The honorable Alain Chailion, Counsel Resident de France à Detroit, was the distinguished guest speaker at Bloomfield Country Day School on Thursday, May 24. The invitation was extended to the Consul by Madame Rosina Roy, French instructor at B. C. D. S., who has been instrumental in encouraging the study and appreciation of French literature and culture in the school. Through her efforts, a selective gift of French books for the library was received from the Honorable Edouard Morot-Sir, Conseiller Culturel Representant de France aux Etas Unis pour les Colleges et les Universites a New York.

The Strawberry Festival successfully over, students settled down for a week of concerted study before final exams. A break in the grind came occasionally from an inspired walk to the ballroom to deposit a name, before it was forgotten, for the headmistress's new tuff-colored French poodle. The poodle was presented to Miss Marjorie Sallie by the girls to console her for not winning the adorable poodle given away at the Strawberry Festival. Miss Sallie vows from the shower gifts received that her poodle will be the best-dressed dog in town which suggests that perhaps he should be called "Beau Brummel"—certainly not "Jim Handy". Any ideas?

Last Friday the second annual Art Exhibit was held at Derby. The exhibit included displays of art work and a number of demonstrations of such things as copper embossing, print making, and plaster carving done by Derby students.

The demonstrators from Derby were Jacqueline Jacques, Beryl Ferchland, Roland Smith, Andrea Holcomb, Ron Fairchild, Lynn Patrick, Joyce Lewis, Linda Suster, Sue Lyman, Glen Rich, Mary Ann Hurd, Marilyn Henry, Greg Michael, Don Cornett, Denise Kaven, Belle Brady, Cindy Montzer, Patty Jaenicke, George Ann Skurtu, Bob Coulter, and Sharon Smith.

The Oakland County Teachers Art Show was held in the Birmingham room at Henry's Dept. Store last week. The show included paintings done by Miss Switzer and Mr. Blackford, who are art teachers at Derby.

On May 23, the annual Roman Banquet was held. At the banquet Lisa Mackie and Peggy Underwood were each given a bottle of perfume as an award for the Latin Christmas cards which the Latin students voted for as the best ones in all the Latin classes.

Molly Watkins and Mark Mooley were each given a gift certificate for a record in recognition of their costumes which were chosen by Mr. Ford, Mrs. Piore, and Mr. Jens as the best at the Roman Banquet. Kathy Beier was also given a gift certificate as door prize.

Last Thursday, 50 physical education majors from Michigan State University visited Derby. They spent the afternoon looking over Derby's physical education program.

Marian High

A barrage of activities were scheduled for the few remaining weeks of school: elections for next year's class, election of student council and spiritual council representatives, officers, an honors assembly, a Latin party, the annual May crowning, "A Night of the Arts."

Class elections was the first of the events, and those elected for office for the following year are: Seniors—president, Carol Jurica; vice president, Nancy Corrigan; secretary, Carole Dodge; and treasurer, Carolyn Bien. For Juniors—president, Frances Thurbert; vice president, Maureen Anderman; secretary, Suzanne Young; and treasurer, Joan Palmer.

LESLIE MAHLER has been elected president of the Sophomore class. Kathy McPhail will be vice president, Anne Marie Stuechel secretary, and Mary Lou Chabrier treasurer.

At "A Night of the Arts", held May 27, the drama class under the direction of Mrs. Mohan presented a fantasy entitled "The Knave of Hearts" by Louise Sanders. Following this the choral presented selections of both popular and religious songs. James and Jane Sempowski entertained the large audience with an exhibition of modern dances. The art work of both the Sophomore and Junior classes were on display in the lounge. The show shown represented all the different techniques the students have learned this year. The success of "A Night of the Arts" has made it an 'annual must' at Marian.

All the different Latin classes joined together to sponsor the first Latin Club picnic. On May 28 nearly 400 girls were present for an afternoon of fun when the different classes joined in playing Latin games followed by a small picnic. This was the first activity sponsored by the Latin club which united all three grade levels.

May is the special month dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and since our school is named in her honor, it is most appropriate that the students of Marian pay tribute to her in a special way. The annual May Crowning is our way to honor her. Kathy Van Mourik, a junior, crowned Our Lady while the students sang praises to Mary and recited the rosary. Her attendants were representatives elected by the three classes: Mary Jo Damon for the Juniors; Jan Johnson for the Sophomores; and for the Freshmen, Jane Sempowski.

laugh, Marty Pisch, Carol Nichol, Ingrid Becker, Louise Delano took a break in the tedious schedule by attending an afternoon at the opera to see "Cosi Fan Tutti" on Saturday, May 26.

On Thursday, May 31, the traditional Class Day Program and luncheon will be held at the school. On this occasion, girls who have made outstanding academic and citizenship records for the year will receive awards. The yearbook "Prelude", will be presented by the seniors, Janet Polk and Sue Jordan, to the person to whom it is dedicated and subsequently to the faculty and students.

The annual Rose Ball will be held on Friday, at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Students, parents, faculty, and friends will attend this lovely June event which is held in honor of the seniors. The seniors, however, have their eyes set clearly on the grand finale of graduation week—Commencement Day on Sunday, June 3. Graduation exercises will be held at 4 p.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham.

City-Country School to Stage Annual Carnival

The annual Carnival of the City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills will be staged Sunday, June 17, on the school grounds, located on Woodward Avenue just north of Long Lake Road.

More than 1,000 parents, children and friends of the school are expected to take part in the affair, which starts at noon and continues until 6 p.m.

ADMISSION to the Carnival is free, according to Mrs. George Bander, chairman.

A complete array of carnival rides, games and door prizes awaits those who attend. A special feature of the program will be Police Dog show, given by Charles T. Art, noted trainer of police animals. The show was arranged through the courtesy of Captain Walter Fluiter, chief of police for Bloomfield Hills. The ways in which police dogs track criminals, attack them and protect children will be demonstrated.

A special grand prize of a five-day round trip, expenses paid vacation in New York City, for two people, will be awarded.

On May 23, the annual junior visit to senior cabin took place. Each year toward the end of May the juniors get a chance to see their future "haunt." Here, every Wednesday at 3:30 p.m., the senior class gathers to spend ninth period. Unlike past years, the seniors included a picnic dinner and games in the visit.

After dinner, both classes had old tunes with new lyrics to sing to each other. Ann Ainsworth, the current president of senior cabin, presented the key to next year's president, Kathy Derwin. At about 6:30 p.m. the picnic was over and many of the girls rushed home to get ready for the opera. In charge of organizing games was City Varsity with Sally Lynch as head of the food committee.

With a population of less than 750,000, Michigan enlisted over 90,000 men in the Union Forces during the Civil War.
