CHALMERS LAKE
Residents of the Chalmers Lake area who participated in the bowling league this past season met at Fox and Hounds recently for their bowling banquet.

Following the dinner, Toastmaster Bob Glenn conducted the presentation of awards. He gave two envelopes to each couple. One envelope contained the category of the award and the other envelope contained the name of the winner.

The following received awards: Mrs. Herbert Howe, most improved bowler; Charles Keller and Mrs. Fred Poe, highest single games for the year for men and women; Bob Forshaw, highest average; Joe Schimunek, throwing the hardest ball; Bob Forshaw, best form and Cy Fleming, special award for the best bowler in the eleventh frame.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Parker of Quant Road were pleasantly surprised on a recent Saturday evening.

Eight couples from the Pleasant Ridge, Birmingham and Royal Oak areas, whom the Parkers have known for the past ten years dropped in on the Parkers for a surprise housewarming. But unlike most unexpected guests the couple came with housewarming gifts and refreshments, right down to the silverware and plates.

Thoughtful guests of the Parkers were Mr. and Mrs. John Barth, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Graden, Mr. and Mrs. Bass Jacobs, the Al-Yamborghis, the Richard Rehnus, Mr. and Mrs. Will Streve and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor.

WING LAKE FARMS
The first organizational meeting of the United Foundation held in the area was at the home of Division Chairman Mrs. Joseph Jost on Walnut Lake Road last Friday morning.

Gathering at the morning coffee were Mrs. Robert Green, regional chairman and area chairman, Mrs. Morle Sullivan, and Mrs. Walter Hicks.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
Last Thursday evening the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School presented its Spring Concert at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

The program consisted of selections by the Girl's Glee Club, the String Ensemble, the Barbershop Boys, the Cadet Band, the String Ensemble and Choir, the Choir and the Lancer Band. The program was under the direction of Wayne Tilton, director of bands, Faith Werner, director of strings and Alan Poland, director of choirs.

WESTWOOD MANOR
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hesler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Temple and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Radtke formed the committee who planned Westwood Manor's third annual dinner-dance.

This year's event was held last Saturday evening at Oakland Hills Country Club with about twenty couples in attendance.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
Browne Troop 600 of Vaughn School went on a field trip recently.

The 16-third graders toured the Royal Oak Bell Telephone Company and learned about the size of the cables, how many wires the cables contained, how the wires were separated and especially enjoyed listening to the weather reports from Boston (four times), San Francisco (three hours ahead), and from Montreal in both English and French.

On June 2 the brownies will conclude their activities for this school year. They will gather at the home of Mrs. Charles Austerberry on West Long Lake Road for a cook out, games and contests.

The girls will be the guests of Mrs. Austerberry and Mrs. Jack Marshall, leader and co-leader respectively.

WING LAKE FARMS
Plans for Wing Lake Farms first annual dinner-dance are formulating. Members of Wing Lake Farms Association will gather June 8 at 7 p.m. at Edgewood Country Club for cocktails preceding their dinner-dance.

Members of the committee: Mrs. Donald P. Young, Mrs. Char Adams and Mrs. Robert Ringman, report they have reservations for 50 couples available.

Susan Woodhouse Married in Kirk

At a five o'clock church wedding in the Kirk-in-the-Hills May 26, Susan Ann Woodhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Woodhouse of Birmingham, became the bride of William Edward Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart J. Lang of Bloomfield Hills. Susan wore a short white organza gown with puffed sleeves and a full skirt. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and eucalyptus. Her only attendant was a sister-in-law, Miss William T. Woodhouse, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who wore a mint green organza gown and carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Mr. Bernard Woodick acted as best man for William. The groom of the bride's mother was large chiton and her mother chattered pink carnations. Her hat was a circle of matching pink flowers. The groom's mother chose an amber chiton gown and a corsage of eucalyptus and white. Her hat was a whimsy fashioned of pale cream flowers.

A reception and supper at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip in northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Royal Oak and will resume their studies at Wayne State University.
