FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Girl Scout Merger Unites Four School Troop Programs

merger of about 22 Girl Scout troops from Franklin, Valley Woods, Beverly and Greenfield schools introduces a new place in scouting for the area. Mrs. Arthur Marshall of Wellington Road will continue as neighborhood chairman under the revised organization. Although the total number of units is greatly increased, Mrs. Marshall expressed confidence that less personal aid would be needed and more assistance from central administration would be available for better efficiency.

A BROWNIE ROUNDUP for mothers of first and second graders in all four schools was held recently at the Franklin Community Church and attendance clearly indicated "they didn't believe me," according to Mrs. Marshall.

Along with the new organizational setup, the new, lower age limit will give younger girls an opportunity to join scouting for a better defined program.

IF THE MOTHERS who received an invitation to the new thought it was a mistake, Mrs. Marshall urges early reconsideration.

"It is for real," the little leader insists. Looking almost as young as the girls in her troop, Mrs. Marshall is excited about the new program and hopes that younger girls be registered in time for the fall season.

TAKING IN all the spots Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winkel of Franklin Hills Drive returned Saturday from a week in New Orleans. Daughter Barbara, handled the home front in their absence.

The Stanley Krentels of Greenbriar returned from six weeks in the Scandinavian countries on Thursday.

Taking a slow Swedish boat they spent eight fun-filled days aboard ship. Their fellow travelers made a special note that Mrs. Krentel would be in Stockholm on her birthday, and made arrangements to have a special dinner party in her honor.

WHILE IN Copenhagen, the Krentels attempted to locate living relatives only to learn the last remaining members of Mrs. Krentel's family had gone to New York a year ago.

Among the highlights of their trip were visits to Hamlet's castle, the home of Hans Christian Andersen, the home and studio of Edward Grieg, 200-year-old inns with thatched roofs and art museum of every description. Neighbors can look forward to seeing some of the 16 rolls of colored film that documented their travels.

A BON VOYAGE party for the Charles Browns of Wood Creek Farms was held Saturday at Birmingham Country Club. About 20 rallied 'round to give the couple a proper send-off for their European tour.

The Peter Finns of Woodside are off a crash program of learning French. All set, except for the final sale of their home, and ready to embark on a two-year adventure which starts July 19, the Finns expect to make Switzerland their home.

They will go to La Havre first, pass briefly through Brittany and Normandy and hope to settle somewhere near Lyon.

THE 25th ANNIVERSARY of Mrs. Harlow Bates' graduation class of nurses from Providence Hospital was celebrated Thursday at a luncheon at her 13 Mile Road home.

Despite a minimum of publicity, the Franklin Community Association pot-luck supper Thursday night at the Franklin church was attended by about 60 people. The occasion was among the first of many which will include the ladies, after many years of exclusion from the civic group.

GAIL ZIEGLER of Garden Way was hostess at a barbecue supper for the summer Youth group Sunday night.

Ray Marks of Apple Tree Lane, with sons Dick and Gary, headed for the upper peninsula to spend a long weekend fishing. Leaving Wednesday, they returned home Sunday.

Proving you learn something new every day—didn't know we had any Indian Guides in Franklin till hearing of the campout at Camp Ojibwa last weekend.

Attending were Dick Caskey, Robert MacManus, Robert Love, William Sanders, Nicholas Quint and Hudson Schley—plus assorted small sons.

AFTER FOUR YEARS here, the Phil Detwilers are pulling up stakes and moving to Seattle. If all goes according to plan, and Planned by Ben DeCooke of the Wood Creek Country Club, the pot-luck affair will be held at the William Thompson home on Salem road.

WALNUT LAKE

The local Girl Scouts have been a bit more than busy lately. Very recently they had their neighborhood encampment called "WOW" at Camp Indianwood. Chairman and Camp Director was Mrs. James Steele. Assisting her were Mrs. James Roberts, Mrs. Clayton McCollum and Mrs. Raymond Scamick.

Girls working with the leaders from Browlie troop 235 were Dohly Wiley and Nancy Search, from 512 Katie Morrison, troop 59, Kathy Fowler, intermediate troop 938 Robin Green; troop 373 Candy Reynolds and troop 973 Carol Pais, Senior troop 36 Marsha Mullen.

Troops 300 and 973 arrived in advance of the others to set up camp. A big flag ceremony on Saturday started the day. Troop 360 planned a money collection for the Juliet Low World Friendship Fund.

WALNUT LAKE Haven Hill was the setting for the May meeting of the Walnut Lake branch of WNTGA.

A guided tour, viewing wild flowers and a luncheon was enjoyed by the members before the important business of installing the new executive board. Mrs. Ross Banker, the first president of the club, executed the installation.

Four new members were welcomed into the club, they were Mrs. Leo Miller, Mrs. John Kristofsky, Mrs. W. L. McCane and Mrs. Jeanne Bek.

MRS. R. A. CARTER re-elected president of the club announced the new chairman for the ensuing year. Mrs. Henry Seaton will be Conservation chairman, Mrs. Neil Lund Horticulture, Mrs. Walter Burton Historian and Publicity, Mrs. Leo Miller International, Mrs. Paul Colbrook Membership and Mrs. John Kristofsky Ways and Means.

The first PTA meeting for the new Meadowlake School will be held at the Walnut Lake School on June 6th at 8 p.m.

The approval of the by-laws and the election of officers for the coming year will be conducted and decided.

WALNUT LAKE The Robert Hoffmanns of Putnam Rd. have returned home after an exciting time in Flint where they attended the Michigan Optimists Club convention.

Hoffman is vice president of the Detroit chapter and while he was busy attending meeting, Mrs. Hoffman was off to the Planetarium with the other wives.

BRACES Mrs. Stewart Schultz accompanied by Mrs. Richard Gerathy recently motored to Washington, D. C. to attend the annual 8th Society of American convention.

While there they visited the White House in Georgetown, Danborton Oaks, Mr. Vernon and many interesting private gardens.

Mrs. Schultz is well known to all garden club members for her extensive work with herbs. During the recent American the Beautiful flower show sponsored by Wright Kay she won her 5th Blue Ribbon for a corsage in the "Flowers worn as Jewels" division.

WALNUT LAKE Dr. and Mrs. Courville Morrow of Putnam are such avid swimmers their friends wonder how they find time to do anything else.

Last week they were in attendance at the "end of the year" dinner dance of the Circle and 4 dancing club where Bill Cracy was the caller.

A few days later, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eder and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thomas, they attended another dance at Southfield where they enjoyed caller Frankie Lane from Calumet.

BRACES A grand tour of Florida was an ambition fulfilled by the John Walters of Walnut Lake very recently when they went down the East Coast to Key West.

They made the round robin trip home by coming down the West Coast to Sarasota, then continued across to Lake Wales where they saw the historic Bee Tower.

On the way home they found just enough time to catch the Time Trials at Indianapolis for the big race.

WALNUT LAKE Mr. and Mrs. Donald Watkins of Putnam Rd. spent an enjoyable week end in Flint where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Garza.
