The ceremony will take place in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham. Currently bride-elect and her fiancé are attending school at Michigan State University.

Kappas Take Reins Away From Santa

The afternoon and evening groups of the North Woodward Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma will meet Tuesday, Nov. 13. Members will be busy preparing gifts for the children at the Pontiac State Hospital's Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children. More than 150 gifts will be distributed by Kappas at their two Christmas parties, Dec. 17-21, given at the hospital. Most of the presents will be clothes which members have collected for the children and which will be wrapped in colorful Christmas paper, and decorations the Kappas will make and assemble at the November meeting.

Party Planned With Esquire In Mind

The Women's Committee at Birmingham Country Club has decided it's high time fashion shows—usually geared for feminine consumption only—be planned around the gentlemen who foot the bills! Hence, esquire is especially invited to the club's next party, Wednesday night, Nov. 14, when a sumptuous parade of high style will combine with buffet dinner and dancing in one of the most festive, pre-holiday events on members' calendars.

LADIES AT THE HELM include Mrs. John Daniels, chairman; Mrs. Tobin Rote, Mrs. Paul Thorlakson, Mrs. William Brewer and Mrs. Glenn Whitley. Advance reservations already made are those of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bihler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyvonen, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Diaz and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Fitzgerald.

Delta Gammans Are Going 'Back to School'

Mrs. Robert Benton, 15810 Reedmere, Beverly Hills, will be hostess to the Birmingham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Gamma on Tuesday night, Nov. 18 at 8 p. m. Program of the evening will transport members back to their college days. A skit "Back to School", directed by Mrs. Richard Thornton and enacted by Mrs. L. D. Brogren, Mrs. Lowell Sutton and Mrs. D. C. Rebold, will depict the present day sorority activities on campus. An "alumnae quiz" will act as a refresher course, including the philanthropic and educational activities of Delta Gamma alumnae groups across the country. Assisting Mrs. Benton as co-hostesses at this dessert meeting are Mrs. Howard Wert, Mrs. Richard Dusenburg and Mrs. T. E. Adlerly.
