This Boy Started Young

Bunky Knudsen has been wheeling and dealing in cars since he was nine years old (at that age his race course was the family driveway!) and by the time he was a freshman at Detroit Country Day School he had built, from scratch, a car that had his contemporaries shuffling in line for rides around the block.

In those days, when the girls from Miss Newman's (day school closer to the center of town) came out to ride at the stables adjoining "the boys' school, it wasn't Bud Guest's LaSalle (remember?) or Dick Devereaux's Ford roadster or even Gordon Pagan's snazzy gray Paige that kept their eyes glued to the parking lot.

Nope! It was Bunk's homemaker.

And this is the car, in replica, which centered one of the tables at the DAC Tuesday night for the dinner honoring Bunky on his fiftieth birthday.

A Family Affair

Hosts at the party were his three sisters and their husbands; Mr. and Mrs. Robert VanderKloot, Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKenney. Guests included only those who had somehow been involved in Bunk's growing up process.

Highlighting this period were the centerpieces used on other tables throughout the private dining room: The hydroplane phase, the boat-building stage (anything with a motor was just dandy!), the outboard racer, the sailing yawl, football practice and, of course, a family scene. This was a group who knew about "togetherness" before it became a cliché.

V. P. Acknowledged

With a nod toward Bunk's current operation—General Manager of Chevrolet and a vice president of General Motors—one table was decorated with shiny miniature models of the new cars.

Among the 20 couples reminiscing during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colombo, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Hanley Dawson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Hank Forster, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Lamberson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Edson Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Grow, the Ernst Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, the Clyde P. Craines, Jr., the Jim Nuneleys, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Guest, the Ed Flints and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Flint.

Add Congratulations

Incidentally, the latter couple was also accepting congratulations Tuesday night—on the birth of a granddaughter, Sarah Louise, who arrived Sept. 21.

Proud parents are former Bloomfieldites Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Eddy Cunningham, Jr. (Ellen Virginia Flint), now living in Syracuse, N. Y.

Nice coincidence is that the Cunninghams are neighbors in the East of former Birminghamites Mr. and Mrs. Howard Christie, Jr. (Judy Knudsen), leaving small chance for two young mothers to become lonesome.

Son Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis Dill (Dolores Bader Smith of Birmingham) of Detroit announce the birth of a son, John Patrick, on Sept. 7. The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith of Birmingham and his paternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Dill of Detroit. The young man will be baptized Oct. 7 in Our Precious Blood Church.

Las Vegas Night Planning Set By Rotary Anns

Plans for a Las Vegas Night party to be held in a Birmingham home will be made by the Highland Park Rotary Anns when they meet Thursday, Oct. 11.

Mrs. Howard Hamilton, of Crestway Drive, Bloomfield Township, is taking reservations for the planning meet at 12:30 p.m. at the Original Pancake House, 20273 Mack Avenue Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will be hosts to the Las Vegas Night guests in November.

Bloomfield Hills PTO Board Plans Open House

Plans for an open house at the school on Oct. 8 were made when the Bloomfield Hills High School PTO board met at the Lenox Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pittsley recently.

Oakland County Public Health Nurses Julia Miller and Mrs. Dorothy Cheyney previewed a film to be sponsored by the PTO and shown later to high school students. Bloomfield Hills High School Principal Richard Speiss introduced Miss Dolores Larson, new dean of girls at the high school.

PTO President Willard Sheppard led the discussion on future PTO meetings.

Alpha Delta Pi Group Expects Busy October

A busy month of October is in store for members of the Alpha Delta Pi Detroit North Suburban Alumnae Association.

Today Mrs. Max Williams, a member of the state board of the Michigan AAUN, speaks on "A Blueprint for Peace." Mrs. Williams, of Royal Oak, has attended more than 30 UN meetings, as well as being past president of the Michigan AAUN.

THE MEETING is at the home of Mrs. Ernest Berger, 19248 Riverdale, Birmingham. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. E. McLaughlin Crosby and Mrs. Earl Heaton.

On Oct. 20, husbands will be invited to the traditional progressive dinner. Its international theme calls for a main course consisting of chicken dishes from around the world.

The evening will begin with cocktails at the home of Mrs. H. William Gilbert in Royal Oak and move on to the main course at the home of Mrs. Fred Wuellner, 16037 Hummel, Birmingham. Dessert will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Lindsey, 16209 Barkingham, Birmingham, who is taking reservations.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ritten, of 1296 Lenox? They moved to Birmingham from Detroit during the summer accompanied by Barbara, 19, and Deborah 15. Dr. Ratten is an obstetrician and gynecologist.

Becomes Bride

Mrs. Ralph Costa (Vivian Susan Benedetti), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Benedetti of Upton Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Sept. 15 in Holy Name Church. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anthony Costa of Washington Blvd., Birmingham. Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple are at home in Royal Oak.

Fluffy Hats Fund Raisers For Symphony

There will be a flurry of excitement this week at the home of Mrs. Donald Walton, 3704 Shellmar Lane, Bloomfield Hills, as women from Birmingham, Bloomfield and Detroit meet to finish their project of making whimsies of flowers, feathers and mink; bill boxes of all kinds and velvet hair bows of all colors.

This group has been meeting each Wednesday since June.

MRS. WALTON

working under professional guidance. Every hat made is of original design and all creations will be offered for sale at the Symphony Fair which will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Oct. 10 from 1 to 4 p.m. and Oct. 11 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Symphony Fair is being given under the auspices of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony, with the above project just one division of the Fair.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Martin and their four youngsters, John, 14; Ann, 12; Peter, 9, and Mary 4? They moved here from Cobb, Wis., during the summer and are at home at 1635 Hot Tower Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Martin is a branch sales manager for Insulation Manufacturers Corp. Both he and his wife are graduates of Wisconsin State colleges and they enjoy fishing and reading. Mr. Martin is a member of the American Legion and a former member of the Lions.

American Junior skimmers and girls just seem to go together... to classes, parties, picnics, football games... always looking trim and neat! Black, brown or red kidskin. 4 1/2-9 sizes, AA-B widths, 5.98
