Presidents Honored At Dinner Dance

By VELMA MACCANE
MA 6-6530

WESTCHESTER

The recent dinner dance held by the Greater Westchester Association proved not only enjoyable but memorable as well for four "community dedicated" couples.

To show appreciation the association honored the four past presidents and their wives, they included Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. John Hiney, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Christian and Mr. and Mrs. Donald King.

BERKSHIRES

The final meeting of the Berkshire branch of WNGFA will be a luncheon on June 5 at the Rotunda Inn at 12 noon.

Speaker, Elinor Rose has chosen "Relax Chum" as the title for her talk.

Chairman for the day is Mrs. R. J. Brandon.

WESTCHESTER

The bowling season has ended temporarily in the area but not without a final fling. The mixed couples celebrated with a "hang-up wind-up" hard times party at the "Shack" on Westborough which was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Denton Hassall.

Bowling awards were received by Mr. and Mrs. Byron Saul, James Graham, Mrs. Lee Philip.

Formal Party To Precede Graduation

On Friday evening June 1 at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, students, parents and faculty of Bloomfield Country Day School will gather for the annual Rose Ball in honor of the graduating class.

Mrs. Simon Knudsen is chairman of the formal party and daughter, Lisa, a junior at the school, is assisting. Numerous progressive dinner parties have been planned prior to the dance. Nancy Judd of Glenview Road will entertain the junior-senior classes and their escorts for the first course, then all will proceed to the Club for the main course, as guests of Lisa Knudsen, this to be followed by dessert, with Joan Cooper of Stuyvesant Road the hostess.

Freshman and sophomore classes and their escorts will follow a similar pattern, hostesses including Sandra MacPherson of Merrimack Court, Donna Richardson of Glenview Road and Barbara Jenkins of Kenwood Court.

Commencement exercises will be held Sunday, June 3, in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer at 4 p.m. Mayor Florence Willett will be the speaker.

Word to wise bride: Don't try anything different in the way of a hairdo on your wedding day. Remember to keep your make-up as natural as possible. Why don't you take time to have a dress rehearsal of make-up so you'll know and use the right combination of shades.

Area Resident Wins Fulbright Award

Michael L. Ross, of 651 Lone Pine Hill, Bloomfield Hills, was awarded a grant for graduate study at the University of Florence, Italy. Ross will study English literature and also work as a teaching assistant at the University. The award was made under the provisions of the Fulbright Act.
