

IN THIS SECTION:
Social, Women's
News from B'ham,
Township Area

Pre-Holiday Luncheon Sets Festive Theme

MRS. ROBERT VANDERKLOOT (LEFT) MRS. HERMAN D. SCARNEY

MRS. JOHN N. FAILING, JR. (LEFT) MRS. ROBERT B. POWERS

MRS. EDWARD S. WELLOCK (LEFT) MRS. EMBREE KENNEDY

MRS. JESSE P. JUDD (LEFT) MRS. LEWIS FYKES

N. Y. Vignette Related by L. D. Stauffers

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie D. Stauffer of Westwood Drive, Birmingham, have returned from spending a week in the East.

While in New York city they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Sockman and on election day, Tuesday, Nov. 6, attended a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria, where 1,100 laymen, clergymen and former Ohio Wesleyan alumni gathered to honor Bishop Herbert Welch on the occasion of his one hundredth birthday.

Bishop Welch was president of Ohio Wesleyan when Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer were graduated from the university.

"HE IS STILL active in mind and body," reported Mr. Stauffer, "perfectly equal to delivering a 38-minute address in response to a humorous birthday oration by Dr. Sockman, minister emeritus of Christ Methodist Church in New York."

Frosting on the cake was added to by a congratulatory telegram from the President of the United States which read:

"Your voting this day deserves the special attention of all Americans and should serve to remind us once again of both the responsibility and the privilege of voting."

MRS. HORACE PRUNK

MRS. HAROLD DREW

MRS. M. M. BURGESS (LEFT) MRS. G. JOHN GRAHAM

Preceding her departure Wednesday with Mr. Wellock to spend the rest of the winter in his home in Honolulu, Mrs. Edward S. Wellock of Bloomfield Hills entertained Nov. 8 at one of the most elaborate luncheons of the fall season in Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Honor guest was Mrs. Embree Kennedy of Sao Paulo, Brazil, who, with Mr. Kennedy, had been a house guest of the Wellocks for several days. The foursome met a number of years ago when both were in South America on business for G.M.

MRS. GUNNAR KARLSTROM

MRS. WILLIAM D. SINGLETON

Mrs. Garrison, Miss Nagle Star Agendas

Former Birminghamite Mrs. F. G. Garrison, world traveler whose informative and humorous talks have long been familiar to localities, will be the guest speaker at the Ruth Shain class Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 10 a.m. in the Community House.

Mrs. Garrison, who moved to Detroit a year ago, has just returned from a trip around the world where she went as a delegate from WNGA to the Triennial Country Women of the World Conference in Melbourne, Australia.

Mrs. Garrison's talk, first she has made since she returned, will combine political reference (she met several heads of state) with a progress report on the Country Women and their development in world-wide areas.

VILLAGE Bookshelf's Elaine Nagle will help the Birmingham alumnae chapter of Alpha Xi Delta do some early Christmas shopping at their monthly meeting Monday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Bruce Rauch, 848 Pleasant St.

Miss Nagle, an Alpha Xi Delta alumna living in Birmingham, will present a review series of recently published books, plus spotlighting selected children's material.

'So Tonight Let's All Be Gay'

Gayest party of the season for Birmingham U. of M. alumni will take place Tuesday, Nov. 27, at Kingsley Inn.

And although the ladies have their collective fingers in the planning, from where we sit looks as if the whole shabang is geared toward the men—from a menu of prime ribs to guest speaker Chalmers ("Bump") Elliott, head football coach at the University.

General chairmen Marcia and Russ (Mr. and Mrs. Russell)

"BUMP" ELLIOTT

MRS. STRICKLAND

S.) Strickland have engaged the entire lower level of the Kingsley for the party, and ticket chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abbott are hard keep up with requests for reservations.

Special hosts and hostesses include the Tom Kuzmas, the Quentin Sicksels, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hinkens, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maentz and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Barr, to name just a few of the football "greats" living in our hometown.

Tau Betas, Boosters Swing Into Action

The social calendar continues to be liberally sprinkled by benefits, holidays or no.

One particular, with a strong appeal for children, is Tau Beta's theater party Sunday night, Nov. 25, at the Fisher.

"Olive!" is the musical which will keep young eyes sparkling and feet tapping and among family groups planning to attend the 7:30 p.m. performance are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bernard, the Day Krolicks, Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Letts, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wise.

A GROUP OF neighbors going together are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muskee, Mr. and Mrs. Steele Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. James Fredricks and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGowan.

The Sidney Smiths, the William Letchers, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Linn, the John Booths, Judy and Mrs. Richard Bernard, the Day Krolicks, Mr. and Mrs. also have reservations.

Proceeds from the party will help re-build the water front at Tau Beta's summer camp.

THE HOOSTERS of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital are off to an ambitious start in their fourth year, with a dinner dance scheduled Dec. 1 at Birmingham Country Club—a means of raising funds to complete the cafeteria for hospital employees.

Chairman of the party is Dr. E. C. McPhee who, with his stalwart cohorts, have done such an outstanding face-lifting job throughout the entire hospital.

Others who are contributing to plans for the dance include Marie E. Hickey, Dr. Michael Kozonis, George Taylor, Mrs. John Petras, Miss James Hannan, Mrs. John Mahoney, Mrs. Charles Klinesmith, Dr. Raymond Gagliardi, Dr. Thomas Sansome, Mrs. Meyer Simon and Dr. Norman Gehring.

Parties Fete Visitors From Miami

Former Birminghamites Mr. and Mrs. William G. Crawford of Miami, Fla., arrived Monday to spend this week as house guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lewis of Franklin.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Lewis and her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Nightingale, entertained for Mrs. Crawford at a small luncheon at the Village Woman's Club, and to night Mr. and Mrs. William Wiggins of Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills, will be hosts at a dinner party for the visitors.

Mrs. Sam Walker and Mrs. John Gilray will be co-hostesses Friday at a luncheon for Mrs. Crawford in Mrs. Gilray's home in Bloomfield Hills.

Glee Club Concert Draws Socialites

Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Panelli are among local alumni inviting guests to attend the University of Notre Dame Glee Club Concert to be presented by Marfan High School Mothers' Club at the school auditorium Friday, Nov. 23 at 8:30 p.m.

It is a cultural event of special interest to local music lovers as well, since it is the only concert scheduled for this area by the well known choral group.

Among other Birmingham alumni planning to attend and to entertain guests are Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Bracken, Mr. and Mrs. J. Timothy Cruise, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Craine, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. John Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morris, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. William Roney.

LOCAL MARIAN parents who have made reservations with Mrs. Milton Stuehli, ticket chairman and mother of a Glee Club member.

Junior Musical

The monthly meeting of Birmingham Junior Musical was held Nov. 12 in the home of Sue Perkins, 169 Bassett Place, Birmingham.

ber, are Dr. and Mrs. J. Norman Allison, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D'Agost, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ditch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Frister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goltz, Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Heister and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Henry, Jr.

Also looking forward to a gala evening are Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mr. and Mrs. John MacAlonn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Chris J. Scheerer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Girard J. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Sybdon and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young.

Kappa Deltas Make Christmas Favors

Kappa Delta's south Oakland alumnae held its regular luncheon meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Richard D. Manges, 360 Arlington Road, Birmingham. The co-hostess was Mrs. John H. Leonard, a newcomer to Birmingham.

Special project of the day was making favors for the Christmas party at the crippled children's center of Oakland County. Approximately 100 favors are needed.

"WE HOPE the entire audience will plan to remain for the reception following the concert," commented Mrs. John Bode, general chairman for the event that is the special responsibility of the sophomore mothers. Her chairmen include Mrs. Thomas Raleigh, reception; Mrs. Elmer Gorman and Mrs. Martin J. Hartwell, publicity; Mrs. G. A. Racine, program; Mrs. Harry Marza, staging arrangements; and Mrs. Robert Casaulo, decorations.

The public is invited and may obtain tickets from any of the following members of Mrs. Stuehli's committee: Mrs. Kenneth Kavanagh, Mrs. Robert Filiarski, Mrs. Louis Fontana, Mrs. Marshall Glaeser, Mrs. Andrew Kalls or Mrs. John O'Hara.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Janke, 564 Purdy St., Birmingham, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Wednesday at a family dinner party at the Detroit Boat Club. Hosts were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Divine of Grosse Pointe.

Early Deadlines In Effect for Our Next Issue

The Birmingham Eccentric will be closed Thanksgiving Day. Our issue for that week will be published on Wednesday, Nov. 21.

Therefore, all deadlines will be moved up one day. All news contributors and advertisers are asked to get their copy into our offices as early as possible.