ART SUPPLIES FOR THE AMATEUR & PROFESSIONAL

Teen-Agers Lend Talents

Nine teen-age Birmingham-Bloomfield area girls, gathered together by Kenna Pratt, daughter of the K. Stanley Pratts, will be manning the Treasure Shop booth at the International Institute's Old World Market Friday night.
The Market opened for a four-day stand today and doors will be open daily from 12 noon to 10 p.m. through Sunday, Nov. 18. The girls, all of high school age, plan to go in a body to act as salesmen for the booth stocked with the many "treasures" accumulated at the donation tea in October at which Mrs. Harry L. Winston was the speaker.
In addition to Kenna, the girls are Margaret McLaughy, Gretchen Van Horn, Priscilla Read, JoAnne McNamee, Mary Fischer, Sue Minnet, Sue Jospay and Sue Wilder.
Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Players' Show Incentive for Party-Giving

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton A. Stewart of Lathrup Village will entertain 14 guests at a buffet supper after the Nov. 23 performance of the Village Players, "Once Upon a Mattress." Mr. Stewart plays in the musical "Combo" which is handling the score.
Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kleene of Derby Road will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gabent, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monteith, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith on Nov. 24. Cocktails and dinner will be served at the Kleene home, after which the group will attend the Players' performance.

MRS. G. C. CAMPBELL

Mexican Trip Follows Rites In Church

Virginia Lee Heuer and George Chapman Campbell repeated their marriage vows Nov. 10 in a ceremony solemnized in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.
The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the 4 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception and dinner at Rotunda Inn.
The bride, who lives in Birmingham, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Doe of Detroit, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Campbell of Snowshoe Circle, Birmingham.

Local Woman Is Chairman Of Gala Party

An innovation in social activity for Harmonie Club members will be a style show arranged by the Ladies Committee for Friday evening, Nov. 30, in the new Harmonie ballroom, Mrs. John Baker of Crestway Drive, Birmingham, is general chairman.
The party will begin with hors d'oeuvres at 6:30 p.m., steak dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. and the hour-long style show will be presented at 8:30, with Harmonie ladies acting as models.
Mrs. Robert Somers, of Indianapolis, Ind., wore magenta bouffant and carried blush pink carnations for her role as matron of honor. Other attendees, dressed identically, were Sally Schwen of Coldwater and Mrs. David Stockham of Ypsilanti.
Donald Coulter of Traverse City was best man, and seating the guests were Knight Houghton of Birmingham and David Stockham of Ypsilanti.
Bert Djerkins of Birmingham will sing during dinner and the Mack Pitt trio will play background music during the style show. Following the show, 400 members and their guests will dance until 1 a.m.

Workshop Planned; Officers Elected

A Christmas workshop will be held Dec. 6 for members of the newly formed Pine Lake Estates Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.
Twenty-two charter members met recently to elect officers. Mrs. William Grubbs is president; Mrs. Gene Riegler, vice president; Mrs. Lester Jeffrey, recording secretary; Mrs. William Blight, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Carl Christianson, treasurer.
Guest speaker at the first meeting was Mrs. William McCallum, national extension chairman.
