Gardeners Present Plaque to School

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

A two-year project of the Bloomfield Village branch WNFGA, with the help of the Cub Scouts of Bloomfield Village, was climaxed last week with the presentation of a plaque for the sundial at the village school.

The plaque, which will be placed on the sundial, was presented to Mrs. Philip Copeland, president of the Bloomfield Village chapter at the ceremonies. It was given in memory of Robert E. Morris who was active in scouting.

Present were acting cubmaster George Stephens; Mrs. Robert E. Morris and her twin sons, Norm and Dick; Mrs. Lee Binko, chairman of the horticultural program; and Mrs. Richard LaDue, Mrs. Derwin Walker, Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick, Mrs. Michael Frisch, Mrs. George Walker and past president Mrs. Arthur Morrow.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ZIMMERMANN of Covington Place, Bloomfield Village, spent last week end with their children, Robbie, Susan and Nancy, at the Pere Marquette Rod and Gun Club near Baldwin. The family went partridge hunting.

Mrs. Joseph F. Gatz of Sandringham Way, Bloomfield Village, invited 18 of her neighbors to a get-acquainted coffee recently. Honored guests were Mrs. Harry E. Konkle of Hensworth Court and Mrs. Charles Bergerson of Sandringham Way, both newcomers to the area.

GILBERT LAKE
The Northhills Improvement Association held its annual parade for the children of the subdivision last week. This event has been taking place for over five years. This year's committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klooster, Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Smith, Mrs. Ronald Ballentine and Jerry Chase. Judges were Mrs. Robert Sayed, Mrs. Thomas Kuzma and Mr. G. Peter Smith.

The "scariest" award went to Gary Kadau and Joy Sayed; "funniest," Doug Leary and Ruth Ann Strawser; best costume, Steve Kuzma and Cathleen Kehrl; best disguise, Harry Manvel and Martha Vogt. Carol Christie was voted the prettiest.

Young D. Manvel and R. Townsend teamed up to make a two-headed monster which won the "most original" prize for the boys. Lori Common won for the girls. Holly Smith was the best ghost and Rick Eoff and Karen Mack won for the best "get-up".

Each of the winners received a silver dollar and all the children and their parents enjoyed cider and donuts by the bonfire after the parade.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS
The October meeting of the Bloomfield Heights branch WNFGA was held recently at the home of Mrs. H. J. Hood on Risdon Court. Eleanor McCurry, director of occupational therapy at Pontiac State Hospital, gave a talk on the patients and the way in which horticultural therapy helps patients back to a normal life.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Colton Hutchins of Pine Tree Trail and Mrs. Charles Buhler of Cedar Bend Drive.

WING LAKE
Hats off to the "trick or treaters" of Wing Lake School who brought wrapped candy to donate to the Pontiac State Hospital. The children brought in 146 pounds of candy which were taken to the hospital last week.

Wing Lake School held an open house at 7:30 Monday. A panel discussion on "conferences" was the topic of the evening.

THE WING LAKE SHORES branch WNFGA met at 10:30 a.m. on Monday at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Moore on Carey Lane. Assisting Mrs. Moore as co-hostesses were Mrs. John Noyes also of Carey Lane.

Members of the branch gathered for a Christmas workshop and to see guest Mrs. Jean Goldner demonstrate how to make Christmas trees.

Mrs. Douglas Dameron of Lakeview hosted a get-acquainted coffee recently for her three new neighbors. Guests were newcomers Mrs. John Sturgess, Mrs. Lee Wardrip and Mrs. Robert Tholl who were greeted by Mesdames Colin Stewart, M. E. Hewitt, Fred Underwood, Ken Nicholson, Carl Thornburg, Ed Webster, Doug Haapur, Larry Martz and Jerome Geisler.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Mrs. Harry W. Free will open her Morningview Terrace home on Wednesday for the regular meeting of the Bloomfield Village branch WNFGA. Mrs. Franklin Roberts will assist as co-hostess. "Flower Arranging" will be the topic of the day with Bell Greenhouses instructing.

Members of Cub Pack 1016 will meet Friday evening to view a movie about the Indianapolis Speedway Race. The film will help the scouts prepare their cars for the Pinewood Derby coming in the near future. Cubmaster is George Stephens and pack mother is Mrs. Robert Zimmermann.

Forty-four cubs are sectioned off into eight dens. Mothers and their assistants are Mrs. Blanche Leeftma and Mrs. Margaret Meek for Den 1; Mrs. Gibbs Slater and Mrs. Jackie Easton, Den 2; Mrs. Peggy Rymes and Mrs. Ann Knipper, Den 3; Mrs. Bonita Christen and Mrs. Peggy Wilson, Den 4; Mrs. Peggy Gallagher and Mrs. Ann Benjamin, Den 5; Mrs. Deborah Schmier and Mrs. Beverly Iden, Den 6; Mrs. Jane Kellman and Mrs. Helene Wallace, Den 7; and Mrs. Adeline Garcia (with two fathers taking over each month) for Den 8.

Plan Open House

Seaholm High School will hold its annual open house Tuesday at 8 p.m. There will be a brief meeting in the gymnasium, followed by short class sessions showing the parents how their child spends his day at Seaholm. Parents will have a chance to meet the teachers and learn about the courses their student is taking.

Sets Date

Ann Frances Frick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril E. Frick of Berkley, has set Jan. 5 as the date of her marriage to William Yates III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Yates, Jr. of N. Gleggarry Road, Birmingham. The ceremony will take place in St. Anthony Shrine at Duns Scotus College.

Daughter Born

A daughter, Pamela Claire, was born Oct. 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Gilluley, 648 Vinewood, Birmingham. Mrs. Gilluley was formerly Georgia Strain of Grand Rapids.

Food With a Flare Rates All-Out Interest at Club

A real culinary challenge and contest is in the offing for the Village Woman's Club Wednesday, Nov. 14. Members have been busily searching through recipe files for their most exciting dish, be it exotic, or simply a "specialty" of the house. Some have even divulged treasured family secret recipes to compete for the prizes.

A panel of judges includes Kay Savage of the Detroit Free Press; Kay Kopera of the Detroit News; Peggy Lewis of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.; Mary Jackson of Consumers Power Co. and Marion Ryan of the Detroit Edison Co.

There will be cash awards for first, second and third places for the four categories consisting of: main dishes, salads, quick breads and desserts. Many bonus gifts are also providing added attractions.

THE LUNCHEON at 12:30 in the form of a buffet sampler will give everyone an opportunity to taste the prize-winning delicacies. Printed receipts, at a nominal fee, will be available for all dishes. The proceeds will contribute towards the building fund.

Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Robert G. Campbell and Mrs. Loren C. Spademan, Jr.

Their assistants include Mrs. Edward K. Pilcher, Mrs. Harvey Kresge, Jr., Mrs. Donald D. Douglas, Mrs. Carl E. Widney, Jr., Mrs. Frank H. Boyer, Mrs. Reed Dewey, Mrs. William F. Gray, Mrs. Thomas W. Butters, Mrs. Robert L. Saffell, Mrs. F. J. Whitcroft, Mrs. Charles D. Gilbert, Mrs. John R. Bull and Mrs. Robert DenUyl.
