WING LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. John Kent of Worthington Road have returned home after a month's stay at the Beach Club Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale. The Kents were accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Miller of Royal Oak. During their stay they visited with many other Birmingham residents wintering in Florida.

Before their departure for Florida the Kents enjoyed a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, the J. Christopher Kents. First Lt. Kent and his wife came to Birmingham for a visit following his graduation from Purdue. There he received his Ph.D.

When the couple left Birmingham they went to Aberdeen, S. D. for basic training and then on to Huntsville Ala. for a year's special assignment on the anti-missile program.

GLENCOE ESTATES

Mother's Day had a special meaning at the Eric Hoagberg home on Burnham Road this year. Mr. and Mrs. Hoagberg are the proud parents of Karen Heidi Hoagberg, born April 6, and weighing 9 pounds and 2 ounces. She is the Hoagbergs first child.

Mrs. Hoagberg and Karen were honored at a baby shower last night given by Mrs. Robert Ward. Mrs. Don Miller and Mrs. William Retra at the Miller home on Burnham Road.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Brownie Troop 108 of Wing Lake School, under the direction of Mrs. John W. Maloney and Mrs. W. Auger, held their "Father-Brownie Supper" last night at the Franklin Church.

Included were brownies from the third and fourth grades and their fathers. The girls who "Flew Up To Scouts" were Amy Adams, Chris Durbin, Kris Outwater, Judy Phelps, Lynn Vanderkloot and Patti Sewell.

GLENCOE ESTATES

The Glencoe Estates branch, WNFCA, held its First Flower Show on the tenth of May at the home of Mrs. John Kluck on Blanford Court.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon judging and the 8:30 p.m. meeting were Mrs. Lawrence Dickelmann and Mrs. Robert Wood. Entries were judged in two categories, artistic and horticultural. Senior judges were Mrs. E. C. Nany and Mrs. John Rundell. Student judges were Mrs. Grover Ramsey and Mrs. R. L. Erval.

WING LAKE SHORES

At the annual meeting of the Wing Lake Shores branch WNFCA, held recently at Haven Hill Mrs. William Springer of Franklin Road officiated at the installation of the new officers.

New officers are Mrs. Frank Kussey, president; Mrs. Earl Weston, 1st vice-president; Mrs. George Heck, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Edgar Thorne, recording secretary; Mrs. Eugene McDowell, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Charles Robinson, treasurer.

Following the business meeting, the members enjoyed touring the nature trails.

Mesdames Earl Weston, Albert Carr, and Frank Kussey all made floral arrangements for the Latin American Is Honor Guest At Anniversary

Beta Sigma Phi, International Sorority, recently held its thirty-first anniversary with a truly international "first."

Mrs. Fred G. Ford, of 1540 Fairway Drive, Birmingham, who is an international honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi, an organization of business and professional women, greeted a sister member from Latin America.

The visitor is Miss Terry Yeme, from Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico. This is the first visit to the United States of a Beta Sigma Phi from Latin America.

One hundred and thirty members attended Founder's Day. The annual donation to the Detroit Association for Retarded Children was made and seven members were given the "Order of the Rose Degree." They were Joan Miller, Betty Pierson, Judy Danford, Martha Tittle, Florence Junga, Thelma Barna, Doris Edgar.

Teen-aged French girls have black-haired Bardot, dismissing the 30-ish movie star as being "matronly" and "too kittenish for her age." As for Bardot, she couldn't care less. Quote: "Teen-agers bore me. They certainly aren't as nice as when I was a girl."

Spring Flower Show held at Wright May 23.

"EXPRESSIONS International" will be the theme of Wing Lake Shores' Flower Show May 22 at Mabel's Herb and Garden Shop on Walnut Lake Road.

The public is invited to attend the show which incorporates projects from different countries that the members have been working on at their monthly meetings.

FOX CROFT

Susan Woodhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Woodhouse of Orchard Way, is being honored at many parties prior to wedding May 26 to William Edward Lang of Bloomfield Hills. Yesterday Mrs. Peter Bloom of Birmingham gave an afternoon tea at her home.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. James Beresford, of Lone Pine Rd., will give a dinner party at the Detroit Club.

A dinner for couples will be given Saturday evening by Judge and Mrs. Arthur E. Moore at their home on Vendetta Blvd., Royal Oak.

Susan was honored at a luncheon recently at the Detroit Golf Club by Nancy Orr.
