New Program Recommended By Hills PTO

The second PTA meeting of Bloomfield Hills High School took place Nov. 12 in the school's new auditorium.

President Willard Sheppard introduced Julia Miller, public health nurse, and Dr. Bernard Berman of the Oakland County Health Dept. who presented two movies taken from the department's "Growing-Up Program". Dr. Berman said that this program is being used in a majority of the school districts in Oakland County.

About 250 PTO'ers attended the meeting and discussed the program. They then voted unanimously to recommend the use of the program to the high school.
