The Al Hagmans, who moved here in September from Baltimore, Md., but who are originally from the state of Washington? Mr. Hagman, who was a Sigma Alpha Epsilon at Washington State University, is a sales engineer with Kaiser Aluminum. His wife, also a graduate of Washington State, was a Kappa Delta. Their combined hobby is nine-year-old Lorr, but Mr. Hagman also plays golf and Mrs. Hagman is interested in art.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrett of Pontiac announce the birth of a daughter, Kathryn Lynn, on Nov. 2. Mrs. Garrett is the former Tamara Bock of Birmingham.

Local Christ Child Volunteers Take Time Off to Attend Golden Jubilee

"Who's going to watch the store?" All of the Birmingham Christ Child members with their friends and relations are heading for the Golden Jubilee Carnival tomorrow at Cobo Hall and the problem of "watching the store" became a difficult one to solve.

The "store" of course is the new Christ Child School for Educable Retarded Children. Mrs. James D. Schmidt, Birmingham director, came up with the perfect solution by suggesting the school declare a holiday, thus freeing volunteers for a carefree day of carnival fun.

THE RECENT honor in the HomeMaker of the Year Contest bestowed on Mrs. James Schmidt was most fitting, as Mary Lou is indeed outstanding as a wife and mother.

In her community, however, she is known also for her able leadership as director of the Birmingham Unit of the Christ Child Society. This year, the fiftieth anniversary of Christ Child in the metropolitan area, she is not only pleased with the accomplishments of the Society in the past, but of the present projects. The Christ Child House for needy children and the new Christ Child School located in Birmingham.

THE SCHOOL FOR retarded children will always find itself grateful to Mary Lou, who was the first chairman of the project three years ago at its inception and has followed it through to its present reality.

Mary Lou claims to have walked the length and breadth of every piece of vacant property in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area looking for the right location for the school.

Both the home and the school are entirely financed by Christ Child members, mainly through an annual fund and fund-raising week-end slated for Friday, Nov.

The Charles Bergesons of 1225 Sandringham Way in Bloomfield Village? The Bergesons, with their children Gary, 7, and Barbara 5, moved into their new home the end of August. They are former Farmington residents. Bergeson (better known as Chuck) is local sales manager for WJBK-TV. He attended Columbia University and enjoys golf in his spare time. Mrs. Bergeson attended Marygrove and is active in the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

16, for the carnival and fashion show at Cobo Hall, and Saturday, Nov. 17, for LeBal D'Or dinner dance at the Country Club in Grosse Pointe.

MOST EXCITED about tomorrow's event-filled day is Mrs. John Dolan, this year's carnival chairman and first to be appointed from the Birmingham area. The fun as well as the work involved in putting on this $30,000 event has caught the imagination of the Birmingham group and the volunteers have worked with dedication to make this fiftieth anniversary celebration a real success.

Several women are planning to meet beforehand for luncheon. At the DAC will be a group including Mrs. Rob Barnes, Mrs. Robert Fife, Mrs. John Fauver, Mrs. Donald Bouchard, Mrs. James Northrup, Mrs. William Compton and Mrs. Benjamin Smith.

IN THE ballroom at Cobo Hall another group of board members will be serving tea and cake to their Christ Child guests. They include Mrs. J. Norman Allston, Mrs. Francis Anderman, Mrs. John Annas, Mrs. Judge Bearden, Mrs. Walter Cronin, Mrs. Richard Gieryn, Mrs. Robert Huber, Mrs. Joseph Juett, Mrs. Frank MacDonell, Mrs. H. E. Mountain, Mrs. Clyde Recht and Mrs. James Schmidt.

The best part of the whole day, according to Mrs. John Ryan, is the fact that the carnival will last until 6 p.m., making it a perfect time to meet one's husband for dinner.

Sharing her enthusiasm for a Caucus Club date with their respective husbands are Mrs. James Wankel, Mrs. Elmore Leonard, Mrs. James Schmidt, Mrs. Norman Allston and Mrs. Richard Pearce.
