The John McManis of Harsdale are back from a Hawaiian vacation. They flew over and were met by good friends the James Donnelly's of Bloomfield and also Dr. and Mrs. Peter Rostello of Orchard Lake, who had preceded them by a week. After several weeks of sightseeing among the islands, the McBrians flew to Seattle to visit their son-in-law and daughter. The next stop was Paris, then a few days in London before going back to Ireland, where they stayed at the Broomfield Castle near Limerick and spent a relaxing week salmon fishing and enjoying the Irish countryside.

Last Friday, Mrs. Carl A. Underhill Jr. of Riston Court surprised her husband at a dinner party in honor of his thirtieth birthday. Among those invited were Tony's brother-in-law and
