Catching Up With the J.K. Bains, Jr.

Mrs. James K. Bain, Jr. of Princeton, N. J., was recently a delegate to the tenth annual conference of the New Jersey Federation of School Boards of Education in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Bain was one of three New Jersey teachers who took part in a panel discussion on "New Horizons in Elementary Education."

Mrs. Bain is the former Beverly Ford, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Ford of Fairway Drive, Birmingham.

She was a graduate of Seaholm High School and earned her degree from the University of Michigan in 1961. Currently she is teaching in Lawrence Township, N. J., engaged in concentrated study of new trends in elementary education and identifying the needs of the exceptional child.

Her husband is the son of the James K. Bains of 776 Waddington, Birmingham, and is in his second year at Princeton Theological Seminary.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

They Said It With Dancing!

Newcomers Club of Birmingham welcomed new residents in the area at a dinner dance Saturday night given in Glen Oaks Country Club. Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jessel and the George Hecks.

Vacationing Pair Undaunted By Cuban Crisis

Although the Cuban blockade, reaching to south Florida's shores, is said to have shaken the world, it did not shake Birmingham's Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Torgerson from their scheduled Florida visit.

With great faith in this country's handling of the crisis, they planned for Delray Beach at the same time that more American troops and warships were deployed to reinforce the Gold Coast's security.

The couple returned to their home at 3450 Burning Bush Road Nov. 7 after a 10-day stay with the George W. Walkers, formerly of Bloomfield Hills, but now year-round residents at the resort.

The Walkers celebrated the Torgersons' visit with a party in their honor at Dante's, a new dinner club in neighboring Fort Lauderdale.

Your Society correspondents, featured throughout this section, want news about you.

Juniors Plan Style Show For a Cause

"Holiday Highlights," the seventh annual benefit luncheon and fashion show, sponsored by Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary, will be held Nov. 29 at Oakland Hills Country Club at 12 p.m.

Chudiks of Birmingham is staging the style show, proceeds from which will go to the Birmingham Child Guidance Clinic and FAR, Friends and Relatives of Retarded Children.

As the name of the show implies, spotlight will focus on cocktail, dinner, cruise fashions and furs.

WORKING TO make the afternoon festive are general chairmen Mrs. William Kenyon and Mrs. Patrick Deighan. Their committee heads are Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. Bowen Brock, tickets; Mrs. Kenneth Crosby, patrons; Mrs. Gordon Shira, door prizes; Mrs. Charles Meyer, decorations; Mrs. Joseph Gerak, raffle, and Mrs. Robert Thorson, Mrs. William Hall, Mrs. Jon Shepherd, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Durwood Allen, Mrs. James Nethercut and Mrs. William Johnston, Jaycee wives who will model.

Anyone interested in attending this luncheon may make reservations by calling Mrs. Taylor or Mrs. Brock before Nov. 25.
