

Marriage Vows Solemnized At Christ Church Cranbrook

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Jones, of Bedford Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela Anne, to John Phillip Domke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Domke, of Grand Rapids. A Seaholm High School graduate, the bride-elect is attending Michigan State University, where her fiancé was graduated in June. A spring wedding date will be announced later.

A wedding trip through New England followed the ceremonies at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday at which Delphia Allen Lamberson became the bride of Milton Shy Meeker. The Rev. Robert Patterson officiated. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank A. Lamberson of Bingham Road, Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are the David Meekers of Glengary Circle West, Birmingham. The bride wore a full-skirted Bianchi wedding gown of peau d'Ange appliqued with velvet and lace. Her appliqued pillbox head-dress with open crown matched her gown and secured a bouffant veil of silk illusion.

MRS. MEEKER

MATRONS OF honor was Mrs. Thomas M. Donigan. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Christie, Mrs. Robert Stoehr, Mrs. Michael Hyman, and Mrs. Thaddeus Gesek. The bride's attendants wore gowns of gold silk brocade and carried yellow roses clustered with green grapes and ivy. David Mont Meeker was best man, and Howard Maynard, Robert Taylor, Thomas Donigan, Peter Knudsen, Marvin Stucky and Richard Howard ushered. A reception at the Detroit Athletic Club followed the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Couse-Jones Vows Given At Shrine

Given in white peau de soie, Dorothy Mary Jones became the bride of Glenn Emmett Couse Oct. 27 at an 11 o'clock ceremony in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

The bride is the daughter of

MRS. GLENN E. COUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jones of N. Woodward Ave. and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Crew C. Couse of Maple Road.

Dorothy's gown featured long tapering sleeves, a V neckline trimmed with Alencon lace and a full skirt with a panel of the same lace down the front. A Swedish crown secured her triple-tiered silk mist veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

JUDITH ANN SCULLIN was maid of honor, and Janet Illene Luans a bridesmaid. They wore iridescent jade green taffeta gowns and carried white mums, poms and eucalyptus.

James Cote was best man, and seating the guests were Donald F. Jones and Richard Gordon. Immediately following the service, a wedding breakfast was given at Kingsley Inn.

Newcomers Arriving for Antique Sale

Twelve of the 50 antique dealers coming to the Junior Goodwill Antiques Market Sunday are first-time exhibitors at the annual event, according to Mrs. George T. Wilde, of Rosemond Drive, Franklin.

Mrs. Wilde is chairman of the market, which will occupy two floors of the Goodwill Plant at Brush and East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Sunday, Nov. 11, through Wednesday, Nov. 14. Hours are 2 to 10 p.m. Sunday, and 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A THIRD floor at the plant, where handicapped workers are given jobs, will be headquarters for a quaint Copper Kettle dining room, where shoppers may have lunch and dinner. Across from an old-fashioned Country Store, members of the sponsoring Junior Group of Goodwill Industries are setting up a Goodwill Lane, with booths featuring jewelry and other items behind simulated store fronts. Your Society correspondents, featured throughout this section, want news about you.
