

THE ART of fencing attracted more than 250 fans to the Bloomfield Hills High gym last Saturday as the State Fencing matches were held. Michael Bruce (left), who won the epee title, and Ellsworth Miller tangled in the epee division as the judges watched the match.

Local Fencer's Bid Thwarted

The wonderful world of fencing! Many people view fencing as a sissy sport to be enjoyed primarily by the wealthy.

BUT AFTER careful examination a person realizes that fencing is a strenuous and demanding sport. It requires a quick hand, agility, fast footwork, keen eye and steady reflexes.

The fencer must provide perfect form at all times. Fencing exercises the body not in one place only, but in every muscle, nerve, and tendon from heel to head. It does not confine its capabilities for improvement to wrist, or eye, or finger, though these three may be the most important; but it imparts an erect carriage to the head, a bracing action to the shoulders, and a full command of balance to limbs and body.

THROUGHOUT Michigan fencing has drawn little, if any, attention or spectator response. But last Saturday, more than 250 fencers way into the Bloomfield Hills High gym to watch the State Fencing championships.

James Campoli, 523 Wadsworth Lane, attempted to become the first state fencer to win three divisional titles for the second time. He accomplished the feat in 1955. The previous triple winner was Byron Krieger.

Campoli's bid for the triple crown was thwarted, however. After he had gone through countless bouts in the foil, epee and sabre he managed successfully to defend the latter crown for the second straight year and fourth time since 1955.

The 36-year-old fencer put on a sterling uphill exhibition to force a fence-off for the sabre honors. He displayed quick footwork to defeat Bill Goering, defending Midwest sabre champion and 1964 Olympic hopeful, 5-4.

IN THE FENCE-OFF Campoli downed his opponent, 5-3, to salvage one championship. He finished second to Michael Bruce in the epee and fourth in the foil competition.

In the foil, Krieger won the crown with a perfect 3-0 bout record. Conrad Gniweck was runner-up and Sandy Weinstein third.

Paula Sweeney, defending women's foil titlist, was unable to compete because of a back ailment. Instead, Louise Snider, of Bloomfield Hills, posted three wins in the foil (See FENCERS, 5-E)

Maples Notch 50th Win; Cranbrook Pulls Major Track Upset

Capture 8 First Places

Big Number 50!

Seaholm High kept its fabulous Eastern Michigan supremacy intact last Tuesday as it knocked off Hazel Park, a stubborn contender, 68-41, at Maple Field in 90-degree temperatures.

COACH KERMIT Ambrose's squad recorded victory 49 May 8 as it slapped Roseville, 75 1/2-35 1/2. The Maples, who have been disappointing in two straight relay carnivals, powered to eight first places and left the invading Vikings suffering their first dual meet setback in seven outings.

In the first event—the shot put—the Maples got some clutch performances from Gage Cooper, Jack Harney and Jim Knowles. Each shotputter did his part and the Maples swept the event with Cooper's 56 foot 9 1/2 inch heave taking first place.

THE VIKINGS, however, drubbed back to win the high and broad jumps and the Maples' margin was cut to 14-13 after three field events.

Then Carter Dickinson, co-captain, won the 120 high hurdles in :15.0; the 800-yard four-man of Jim Daniels, Bob Frothing, Bruce Bates and Ray Johnson posted a winning 1:32.4 time; Rick Reid and Jack Bachelor ran one-two in the mile and the Maples had built up a commanding spread they never relinquished.

MIKE GEEK took a first in the 800-yard run, Johnson added a first in the 440. Dickinson captured the 160-yard low hurdles in 2:11 and the mile relay team of Gert, Jack Strang, Larry Bell and Kim Rite-man edged Hazel Park with a 3:37.9 time.

Hazel Park's big gun was David Campbell who won the broad jump with a 20 foot 4 1/2 inch leap, the 100 in 10.4, and the 220 in 22.8.

Daniels won the 100 and 220 and was the lead-off runner of the victorious 880-yard relay four-

Win Three Events; Seaholm Slips to 8th

Cranbrook School rules today as four seconds better than his best effort this spring. Wilkinson earned a fourth.

And the Cranbrook justly merit wearing the tag of "unrecognized state champs." For coach Ben Snyder and his hand of speedy thin-limbs proved to critics and skeptics that this year's club rates as one of the all-time best in school track.

CRANBROOK, picked to finish fourth in the Relays, pulled the state's biggest upset by winning the Ecorse Relays last Saturday under ideal weather and running conditions.

Ecorse, which had won every relay carnival in the past two years, took a backseat to the finely honed Cranbrook aggregation. Cranbrook won one relay and two individual events and added eight places in other events for a 63-point winning total.

ECORSE, which led by four points going into the meet's final event, the mile relay, was second with 61. And River Rouge, which hosted Cranbrook in the Central Michigan University Relays 12 days ago, had 52. Howell got 47 and Lathrup West, state defending Class B champion, 36.

"The fellows did a whole of a job," said Snyder. "We prepared for this one all last week and we were charged up to do our best. This was our state championship meet."

CRANBROOK will not compete in the state showdown at East Lansing May 26 because it will be in Cleveland to defend its Interstate Preparatory League title. The Cranbrook own a string of six straight league titles.

Bob Fritz, Baldy Grannis, Jeff Walters, and Tom Wilson carried the baton as the foursome shattered the school record with a fast 8:21.3 clocking in the two-mile relay.

AL WILKINSON, an Ontario, sprang athlete from Toronto, Ont., scored 11 feet six inches to share first place in the pole vault. Wilkinson's height matched his personal school mark.

Bob Hicks really came into his own as he sped down the 100-yard stretch to a first place in :10.1,

STEVE JAFFE ran a fast 3:57.7 leg to anchor the team of Joss Brewer, Bob Dearth, Larry Hard to a second in the sprint medley.

Essel Bailey was third in the 120-yard high hurdles with his top effort of the year at 15.9. Miller John Colburn claimed a fourth with his 4:4.0 time.

Wilkinson, Boye, Bailey and Hicks combined talents to take a second in the 880-yard relay at 1:32.9.

WALTERS, Mike Pearce, Norm Lee and McMillin ran a 11:16.0 time to gain a fourth in the distance medley relay.

In the shuttle hurdle relay, the foursome of J. Brewer, Copeland, Terry Verity and Bailey posted a 1:05.5 fifth place clocking.

Hard, Dearth, Grannis and Wilson averaged 33.1 for each of their individual legs as they got a third in the mile relay in 3:52.4.

Barney Crouse, Cranbrook track captain and winner of the state Class B 220 event the last two years, but who is ineligible for competition in Michigan, won the 100 in 10 seconds, placed second in the 400 with a 1:05.5 time (school record) and a second in the shuttle hurdles at the Kennedy Relays in Windsor last Friday.

MEANWHILE, Seaholm High continued its rapid decline from the ranks of the Class A powers as it gained an eighth place at the Sixth Annual Dick Waters Relays at Monroe last Saturday. The Maples picked up 12 points.

For the second consecutive week, Coach Kermit Ambrose's squad has slipped. The two-year Monroe Relays defending champions didn't have it Saturday.

Jack Bachelor notched Seaholm's lone first place with a 4:30.8 time in the mile.

(See EVENTS, 2-E)

CRANBROOK SCHOOL'S Coach Ben Snyder stresses the running events as the nucleus of his track team. The Cranbrook won the two-mile relay last Saturday as they copied the

Smith Does Well In Canadian Skeet Shoot

Birmingham's Larry Smith was runner-up twice and was a member of the winning five-man team in the recent Seventh Canadian and 13th Province of Quebec skeet Championships at St. Jovite, Que. Smith won the Class AA and senior championships in the 410 and 28 gun events. This meant he was runner-up for the championship in each event. The veteran shooter finished second in the high overall standings with 490 out of 500.

SMITH was a member of the Michigan Workers' which shattered 195 of 200 targets to break the two-year reign of Maryland's Luck Raven Club.

The team score was one shot off the record set by the Montreal Skeet Club in 1957.

Local shooters attending were Dr. Jack Wiant, Ralph Zimmerman and Al Fruman of Birmingham.

In 1962 the Tigers held their spring training workouts at Ypsilanti.
