

Pair to Live In California After Wedding

Judithann Katherine Larsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Larsen of Tancienne Drive, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Nov. 10 to James A. Bertuzzi of Anaheim, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bertuzzi of Southfield.

The couple repeated their vows in the Shrine of the Little Flower, with the Rev. Father Robert Kaenig officiating.

Satin brocade fashioned the bridal robes, which were further distinguished by a detachable train and crystal tiara securing a veil of sheerest illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of amazing lilies and stephanotis.

MRS. J. A. BERTUZZI

MRS. WILLIAM Scott of Pontiac was matron of honor, wearing for the occasion a sheath of red velvet with a satin overskirt. Her white fur pillbox was trimmed with red tulle, and she carried matching roses attached to a white muff.

The other attendants, dressed identically, were Mrs. Donald of Royal Oak; Mrs. Wilgamon of Detroit, and Mrs. Larsen, sister of the

Student from Alma Visits New York

ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1882

Gordon Robb, son of the George Robbs of Pine Hill Drive, was among the group of Alma College students sent to New York for five days by the Alma Faculty recently.

The group toured the American and Russian embassies, the RCA building and New York city. The plans were to have included dining with Adlai Stevenson and being his guest at the United Nations, but this part of the plans were cancelled because of the Cuban crisis.

The Robbs joined their son on his return for the Alma homecoming weekend. Gordon, in Royal McPherson plaid kilts, was part of the "Alma Kiltie Band" during the whole weekend activities.

THE TOPIC, "How to Make Swag for the Holidays" was chosen by the Osage Garden Club for their November meeting. Giving demonstrations talk was the club's guest speaker, Mrs. H. S. Miska. The meeting was held on Monday afternoon at the Brockley Drive home of Mrs. James Chart.

The "Charnwood Neighbors," an area square dance group, gathered at the Lee Kreglow home on Charnwood Drive for a potluck supper and square dancing on Saturday.

Swinging their partners were the William Pollocks, the Ray Knechers, the Earle Mays and their son Steve, the Hilbert Hirschfelds, the Jack Simpkins, the Edward Bekos, the Robert Kents and the Gene Heilys of Charnwood. Other area couples included the Jack Hoffmans, the Ernest Goehes, the Lloyd Gardiners, the Jack Watraths and the David Lemelins.

MANY NEWCOMERS have been moving into the North Adams area, among them are the John Kishs and two year old daughter, Sherry, of Winchcombe Drive. Their move was from Clarkston. Kish is a teacher at Seaholm High School.

The George Newcombe and children, David and Janet, are new residents on Winchcombe Drive. They are formerly of Dearborn. Newcombe is affiliated with the Detroit Arsenal.

Another new family on Winchcombe Drive are the Donald Fusetts of Detroit. Their children include Larry, Susan, Nancy, Lisan Ann and Edward. Tusset is with Roy O'Brian.

MOVING INTO THEIR new home on Ashover Drive are the Kent Biels and son Colin. The family moved here from Terre Haute, Ind. Biel is with Fisher Body.

The Vincent Julians recently moved to Ashover Drive from the East. They have two children, Vincent, Jr. and Mary Ann. Julian is with the U. S. Government. The Walter Ingrams are also newcomers to Ashover Drive, were formerly of Royal Oak. Ingram is manager of Sylvan Glen Country Club. They have two children, Michael and Sharon.

MRS. W. B. ARCHER, JR.

Archers-Jenks Vows Given In Church

At a ceremony solemnized Nov. 10 at the Episcopal Church, Ellen Edith Jenks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward Jenks of Lathrup Village became the bride of Walter B. Archer, Jr., son of Mrs. Margaret Archer, of Birmingham, and Walter B. Archer of Royal Oak.

Following the 7:30 o'clock ceremony, at which the Rev. Kenneth Gas officiated, a reception was given at Red Run Golf Club.

The bride wore a gown of imported brocade with a controlled semi-sheath skirt, fitted bodice with tiny jacket and a detachable court train. A self-made rose in matching brocade held her bouffant veil of French illusion.

MRS. THOMAS W. McCaw II of Indianapolis, Ind., was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. David Bieber of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Joan O'Brien of Bloomfield Hills. They were all dressed in autumn gold satin. Ricky and Kathy Hanwell were ring bearer and flower girl.

John Archer was best man, and seating the guests were Robert Swats of Royal Oak; Reed Jenkins, Edgar Vogel and Phillip Bisailon, all of Birmingham, and Ward Jenks, Jr. of Lathrup Village.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak.
