FRANKLIN WOODS

The Franklin Woods Association held their annual dinner dance at the Elmwood Casino last week. The evening began with cocktails at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jacques Goffin on Fairhill Rd.

Then they all boarded a chartered bus driven by Bob (the same bus driver they have had for the past three years) and with song in heart and on sheets made up by Tex Ragunale, they all "Sang Along With Tex."

Every one stopped off at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keislar for late coffee and rolls.

BIRMINGHAM FARMS

Dr. Sidney Butler of Woodbank Dr. had the rare privilege of presenting a second "Paper" at the A.P.A. convention in Toronto on May 11.

The paper, "The Psychiatrist's Role in Therapeutic Abortions," received the acclaim and approval of his associates. Dr. Butler's first paper was delivered in 1960 in Atlantic City on the "Mask of Insanity."

Dr. Butler has an impressive background. He is a member of F.A.P.A., a diplomat of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, and a consultant psychiatrist at Highland Park General, and educational consultant at Northville State Hospital. He is also visiting lecturer at Wayne State University school of post graduate medicine, and is a psychiatric consultant of the Detroit School Community Behavior Program.

MAPLEBROOK

The Maplebrook branch of WNEGA will hold their regular monthly meeting at 12:30, May 22, at the home of Mrs. Carl Neppach, 409 So. Williamsburg Road.

Co-hosting the afternoon will be Mrs. William St. Clair and Mrs. R. L. Knudsen.

An exchange of perennials, plants, seeds and ideas is on the format for the afternoon, each member is asked to come prepared.

BERKSHIRES

The St. Frances Cabrini Guild will have a dessert benefit bridge at St. Ann's Hall at 12:30, May 22. Members and guests are welcome.

Hostesses in charge are Mrs. William Riley, Mrs. Steve Grumick, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. James Quinn, Mrs. Anthony Wolf and Mrs. Thomas Wright.

WESTCHESTER

Prizes, honors and a new board election was on the agenda at the April 19 luncheon for the Women's Bowling League of the Pine Lake Country Club.

The first place team included captain Myrt Rummel, Jean Booth, Elsie Fortuna, Gladys Bergesen and Nancy Carriek. The prizes for high individual game was copied by Dorothy Debandt, and the high individual series by Jiny Smith. The honor award for the most improved average for the year went to Alice Brunstad.

Next year the league will be under the directorship of Jiny Smith, chairman; Mary Lou Driver, secretary; Mary Mohler.

Auction, Speaker Are on Agenda

Birmingham Alumnae of Alpha Omicron Pi will entertain members and guests for luncheon, a blind auction and a speaker on May 22 at 1 p.m. Mrs. William Boyles, 959 Kennesaw, will open her home for the occasion.

Curios, antiques and art work have been contributed by members for the auction, and everything will be on display so that those who wish to bid may write their choice and place it under the desired article.

Speaker will be Mrs. Alice Burlingame, one of Omicron Pi's most honored alumnae. She will talk on how to create a new garden or improve an old one.

Officers for the coming year who were elected and installed in April are president, Mrs. Tom Ward; vice-president, Mrs. Leo Damsky; secretary, Mrs. T. M. Mordant; and treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Johnson.
