THE BEVERLYS

Picnic lunches, prizes, free ice cream and pop for the small fry will be the attractions for members of the Beverly Artesian Association at their annual summer outing at Hansen's Park on Rochester Road.

Starting at 10:00 a.m., June 2, a full program has been planned for the day under the direction of President Ed. Lindosmith and his committee.

A panel of judges will decide winners and Councilman Claude Shepard will again be handling the broadcasting chore.

MR. AND MRS. Marvin Cline of St. Clair with Sue, Laura and Bobbie have returned from their vacation at Pompano Beach, Florida. They just relaxed on the beach, swam and tried deep sea fishing before flying back by jet.

On Sunday, May 20 Mrs. Leon and Pischke entertained a large family group of 25 guests to honor her mother Mrs. J. Plazek who is returning to her home in Bellevue, Fla.

A picnic dinner was set up out of doors so the guests could find ish their badminton and croquet games and work up real enthusiasm before the meal.

DEVON GABLES was the scene of the West Beverly Hills Association annual meeting and dinner dance May 19.

New officers were elected to the board which included Wm. E. Rigley as president; Wm. Bailey, vice-president; Jack Stuart, secretary; and incumbent Dr. Arthur Delosier as treasurer.

Two new members were elected to the board, Arthur Handren and Ludwig Emde, who will replace the retirees.

MRS. CLAUDE Shepherd opened her home on Malolme to 56 guests May 23 when the "Eta Lambda" chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for the card party which provides funds for their charitable projects.

Refreshments, door and table prizes highlighted the evening as did the presence of club president Mrs. Robert Davis of Royal Oak.

THE "SURREANITE League" left their bowling shoes home May 3 when the group gathered at Plum Hollow for the end of the season banquet and to receive trophies and prizes for good scoring.

The winning team proved to be the Ambassadors with Laura Zwalak, L.B. Forin, Elsie Steiner and Henrietta Pischke, who is team captain and high game winner.

MR. AND MRS. Wm. Rigley of Bedford returned last week from a vacation in Florida where they visited Mrs. Rigley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Riding. Besides shopping and swimming the couple did some deep sea fishing and visited at Sarasota, Vero Beach and Pompano.

The young people's group of the North Congregational Church will present "T.V. Tantrums" at 8 p.m., May 26. Laura Cline will be contributing her services to the program which will consist of skits, songs and specialty acts.

WHEN BETTYE Baker of Auburn planned a bridal shower for her former schoolmate Suzanne Allen of Birmingham she chose ice cream molds for dessert.

Nothing could have been more welcome than the frozen duxes and wedding bells which were served to the guests Thursday evening, May 17 with the temperature 90 degrees. Gifts were all in the bride-to-be's favorite
