

Reception at Club Follows Ceremony

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

Lucey Ellen McBrian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. McBrian of Bloomfield Hills walked up the aisle of the First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon to become the bride of George Munro Bouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bouse of Birmingham.

The Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated at the 2 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception at Forest Lake Country Club.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of white silk-faced peau de soie fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Motifs of re-embroidered lace distinguished the bodice and controlled skirt which swept into a chapel train. Her flowers were white rosebuds and ivy.

MRS. GEORGE M. HOUSE

Mrs. Charles Slater of Seattle, Wash., was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. William Herrick (formerly Jan Lynch of Birmingham) of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Roderick Hutchinson (formerly Sue Rogers, another Birmingham-ite) of Boulder, Col.; Rachel Rice of Jackson Heights, N. Y.; Mary Schmidt of Dearborn and Jane Caris of Boston.

They were all gowned identically in gold brocade bell-skirted gowns sashed in velvet, the same velvet forming bows which were in their hair. They carried crescent arrangements of varying foliage including magnolia, camellia, galax and dracena leaves.

Best man was Jeffrey Crawford, and seating the guests were Robert and James Bouse, Richard Riley, Peter Moray, Stephen May, Lawrence Nickel and Glenn Orr, all of Birmingham, and Charles Slater of Seattle.

Mrs. McBrian chose an ensemble of royal blue corded silk for her daughter's wedding, and pinned white camellias to her purse. Mrs. Bouse chose a Chanel jacket gown of bronze lace and wore gold cymbidium orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pierce See Granddaughter Married

By HELEN PETERS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jensen of Buckingham entertained out-of-town guests with a very gala weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Childs is the vice-president and general manager of U.S. Industrial Chemicals in Rochester, N.Y.) and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henricks of Muskegon were the Jensen's guests.

On Saturday night they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cornell and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vandersall. All the men had grown up and gone to school together in Royal Oak. This was the first time in 20 years that they had been together as a group.

On Sunday they feasted on North Dakota pheasant which Jensen had brought back two weeks ago from a hunting trip.

MRS. CHARLES BERELS of Sheridan entertained her guild members at a fun evening on Nov. 19. The highlight of the evening was a "crazy hat" contest.

The prize for the most unusual one was won by Mrs. J. D. McSweeney.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Howard Lambie and Mrs. Richard Varley. Plans were made for a Christmas party, to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Raymond Scolaro, Jr. of Madison Ave. had as their guests on Thanksgiving their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Scolaro III of Fairview Ave. and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paulman of Oxbow Lake.

The senior Scolaros were not present at the family gathering this year as they spent the holiday with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Fraze of Warwick, R. I.

Returning to the University of Wisconsin Sunday after a long Thanksgiving week-end were Wendy Hutton, daughter of the Donald Huttons of Hamilton Road; Lynn Underdown, daughter of the David Underdowns of Lake Park; Marilyn Merker, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merker of Lakeside Drive, and Susan Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Welch of Suffield Road.

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW Sampson of Wellesley Drive entertained at a family dinner on Oct. 14. The baby's mother is the former Marie Kruger of Detroit. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Kruger of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Best of Peoria, Ill.

The Louis Moses of Rudgate Road are back home after spending the past week-end visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Bissell of Madison, Wis.

On Dec. 1, Mrs. Richard Scales of Westwood Drive is entertaining at a luncheon in honor of Ann Shenfield whose marriage to Peter Trees takes place on Jan. 5. On Dec. 8 the L. Raymond Twymans of Mystic Valley Road have planned an evening party for the couple. Also Mrs. Edward A. Proctor is having a luncheon, Dec. 15, at her Wing Lake Road home.

Real 'Braves' Are Honored By Big Chiefs

GLORIA JESSUP

The Dads of Boy Scouts in Troop 1022 are having just as much fun as their sons and are also receiving awards.

At the recent court of honor held at Conant School, the dads were surprised with a "Certificate of Valor" which read:

"To all men be it known that recipient's name for exceptional courage, stamina and fortitude above and beyond the call of duty, has achieved meritorious service in the fields and streams of the vast charted area known as the Northwest Territory of the State of Michigan.

He has braved the wild waters of the roaring rapids of the mighty Au Sable River, from the outpost called Grayling to the bridge furthest down the stream named Farmlee, displaying Spartan courage and skillful canoeing without misfortune, mishap or mayhem.

This Certificate given in the State of Michigan in the County of Kalkaska, on the 13th day of November, in this year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two."

THE "BOARD OF review", consisting of chairman Ed Sewell, Frank Isca and Gene Bordinat, chose the dads who received the awards. (This was strictly a formality since all the dads making the Au Sable trip in September got a certificate.)

The scouts who received their tenderfoot badges were Tom Yarnian, Steve Jones, Hugh Surratt, Norman Spooner, Gordon Higley, Tom Allen, Randy Northrup and Bob Westfall.

SECOND CLASS AWARDS went to Dave Lau, Bud Fogarty and Bob Nieldand. First class badges went to Chris Sewell, Dick Dull, Tom Stanford, John Huntoon and Page Ragsdale. Seventeen Au Sable medals were given to the boys, in addition to the merit badges that were earned.

The court of honor, attended by approximately 250 persons, was climaxed with movies taken on the Au Sable trip by Clint McDonald and narrated by Bob Koch.
