Seton Guild Members Plan Holiday Party for Youngsters

The children and infants of the St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher Home for Children are eagerly awaiting their annual Christmas party which is being given for the fifteenth year by the Seton Guild.

The Christmas tea for adults and the Christmas party for the children will be held in Labourer Hall at the Home in Farmington on Dec. 9 from 2 to 5 p.m.

Guild members spend months before the holiday season making plans to assure a happy time for the 185 little ones at the Home. The children will have their own party with refreshments in the activities room, which is transformed by festive decor. They will have a tree of their own and, of course, Santa Claus, who will be on hand that day with a small gift for each. He also takes their orders for that very special request for delivery on Christmas morning.

WHILE THE CHILDREN are enjoying their party in the activities room, Guild members, guests and friends will enjoy the Christmas tea in the main lounge.

This year an added attraction will be a Christmas Gift Shoppe. All items in the Christmas Shoppe are donated or made by the Guild Members.

Local members working on the Christmas party are Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan, Mrs. Lawrence S. Heintz, Mrs. Albert Boening, Mrs. Matthew Cammerer, Mrs. George Sheridan, Mrs. Frank Keefe, Mrs. H. Clinton Wise, Mrs. George Labodny, Mrs. John Cates, Mrs. Richard Mrowczynski.

THIS YEAR'S Christmas party will also give members and guests a chance to get acquainted with the new administrator at the Home. Sister Mary Magdalen has been transferred here from the Kennedy Child Study Center of New York City, where she spent three years.

It is a diagnostic and treatment center for retarded and emotionally disturbed children, and is sponsored by the Kennedy Foundation. Sister has been in

Bell-Logie Vows Are Exchanged In Church Rites

Announcement is made of the marriage on Sept. 8 of JoAnn Logie, daughter of Mrs. Edward Logie of Walked Lake and Roger Michael Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bell of Birmingham.

The Rev. Dr. Kenneth Gass officiated at the ceremony in St. James Episcopal Church, after which a reception was given at Devon Gables.

Following a wedding trip through the East, the couple is at home at 1870 E. Maple Road, Birmingham.

St. Mary Alums

Detroit Chapter of the Alumnae Association of St. Mary Academy, Monroe, is having a Christmas Tea Dec. 2 at the home of Mrs. Richard Schroeter, 1032 N. Glengarry Road, Birmingham, from 2 to 6 p.m. for the benefit of the missions of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Chairman is Mrs. John C. Grix and co-chairmen are Mrs. William P. Brennan, Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher and Mary Jane Kirchner. Other members from the area who are working are Mrs. G. Charles Payne, Mrs. Lloyd Diehl, Mrs. Arthur Grix, Mrs. Albert Boening.

Wayne State Professors Get Staff Promotions

Faculty promotions of two area residents were recently approved by Wayne State University.

Dr. Raymond S. Ross, of 1714 Norfolk, Birmingham, has been promoted from assistant to associate professor of speech, and Dr. Ralph G. Smith, of 24111 Tudor Lane, Franklin Village, has been promoted from associate to a full professorship in industrial medicine.

Dr. Ross, who was born in Milwaukee and received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Marquette University in 1949 and 1950, earned a Ph.D. degree in industrial communication at Purdue University in 1954.

HE JOINED the Wayne State faculty in 1958 after four years on the Ohio State University faculty.

Culture Center Draws Support From Telecast

Birmingham's Junior League is cooperating with 26 other organizations in the greater metropolitan Detroit area to raise funds for the proposed $30 million National Cultural Center in Washington, D. C.

Set up to encourage new achievements from established artists, the Center will also provide enlarged opportunities for young artists.

To help in this nation-wide fundraising project, the Junior League

He joined the Wayne State faculty in 1958 after four years on the Ohio State University faculty. He is now also a staff member of the Institute of Industrial Relations, co-sponsored by the Wayne State University and the University of Michigan.

Dr. Smith received his B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in analytical chemistry from Wayne State University. He worked for the City of Detroit as an industrial hygienist before joining the Wayne State faculty.

DURING WORLD WAR II, Dr. Smith was a meteorologist with the Air Force.

He currently serves as a consultant to industrial and public agencies in the field of industrial hygiene.

and other organizations are selling tickets to the two-hour closed-circuit telecast of "An American Pageant of the Arts" at 9 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 29 at the Fox Theatre.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. JOHN F. KENNEDY and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower will appear on the telecast, which will be hosted by Leonard Bernstein and star such performers as Harry Belafonte and Jose Iturbi.

Contributions from all regions of the country to the performing arts will be the theme of the program. Ticket sales representatives in this area are Junior League members Mrs. William B. Bachman, Jr., of 715 Oakleigh Drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. William T. Beresford, of 1678 Stanley Drive, Birmingham.
