

Ensign Schirmer and Bride To Make Home in Key West

Key West, Fla. will be the home of Ensign and Mrs. Robert Hamilton Schirmer following their marriage Sunday afternoon at the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Bernardville, New Jersey. The bride is the former Alice Louise Mayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Mayes, Jr., of Miami, Florida, and formerly of Bernardville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Schirmer of Lone Pine Court, Bloomfield Hills.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of ivory taffeta with yoke and front panel of re-embroidered Alcon lace. The bonnet skirt terminated in a court train, and a veil of illusion fell from her open pill box of matching taffeta and lace.

HELEN MAYES was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Mayes, Mrs. Leslie C. Elen, of Columbus, O.; Mrs. T. Stephen May, of Adelphi, Md.; and Sandra Staff, of Milwaukee, Wis.

Bridesmaids wore autumn-gold satin with matching pill boxes and carried cascade bouquets of bronze tone and Fuji chrysanthemums. The maid of honor's gown was of bronze-copper satin.

Best man was Ensign John Schwabacher, of Sarasota, Fla. Ushering were the groom's brothers, Michael, of San Francisco, Calif.; Michael Underwood of North Olmstead, O.; Peter Knight of Binghamton, New York; Carlton Finkbeiner of Toledo, O., and Robert de Vore of Indian River, Mich.

FOLLOWING a dinner reception at Old Mill Inn, Bernardville, the couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Denison University, Granville, O., where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta, and he with Phi Gamma Delta.

Ensign Schirmer received his commission in the U. S. Navy upon graduation Oct. 26 from Officer Candidate School, Newport, R. I., and will be stationed at Key West.

Photographer Tony Spina To Be Feted

Photographer Tony Spina will be the honored guest Saturday at a dinner party at the Valley Hill Road home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Tehoy, of Valley Hill Road in Bloomfield Hills.

The chief photographer of The Detroit Free Press, Spina is the author of "The Making of a Pope," based on his photo coverage of important news events at The Vatican in Rome.

The Spina family lives on Squirrel Road in Bloomfield Township.

GUESTS AT Saturday's party will be Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Feltham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joty, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Ryan, Dr. and Mrs. John Markley and Mr. and Mrs. Alger Scott.

Other guests will be the Spina children and young members of the Joty, Tehoy, Markley, and Ryan families, plus Edward N. Birk and Michael Lukas, both of Chicago.

DAC Dining, Dancing Attract Visitors

The dining room at the Detroit Athletic Club attracted diners and dancers from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area again this week.

When Sheila Stone celebrated her 15th birthday Saturday her parents, the Robert L. W. Stones of Wing Lake Road, gave a dinner party for her. Sheila presided at her table, where her guests were Diane Simanek, Linda Sutton, Howard West, Gregg Lau and Michael Righter, all students at Bloomfield Hills High School. Mr. and Mrs. Stone were at another table at the DAC.

KATHLEEN GRIX, home from St. Elizabeth College in New Jersey for the week-end with her parents, the Arthur R. Grixes of Bloomfield Village, was the honor guest at a dinner given by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Morgan of Burning Bush Road, Birmingham. In the family party besides Mr. and Mrs. Grix were Kathleen's sister Mary Elizabeth and brother Henry Morgan.

In a sixsome among the many small groups at the DAC Saturday were the Ralph J. Sprayers of Dunblaine Road, and the Donald F. Balls of Grosse Pointe. This was a double birthday celebration honoring Mr. Nungles and Mrs. Ball on their respective milestones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Goode of Lone Pine Road entertained a sixsome to honor their week-end house guest, Mrs. Frank X. Pund of Cincinnati. In the group were Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney and the E. W. Iveys.

THE BLISS R. Finlays were others dining and dancing at the club to the music of Seymour Hoffman and his orchestra, their
