

AFS Festival Preview Timed for Santa Claus

Although the American Field Service Festival does not occur until next April, a preview sale of many items will be held on Nov. 27 at the Lovell Court home of Mrs. A. O. Thalacker.

Timed for the Christmas shopper seeking unusual gifts, the sale features originally designed hand-knit sweaters, unique gifts from all over the world, plants, and "different" Christmas decorations.

THE REPEAT of last year's successful preview is sponsored by the local chapter of the National American Field Service.

All funds go to expand the growing exchange students program.

Mrs. Thalacker is chairman of the AFS Detroit chapter.

Assisting her at the preview sale are Mrs. Charles Kleinsmith and Mrs. Guy Pitts, in charge of international gifts; Mrs. Reed Alexander, Mrs. Vaughan Garrison and Mrs. Henry Krikshelt, in charge of knitting.

MRS. THALACKER'S home will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and refreshments will be served.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Two Sets of Twins Join Family Group

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Two sets of twins, under four, will live up the Robert Lovell home on Clifton Road, Bloomfield Village, over the Thanksgiving holiday. The Lovell's son Jim, his wife, Mary and their children—Julie and Jamie, 3, and Pam and Tony, 1½—will come from Dexter.

Another son, Robert, will be coming home from his studies at the University of Michigan and the Lovell's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Estes, will come from Bay Village, O. with her husband and two boys to spend time with both the Lovells and the Estes families. Also joining the Lovells for Thanksgiving dinner will be Mrs. James Lovell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin N. Turner, who are spending a year in Metamora away from their home in Hawaii.

MR. AND MRS. J. C. Siegemund Jr. of Hupp Cross Road were houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Kenyon of Evanston, Ill. last week end. The two couples have planned the week end around the Northwestern-Michigan State game. Upon their return, the Siegemunds made preparations for the visit of Mrs. Siegemund's parents, the V. C. Evans of Indiana, who will come to the area for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick of Hupp Cross Road were another couple from the Birmingham area who journeyed to Chicago to enjoy the Northwestern-Michigan State game last week end. They joined Mr. and Mrs. Robert Timony of Flint in the windy city for the week end.

MRS. LEROY BISKE JR. of Hupp Cross Road honored Mrs. Clarence Hatch, newcomer to Broadway Boulevard, at a get-acquainted coffee last week. Joining Mrs. Biske to welcome Mrs. Hatch were Mrs. William Sutherland, Mrs. Lee Zwally, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Durwin Walker, Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. Hiram Broadwell, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. Martin Kostere and Mrs. J. C. Siegemund Jr.

Mrs. George Souter of Yarmouth Road entertained 12 members of her sewing group at a luncheon last Thursday afternoon.

GILBERT LAKE
Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson of Quanton Road celebrated their wedding anniversary last Saturday evening by inviting three couples to join them for cocktails at home and then on to the Detroit Athletic Club for dinner and the floor show. Helping the Johnsons celebrate were the Nels Hansens, neighbors on Quanton, and the James Cahills and the Donald Waltons of Bloomfield Hills.

During the recent election of officers held at Red Run Country Club, Mrs. Johnson entertained several of the ladies at what she called a "widow's party". The ladies came for bridge and a mid-night buffet.

RESIDENTS OF Peabody Orchard No. 1 have formed a home owners association and have incorporated. At a recent meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Rosan on Quanton Road, they elected the following gentlemen to the board of directors: Tom Baley, Curtis Tappero, Nels Rosan, Dean Johnson, Thomas Fitzpatrick and Donald Dobson. The last three were elected president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

WING LAKE
Mr. and Mrs. William Becker of Copenheim, were recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pokorny of Wing Lake Road. It was the Beckers' first visit to the Detroit area in eight years. During their week end stay with the Pokornys they also visited with Becker's sister in Detroit.

WILLIAMSBURG
Mr. and Mrs. Val Corradi of Bracken Road and Mr. and Mrs. Ian Beaton of Kellen Lane, Della of Bloomfield, drove to Chicago last week end to attend the Northwestern-Michigan State game.

ALICE BEESLEY of Decor of Distinction of Lathrup, was the guest speaker at the recent meeting of the Williamsburg branch W.N.F.G. It was a luncheon meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harry Whitmer on Coachmaker Drive. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Storch and Mrs. John Cataldo. Miss Beesley gave a colorful demonstration of Motels' and mechanics of Christmas decorations.

FOREST LAKE
Miriam Mohrhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mohrhoff of Mackintosh Lane, will be home over the Thanksgiving week end. She graduated from Marygrove College this past June and is now working on her masters degree at the University of Wisconsin. The three Mohrhoffs will join Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. McGann (Mrs. Mohrhoff's family) for Thanksgiving dinner in their Detroit home.

THE FOREST LAKE Estates Property Owners Association held their annual cocktail dinner dance at Forest Lake Country Club Saturday evening. Mrs. William T. Dick of Fieldway Drive was chairman of the hospitality committee that planned the event. On her committee were Mrs. Herbert J. Doble, Mrs. George G. Boyd, Mrs. Alfred Knudsen Jr., Mrs. James Israel and Mrs. William H. Mohrhoff. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lau were honored with a bon voyage cake at the dance. Lau has been made assistant director of the surgical dressing division of Park Davis and Co. of Detroit and the family will be moving soon to Greenwood S. C.

OES Members To Be Hostesses To Clawson Group

A school of instruction will be hosted by Birmingham Chapter #220 Order of the Eastern Star, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 30. Guests will be the Clawson Chapter #495 OES, at Birmingham Masonic Temple, 227 S. Woodward. Mrs. Shirley Jones, Grand Conductress of the grand chapter of Michigan, will be instructor. The Birmingham chapter has postponed its special meeting because of Thanksgiving to Wednesday, Nov. 28. On that day a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. will be followed by a social evening at Masonic Temple. Members are asked to bring dishes and silver.

St. Dunstan's Members Perform at 'After-Glow'

St. Dunstan's Guild revived a long standing custom Saturday, by giving both new and old members a chance to display their talents at an "After-Glo" party. The members performed in two one-act plays, presented to the little theatre group at Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine Road.

Mrs. Jack U. Klarr directed the first one-act, "We Were Dancing," by Noel Coward. She was assisted by Mrs. Richard O'Reilly, while Mrs. Richard B. Barragh was producer.

ACTORS were Judy Schuh, Larry Stevens, James Kieker, Kent Bone, John Dixon, Dick Guilford and Jo Reynolds.

RED-CHECKERED tablecloths and candlelight were part of the "After-Glo" party arrangements handled by the hosts for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Finn.

"The Midnight Caller", a Horton Foote drama, was directed by Maurice F. Smith, Jr., assisted by Bill Holmes. Mrs. Orson Crocker was producer.

Microminiaturization threat . . .

For years watchmaking stood alone as a skill. In fact, many people felt it was the acme of mechanical ingenuity.

But with the overpowering development of technology and production in the field of smaller-than-small (microminiaturization), many men who were formerly interested in watchmaking have now taken positions in the microminiature worlds of space and missile projects, nuclear and mechanical design.

The result is an increasingly small number of qualified watchmakers.

But the threat of the new microminiaturization field shouldn't alarm you at all.

For The Time Shop has a Certified Master Watchmaker who has the training and skill to quickly and economically service your watch—whether it's self or manual winding, alarm, electric or calendar.

So the next time your watch needs cleaning or repair—don't worry about remembering "microminiaturization" . . . just so long as you remember The Time Shop's watch repair department.

Ask your friends about The Time Shop. You'll find they agree. You deserve the quality and convenience offered by us.
