Barnum Trojans

On Wednesday, October 31, the annual city-sponsored halloween party was held at Barnum. Any student could come and there was no admission charge. Dancing was held in the gym, and games were played and movies shown in other rooms of the school. Food was served in the cafeteria. Many attended the party and all had a good time. This party is an annual event at Barnum and is looked forward to and enjoyed by all. The party was chaperoned by parent volunteers.

On Thursday, Nov. 8, the boys who are trying out for the basketball team will meet in the Barnum gym after school. The team will play several games with other schools, and we hope to see a big crowd at all of them. This is a very fast-paced sport that is a real thrill to watch.

The Barnum intramural football teams have played their first two games. The teams, composed of seventh and eighth grade boys have no names and are known merely as team A and team B. So far the teams have split the games, each one emerging with victory by a 7-0 score. The two teams are captained by Jay McAuliffe and Alan Waters. The teams have lots of fun and get much experience playing with boys of their own age in this highly competitive sport.

On Monday, Oct. 29, the Barnum International club held its first meeting. This club, open to all seventh, eighth and ninth graders, provides movies and speakers throughout the year and helps to promote our understanding of the people of other countries. This year the club is being sponsored by our three foreign language teachers, Mr. Kraemer, Miss Harrington, and Miss Logan. At the first meeting the officers were elected. The are: president, Nancy Warnock; vice-president, Jane Hilder; and secretary, Gayle Greenwalt.

On Oct. 9, at 3:15 p.m. the presidents club held it's first meeting. Th a group is not actually a club but is made up of all homeroom presidents. The club's sponsor, Mr. Bird, says that the club will no longer be merely an advisor to the Student Council but will possess more sovereignty. In the first meeting the following officers were elected: president, Larry Kirchner; vice-president, Martha Jean Payton; and Rich Piel, secretary. The club, as usual, is directing the annual Torch drive campaign. The students give contributions through their homerooms and the homeroom that turns in the most money gets a trophy from the presidents club. The homerooms hold bakesales and other events to raise funds for this worthy cause.

The Barnum Electronics club is in full swing for this year's activities. This club, under the direction of Mr. Macgrayne, is open to all interested students. The club meets each week to discuss electronics and communication topics and practice codes. Lately the club has been practicing sending Morse Code messages to other amateur operators in Detroit. The members of this interesting club are able to apply knowledge to projects and learn many new things in this vast field of electronics.

Geologists estimate that the friendship between man and dog began as long ago in history as the Stone Age, around 4000 B.C., but zoologists still disagree about what the Fido of the caveman days looked like. Some experts believe that the dog developed from the wolf and jackal families. Others assert that there has always been a dog. Whatever their origin, these first Stone Age dogs are now the ancestors of more than two hundred different breeds with wide variations of coat, shape and size.

colored crepe paper through the spokes of the doll buggies which my sister and I were to push in the parade.

On contest day, I was forced into a boy's suit, borrowed from a cousin, and my sister donned her very pretty gown. At the parade site, I was almost glad to put on my other head, hoping no one would know who was underneath.

My parents took turns leading me as I shuffled along in my cavern and I never knew just when we passed the judging stand.

FINALLY, THE ORDEAL was over and I parted with my cardboard cranium. In its stead, I received a shiny silver loving cup.

So did my sister. Hers was bigger.

Even though I felt I had done all the work and all the suffering, I didn't mind winning second place to her first.

What I did mind was the words indelibly inscribed on my trophy—the loathsome designation, "1928 Baby Parade."

Derby Dragons

On Oct. 31 the Anderson football team handed the Derby Dragons their second defeat of the year. The final score was Anderson, 14 and Derby, 7.

A geology club was formed at Derby this year to fit in with the change in seventh grade science curriculum. Officers have not been elected because the advisors, Mr. Kasmarek and Mrs. Decker, felt that the members do not know each other well enough yet.

They went on a field trip to see the rocks and minerals displayed at Cranbrook. Other plans for the future include collecting and polishing rocks.

Pictures for the yearbook have all been taken. The ninth graders had individual pictures taken on Oct. 19. Seventh and eighth graders had their pictures taken in their homerooms on Oct. 31.

The yearbook, priced at $2.25, will be on sale during the first two weeks of November.

Slave auctions, guessing how many beans or marbles are in a jar, raffles, bake sales, and many other things marked the United Foundation drive at Derby. The exact amount of money collected is not yet known.

Two issues of the "Dateline," Derby's monthly newspaper, have been published. The editors were recently selected. The editor-in-chief is Kathy O'Brien; sports editor, Brian Walker; fashion editor, Maria Bruno; club editor, Mary Ann Finneran; art editor, Jim Shryock; and business manager, Mike McGaw.

The papers of Owen J. Cleary, late Republican leader and former Michigan Secretary of State, have been presented to The University of Michigan Historical Collections.

Dramaticus will present a play in the Little Theater Nov. 8 and 9 entitled "The Heiress," by Ruth and Augusta Goetz. The play is based on a story about a young lady about to receive a large inheritance, and a man who intends to marry her for her money. It will begin at 8 p.m.

Acting in "The Heiress" are: Kathy Shank as Catherine Sloper; Pete Millington as Dr. Sloper; Dave Downs as Morris Townsend; Bob Szymke as Arthur Townsend; Barb Kipp as Maria; Diane Loppnow as Marianne; Kathy Longeway as Mrs. Penniman; Mary Gidley as Mrs. Almond; and Helen Cochren as Mrs. Montgomery.

Chairman for activities behind the scenes are: Camille Brunk and Joan Broziac, costumes; Roger Hollar and Mary Gregory, tickets and programs; Sandy Van Every and Dick Orton, publicity; Jane Meinhardt and Don McIntosh, props; Jane Upward and Gail Schuba, stage manager; Judy Barlow, student director; and Miss Katherine Bigge, director.

Groves' cross country team finally broke its three-week losing streak, Oct. 19, by defeating Oak Park 24 to 31. Led by captain Jim Speicher, Groves took the first five places with three Falcons running the course in less than 11 minutes.

At the county meet held at Walled Lake, Groves came in 13th, and Speicher placed in the top 15 of the 105 contestants. The cross country team, coached by Mr. Raymond Vavruska, is for ninth and 10th grade boys.

From 7:30 to 11:30 last Friday night the junior class sponsored Gym Night for all juniors, seniors and sophomores. The swimming pool was open, and in the gym there were activities such as basketball, ping pong, golf, badminton, and dancing. For the price of admission students also received refreshments such as cokes and potato chips.

Parents of juniors and seniors attended a meeting Oct. 24 in the Groves' gymnasium where college entrance examinations, scholarships, aptitude tests, and graduation requirements were discussed. Mr. William Hunter spoke on college requirements and applications, and how to select a college; Mr. Fred Baker, scholarship chairman at Groves, talked on special tests such as the SAT and PSAT, and scholarships.

Monday, Oct. 29, the UF (United Foundation) Drive opened at Groves, for one school week. This year there were no special projects to raise funds, as decided by Student Council. All donations were collected in the homerooms.

Homeroom pictures were taken throughout the day, Oct. 30, for the 1962-63 Groves yearbook, the "Talon." All grades were photographed except the seniors, who are having individual pictures taken for their final year.

U. S. Army Seeks Helicopter Pilots

A new examination has been announced by the United States Civil Service Commission for filling the position of helicopter pilot, paying $8,045 a year, at the U. S. Army Aviation Center, Fort Ruckner, Ala.

Persons appointed to these positions will instruct student pilots.

No written test is required. To qualify, applicants must hold a currently valid FAA license with instructor's rating for either rotary wing or fixed wing aircraft.

In addition, they must have had at least 500 hours as first pilot of rotary wing aircraft. Those who do not hold an FAA rotary wing instructor's rating must be able to acquire this rating within three months after date of entrance on duty.

The University of Michigan has trained two groups of Peace Corpsmen for duty in Thailand.

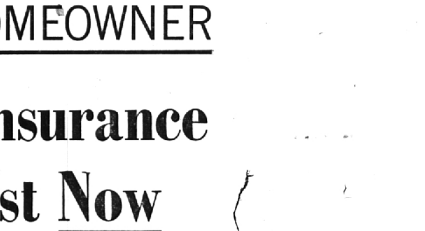
MR. HOMEOWNER

Get more insurance at lower cost Now during Protection Week



Is your home insurance protection like a patchwork quilt?

Do you have several different policies with separate premiums—perhaps too many policies but too little coverage?

The new Homeowners Policy combines insurance protection against fire, windstorm, theft, comprehensive liability, and 15 other risks—in one simplified policy at one low premium! This modern, all-in-one Homeowners Policy actually gives you more protection, yet costs considerably less than the total premiums under separate policies.

In addition, this comprehensive Homeowners Policy also

- pays medical expenses for accidental injury to others
- pays increased living expenses if you can't live in your home because it is damaged
- insures private structures located on the premises

To get all the insurance protection you really need for your home and personal property—without upsetting the family budget—see one of the local independent insurance agents listed below.

And this week—Protection Week—send the coupon at right for your free copy of Atlantic's Household Inventory Booklet. Making this home inventory record now will give you an accurate list of your valuable possessions. Then when you have a loss you will be sure to collect all you should. Fill in and mail the coupon to the independent agent of your choice listed below.
