Holiday Tea Scheduled by Local Women

Bloomfield Open Hunt Club took on all the splendor of an English manor house Saturday, Nov. 17, when members and their guests turned out for the annual Hunt Ball. As traditional as the Stirrup Cup heading the day's activities is this formal party, one of the largest the club hosts throughout the year. Following the hunt, cocktails, dinner and dancing were enjoyed not only by BOH members but by their sister clubs, Waterloo and Metamora. Among local guests were B. J. Naughton (above left) with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Emery, Jr. (he's club president), who shared their hors d'oeuvres with Renard the Fox. Another symbol of the day was taken home by Mrs. Edward E. Wilson who, with Mr. Wilson, were among Bloomfieldites at the festive event.

The annual Christmas holiday tea of the Birmingham Woman's Club, a member of the Michigan State Federation, will be held on Tuesday at the Birmingham Community House.

Members and their guests will enjoy a musical program consisting of violin selections by Martina Kurzwil, followed by well known Birmingham artists Mrs. Teruka Yomasaki, pianist, and Mrs. Clark Pardee, vocalist.

Mrs. Matthew Cammareri, past president and Mrs. A. Roger Welton are in charge of decorations.

Assisting at the tea table will be Mrs. Melbourne Apple, Mrs. Robert E. Baker, Mrs. Herbert Christian, Mrs. Robert C. Craig, Mrs. Robert Dobson, Mrs. Clyde Gass, Mrs. Richard Johnstone, Mrs. John Martz, Mrs. Hugo Peterson and Mrs. Howard Reid.

DEPARTMENTAL chairman Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Amos F. Gregory, Mrs. Donald K. Miller and Mrs. Frederick C. Kraemer will pour.

Arrangements for the Christmas tea and program were made by Mrs. Frederick P. Betz and Mrs. Edward J. Bush.

Officers of the club are president, Mrs. Hans Schjolin; vice president, Mrs. Russell Stem; secretary, Mrs. Ralph Cook; and treasurer, Mrs. John W. Walrath.

Birmingham Pair Will Preside At Oberlin Tea

Oberlin Alumni Club of Detroit will open the holiday season Sunday, Dec. 2, with its annual Christmas tea from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Alumni Hall of Wayne State University.

Edward Bosworth of 930 Woodlee, Birmingham, club president, will open the program, followed by Hayden Boyers, professor of French at Oberlin, talking on "The Gilbert and Sullivan Program on Cape Cod." A violin solo by Marjorie Aber, class of 1957, and caroling directed by Charles Heard, class of 1957, will provide the music for alumni, parents of students, prospective students and guests.

Tea will be served by Mrs. Bosworth and Mrs. Marcus Kalbfleisch of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Lloyd Davis of Grosse Pointe is in charge of the program.
