

Schools Plan June All-City Music Festival

Some 1,200 elementary and secondary students are presenting all of the Birmingham Public Schools, with participation in the all-city instrumental music festival.

The festival will be held on June 1 in the gymnasium of Southeast High School, and is open to the public.

It will be directed by Arnold Bennett, coordinator of music education for the Birmingham Schools. Eight members of the instrumental music staff have assisted in planning, arranging, and handling the program. They are Max Ambros, Dale Bartlett, Earl Brunsen, Larry Franklin, Joan Gassaway, Eugene Hanson, Roder Kramer and Robert Kutscher.

The program will feature performances by elementary school beginners, intermediate and advanced students; the all-city elementary orchestra and band and combined grade school groups.

Also participating will be junior high orchestras, concert bands and seventh grade bands and several high orchestras, bands and combined groups.

Commission Main Gets Shepard Award

Birmingham City Commissioner Ralph A. Main was one of six recipients of the Shepard Award at the Michigan Sewage and Industrial Wastes Association annual banquet Tuesday night.

The award, initiated in 1959, is given each year to all persons who have been a MSWA member for 20 years. Forty-one were presented in 1959, 20 in 1960 and one last year.

Area Communities Exchange Officials

Officials from various parts of Michigan were guests in communities surrounding Birmingham at Hunter and Maple. The annual exchange of mayors throughout the state.

Bloomfield Hills, Beverly Hills, Lathrup and Franklin all participated in the event.

WHILE MAYOR, Pro Tem Lyman J. Craig of Bloomfield Hills visited New Baltimore, the latter community's mayor and a water department superintendent were touring such places as Cranbrook Foundation, the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club and the city of Bloomfield Hills.

Mayor and Mrs. Frederick Blay and Supt. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie of New Baltimore were greeted by Hills Commissioner Robert Frye. The group's day was climaxed by dinner at a local restaurant.

IN BEVERLY HILLS, Council President Marvin B. Cline and his wife, along with Commissioner Douglas J. Wood and Mrs. Wood, went to Grandville.

Mayor and Mrs. Henry Koster of Grandville visited the local village with the president of their town's chamber of commerce, Steven Barnard, and his wife.

HOSTS on the Beverly scene were Councilmen Chester F. Gullotti and Mrs. Gullotti and Councilman John A. McLaughlin and Mrs. McLaughlin. The group lunched at Groves School, following a tour of the high school, split up. The women headed for Northland while the men went on to a water authority meeting.

The day was topped by dinner, following refreshments at the Gullotti's. Mrs. Fannie Adams, Southfield Township clerk, and Mrs. O. White, North Johnson and village clerk Norton Talcott were entertained in Lathrup.

Gare said he also mentioned the possibility of raising the revenue from the sale of some of the proposed residential lots or by selling other City property.

He pointed out, however, that the city officials "went down and thrashed the thing out."

City to Ask Dismissal Of Craig Court Suit

Birmingham City Attorney Dennis Beier filed a motion for dismissal Wednesday morning in a suit against the city brought by a Birmingham businessman, Mrs. Kathy Craig.

Mrs. Craig is fighting a 30-day notice from Birmingham to vacate the building in which her business, the Cindy Kay Dress Shop is housed. She won a temporary restraining order Monday, preventing the city from evicting her.

Circuit Court Judge William John Beier issued the order Monday for a court date in his motion. Mrs. Craig was issued a certificate of occupancy last November for the building at 280 Hamilton Street. She said she was the proper permit holder to operate a business in the building.

The businessman said she had spent $5,000 to fix up the building, doing everything the city told her to do. She said she was delivering a copy of this order to each of the three successive weeks previous to the day of hearing in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.

It is further ordered that notice be given to all interested parties as shown by the records in this cause by delivering a copy of this order to each of the three successive weeks previous to the day of hearing in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.
