and township powers.

Also attending Council as visitors from Birmingham are Mrs. Brooks Marshall, Mrs. John H. Bryant and Mrs. George W. Talburt, State Finance Chairman.

Dr. Arthur W. Bromage, professor of political science at the University of Michigan, will address the group on the subject "Local Government, Metropolitan Super-government and the State." League members will also hear a report on the state of the League, given by their state president, Mrs. Thomas Snelham of Birmingham.

It Pays to Advertise

So successful was the Mothers' Club at Bloomfield Country Day in collecting items for the school's annual Strawberry Festival May 19 that booths couldn't contain all the lovelies. Answer was an advance sale which took place last week at Willow Way Mart on W. Long Lake Road. Taking advantage of early morning buying were Joan Vinton (from left), Mrs. Robert O'Connell and Mrs. John B. Poole.
