

Christening Marks Holiday Reunion

by HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Youngman of Summit, N.J., and their three children arrived Tuesday to spend a week with Mrs. Youngman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carson E. Dalton.

On Thanksgiving morning the Youngman's youngest child, Gretchen, along with her two cousins, Carson E. Dalton III and Cynthia, children of Mr. and Mrs. Carson E. Dalton II, of Birmingham, are being christened at Kirk-in-the-Hills Church with Dr. Harold DeWitt officiating. Afterwards, the Dalton seniors are hosting a family Thanksgiving dinner.

The Carson's have invited a few young people in for cocktails and a buffet supper Sunday in honor of their daughter and son-in-law.

THE CARL UNDERHILL'S of Cranbrook Road were pleased that their daughter Barbara, who arrived Wednesday afternoon, was able to take time off from her job in New York and stay the long Thanksgiving week-end.

They are entertaining their entire family Thanksgiving day at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Included besides Barbara are son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underhill Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibbons of Birmingham.

Monday members of the Little Garden Club had their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Hutchins of Barwyn Road. Co-hostess was Mrs. George Hoke.

"Do it yourself" Christmas" was the topic of the day, with Mrs. A. L. Hopkins as instructor.

Among those attending were the president, Mrs. Frank Boyer; Mrs. Felix Brunner, Mrs. Robert Flint, Mrs. H. J. Gibson and Mrs. Robert Lovell. Others were Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. Burt Schmitt, Mrs. Oscar Mesny and Mrs. Wendell Smith.

MR. AND MRS. Daniel Packard of Bloomfield Ct., entertained at cocktails in their home Saturday night, taking their guests to Forest Lake Country Club for dinner and dancing. The party honored Mr. and Mrs. William Carlow of Farmington, who are leaving shortly to make their home in Buffalo, N.Y.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chance, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chance, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin MacRae and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Marburger.

SATURDAY NIGHT, St. Dunstan members put on two one-act plays followed by an afterglow at their playhouse on Lone Pine Road.

Several dinner parties were given beforehand, including one by Mr. and Mrs. Jervis B. McMechan of Pilgrim Road and also Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton of Hawthorne Road.

Another party honoring Ann Shenfield and Peter Trees was given Sunday by three couples, long time friends of Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shene-field of Bernington Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. McCombe of Hinsdale, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Newman T. Halvorson of Gates Mills, O., collaborated with Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hawkinson on a brunch and kitchen shower at the Hawkinson home on Guilford Road. About forty guests were present.

In Anticipation

Marymount College student Joanna Deer of Birmingham, daughter of Dr. Edwin W. Deer, put the finishing touches on this holiday centerpiece this week for the annual Thanksgiving Day dinner to be held in the Student-Faculty Center. The school is located in Palos Verdes Estates, Calif.

Ensigns Wed

Sharon Elizabeth Polasek became the bride of Willard J. Christiansen Saturday at Lady of Humility Church in Zion, Ill. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polasek of Webster, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Albert F. Hardy of Winthrop Harbor, Ill. A graduate of Seaholm High School, the bride was graduated Wednesday from the U. S. Naval Corps School, Great Lakes, Ill., with the rank of ensign in the Navy Nurses' Corps of the WAVES. Also stationed at the Great Lakes school, the groom completed pre-medical training and was promoted to the rank of ensign on Wednesday.

Son, Daughter Attend Couple At Marriage

Announcement is made of the marriage Saturday of Mrs. Lee Mixer Winborn of Domeo and Edwin Herbert Olson of Birmingham in a small family ceremony performed by Judge Francis A. Castellucci at his home in Romeo.

Attending the couple were Linda Ann Olson, daughter of the bridegroom, and the bride's son, Parachute Rigger 3C James H. Winborn Jr., U. S. Navy.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Mixer of Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are the late John Olsons of Chicago, Ill.

A luncheon for the bridal party and their immediate families was held at Devon Gables following the rites. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Hawaii, the newlyweds will reside in Romeo.
