Families Get Together for Holiday

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

The Thanksgiving holiday brought many families together for the long weekend. Houseguests arriving at the E. A. Linder home on Westchester Road were nieces and a nephew, Karen Christensen of Coral Gables, Fla., Ellen and Earl Badger of Hobbs, N. Mex. and students at the University of Michigan.

On Thanksgiving Day the Linders, their son Cye and guests gathered at the Birmingham home of the Robert Yarnums. Other relatives gathering for the traditional turkey dinner were the Peter Linder family of Birmingham and the Richard Huss family of Kalamazoo.

THE E. A. LINDERS are proud new grandparents of a baby girl, Leslie Michelle. The news arrived in the wee hours of the morning of Nov. 13 from their excited son, Jacques Linder of Binghamton, N. Y. The hospital was just 10 minutes from home, he told them, but somehow Mother Nature couldn't wait and he delivered the baby. The Linders have two other children, Lori Ann, 5, and Darrell, 2.

THE CYE CONLEYS of Doewood Court entertained their son and his family, the John Conleys and their children, Allison and Kimberly, of Columbus, O., for Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hague of Westview Drive traveled to Worthington, O., for a visit with Mrs. Hague's sister and family, the John Morses, for Thanksgiving and the weekend.

For the sixth annual time, they attended the Ohio State-Michigan State game. Joining them for the occasion were the Spencer Thomases of Worthington and the Dar Sims of Philadelphia, Pa.

THE RAYMOND BANNELLS of Lamplighter Lane had their children home for Thanksgiving and the weekend. Son John arrived from the General Motors Institute in Flint where he is a student. Journeying from Bay City were the A. F. Bannells and children, Jacqueline and Werner.

Spending Thanksgiving Day at the John Kaichen home on Lamplighter Lane were relatives the Howard Kaichens of Huntington Woods, Mrs. John Heaverlich, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heaverlich and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gottesman of Detroit.

THE ROBERT CROOKERS invited Crooker's mother and aunt, Mrs. E. M. Crooker and Mrs. F. E. Lappan of Detroit, to their new home on Oakhill Drive for the Thanksgiving holiday.

They moved here recently from Dearborn. Crooker is in advertising with Campbell-Ewald and is active in the Players in Detroit. The Charles Howtons of Lanegan Drive arrived home in time to spend the holiday with their family. They spent nine busy days on the west coast, touring San Francisco and Los Angeles and visiting their former neighbors, the Don Frankmans in Pasadena. During their visit Frankman took them on a tour of the Desilu Studios in Hollywood. Another day was slated for Disneyland.

THE DONALD MARTINS of Birmingham are newcomers to Oakhill Drive. Their children are Linda, 6, Donald, Jr., 5, who both attend Harlan School, and Brooks, 2. Martin is with the Sibley Insurance Agency.

The Martins' den wall has been waiting for a mounting to complete the room and it arrived last week. A 38-pound salmon — caught by Martin on a trip home to Seattle last summer.

Former owners the Clifford Mezogs of Oakhill Drive entertained the Donald Martins at a cocktail party introducing them to their new Thornwood subdivision neighbors. The Mezogs have since moved into their new home in Hickory Heights.

THE ROBERT WHITALLS of Orchard Hill Drive have a new son, Kevin Lawrence, born on Oct. 18. Anxious to help with the new baby are Robert, Jr., 14, and Susan, 10.

The family recently moved here from Ambler, Pa. Whitall is an engineer with the R. C. Mahon Co.

Members of the Kern Lake Garden Club gathered at the Kernway Drive home of Mrs. Theodora Biehl for their November meeting on Tuesday. Assisting Mrs. Biehl was Mrs. Robert Neiman of Westview Drive.

Their guest speaker was A. T. Hossack, sixth grade teacher at Eastover School, who spoke on "Conservation in Michigan." Hossack was the garden club's delegate attending the conservation school at Higgins Lake last summer for a three-day session.

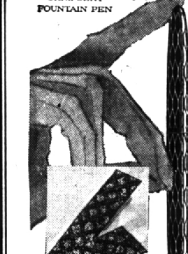

THE CONCORD Green Garden Club gathered at the Lamplighter Lane home of Mrs. Raymond Hammel for a Christmas decoration meeting on Monday evening. Giving the demonstration on the making of Christmas wreaths was the club's own member and hostess, Mrs. Bammel. Co-hosting the evening were Mrs. Philip Rogers of Lanupot Lane, Mrs. William McQuig and Mrs. John Stenzel of Lamplighter Lane.

A "Bake Project", the club's money raiser for the year, has been going on since the beginning of October within the club.

Each week two members bake a favorite recipe — either pie, cake, casserole or mold and send it along to a club member. Accompanying the recipe is a floral-decorated donation box. The ways and means co-chairmen planned the event that will be completed by Christmas are Mrs. John Keenan and Mrs. S. A. Arcari of Square Lake Road.
