BLOOMFIELD SOUTH

New School's PTO Plans Book Bazaar

By KAROL DARLING
MA 6-6348

The new Booth Elementary School PTO is sponsoring a book bazaar to be held at the school Monday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. All adults in the community are invited to come and browse. Four leading publishing houses will be represented and salesmen will help in the selection of books. The selection will include books for pre-school age through junior high.

The PTO theme for December is "Literature as a Medium of Enrichment for Our Children." While the book bazaar is in progress, three movies will be shown for those who wish to stop by the all-purpose room. Movies include "I've Been There in a Book," "James Fenimore Cooper," and "The Impressionable Years."

The bazaar was planned with the help of Mrs. Kathleen Flint, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction for Bloomfield Hills Schools. Posters were done by Mrs. Hammerback, art consultant for Bloomfield Hills School.

BOOTH SCHOOL held its first open house Nov. 5. Eugene Johnson, superintendent of Bloomfield Hills School and Richard Thomas, principal of Booth School, along with members of the PTO board were there to greet the parents. Parents met the teachers and home room mothers in the classrooms.

Johnson, Thomas and PTO board members outlined the goals for the year and a social hour followed.

BERKSHIRES
"Clothes like Grandma Used to Wear" have become bywords for well-dressed shoppers who will offer their talents for the Christmas meeting of the Berkshires branch WNGA. The setlist will perform in an early 1900's playlet, "The Meeting Will Come to Order," for their fellow members at the Tuesday meeting at 12:45 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Heading the cast will be Mrs. Buck Sullivan with Mrs. Norman McCarty, Mrs. Orville Green, Mrs. R. J. Brandon, Mrs. William S. Kreis and Mrs. F. A. Ludtke. Mrs. James M. Scott is directing the play.

Hostesses for the Christmas tea are Mrs. P. B. Appleford, Mrs. J. C. Calhoun, Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and Mrs. A. B. McCall.

BIRMINGHAM FARMS
Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaffer of Cedarbrook Drive were Mrs. Shaffer's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard DeCoster and Pam and Charles. The DeCoster's are former residents of Glencoe Estates and have been living in Westport, Conn. for the past two years. They brought with them Reys Tinar, an exchange student from Spain, who has been living with them. Keys and Pam are both seniors in high school.

The DeCoster's arrived on Sunday before Thanksgiving to stay a week. On Thanksgiving Day, the Shaffer's had 17 members of the family for dinner. They also entertained a group of the DeCoster's friends on Friday night.

Founders' Day To Be Marked By Luncheon

FRANKLIN WOODS

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter C. McCoughan of Crestview Drive returned Sunday following a Thanksgiving visit with relatives in Illinois. They spent Thanksgiving day with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grant, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zelias. On Friday they went to Aurora to visit her husband's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oppman of Pickering Road celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary Nov. 19. Joining them for dinner at Joey's Stables were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton of Pickering Road.

WESTCHESTER

Nine well-dressed space men arrived at the George Kann home on Roanoke Drive on Nov. 11. They enjoyed the fun of a space party to celebrate the sixth birthday of the Kann's son, George. George's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kann Sr., came from Saginaw to help with the celebration.

Cast Party

The cast, crew and members connected with the Birmingham Village Players' latest production "Once Upon A Mattress" will celebrate the successful run of the musical at a cast party on Saturday, Dec. 1, after their final performance. The party was postponed from last week-end owing to the two repeat performances on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1. The cast party will be held at the Playhouse.

Birmingham alumnae of Alpha Omicron Pi will be hostesses for the sixty-fourth Founders' Day luncheon to all alumnae of the Detroit and South Oakland area Saturday, Dec. 1, at Red Run Country Club.

Mrs. Tom Ward, president of the Birmingham group, has announced that Mrs. Mahlon Leichter of Toledo will be the speaker of the day. Mrs. Leichter is national AOPI first vice-president.

Table decorations will be topiary trees of fluffy white net decorated with tiny artificial roses. Place cards also will have miniature roses at the corners. Mrs. Ralph Johnson, chairman of decorations, has been assisted by Mrs. Glenn Sawyer, Mrs. Hollister Mabey, Mrs. Tom Ward, Mrs. John Krasny and Mrs. Walter Patton.

AN INTERESTING feature of the luncheon will be the ceremony of lighting a candle to honor each active chapter represented among the alumnae. More than twenty active chapters will have candles lit for them.

Alpha Omicron Pi's national project is to support a visiting nurse for the Frontier Nursing Service in the Kentucky mountain country. Just before Thanksgiving, boxes of clothing were sent to Kentucky to assist the nurse in her task of helping and sheltering the mountain people.

On Stage

Lois Gail Dahlman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dahlman, 19150 Rainbow Drive, Lathrup Village, is playing the role of "Sarah" in Archibald MacLellan's "J.B." in a University Theatre production at Michigan State University, Nov. 28-Dec. 3.
