Visits Sister in England While Touring in Europe

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

Mrs. Arthur Wilde of 32865 Wentworth Drive has just returned from two-and-a-half months in Europe. She went over to visit her sister in England who was here two years ago.

They toured the British Isles and nine countries on the continent, including the lake districts of Italy, Como, Lugano and Magis in Northern Italy. They also visited Belgium, Holland, Lichtenstein, Austria, Germany, Switzerland and Italy and came back through France and Belgium, crossing the Channel from Ostend to Dover.

Mrs. Wilde witnessed the first wedding in the new Coventry Cathedral.

She flew both ways. Mrs. R. S. MADDOX on Devonshire recently held a "coffee" for 25 persons to welcome several newcomers in her neighborhood. Her new neighbors are Jan Coley, Jon Gottsacker, Margaret Prier, Gloria Myers and her mother, Mrs. Greeley, who was visiting her. Another new neighbor, Mary Jane Holmes was unable to attend.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK KURK recently gave a lovely dinner party in their home on Embassy Drive. Their guests were Clyde and Dorothy Bear, Gene and Beth Platz and Bob and Isabelle Bowman of Leemore Drive.

MRS. MILTON M. YOUNG on Pierce entertained 18 members of her discussion group on Sept. 26. The Rev. Arthur A. Lowry of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs was the guest speaker. He spoke on the Ecumenical Council, explaining how and why it was composed.

We're Proud of Our Women

MRS. DEIER

BIRMINGHAM: An attractive mother of four, Mary (Mrs. Dean) Deier handles the big responsibility of a member of the Birmingham Board of Education and its United Community Services representative. She has other assignments from a number of church and service groups, and works with emotionally disturbed children at Pontiac State Hospital. Her biggest responsibility: running the household at 2216 Pine, where she and Birmingham's former mayor make their home.

MRS. SMITH

BIRMINGHAM: Margaret Smith is this year's Junior League of Birmingham president, a smartly-dressed, dark-haired dynamo whose life revolves around community responsibility and a family without ever getting out of orbit. When her husband, Sidney W. Smith, Jr., and the four Smith children leave for work and school, the household at 210 Abbey looks ready to receive 50 committeewomen for coffee five minutes later. And perhaps it is!

MRS. COMPTON

BIRMINGHAM: Mrs. William A. (Peggy) Compton, 711 Suffield Road, young mother of five children (ages two to nine), is best known for her indefatigable efforts in promoting the Citizens Council for Youth Physical Fitness Program. Its members were recently asked to present their program to the Council of PTA Presidents and to work on the new school curriculum study. Peggy is a Republican party block captain, active in the U. of M. Alumnae Association and at Holy Name Church.

MRS. MOON

BLOOMFIELD HILLS: The successful launching of Birmingham Town Hall had a tremendous boost from the efforts of the talented and capable Elsie (Mrs. James S.) Moon. For several important organizational years she was president of the popular lecture series. Today, she is president of Episcopal Church Women at St. James Episcopal Church, where she has sung in the choir for 20 years. The mother of three married children and Kathy, 18, she lives at 2565 Eastways.

Three Flags Group Plans Celebration Of 23rd Birthday

The 23rd birthday of the Three Flags Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be celebrated Oct. 8. It will be observed with luncheon at the Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake at 12:30 p.m.

Regents of neighboring chapters will be guests. Mrs. LeRoy M. Hooper, social chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Hostesses are Past Chapter Regents.

Mrs. Robert D. Willoughby, Michigan State Chairman of National Defense for the D.A.R., will speak following luncheon. Her topic is the year's theme of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution — "Prove all things; Hold fast that which is good." Thessalonians 5:21.

Fair Planning Is on Agenda Of Kappa Deltis

Planning for the annual Import-Export Fair is on next week's agenda for the fast-growing afternoon group of Kappa Delta's South Oakland Alumnae Association.

Members meet at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John S. Hamilton, 863 Eastover Drive, Birmingham, for their monthly luncheon.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Russell E. Smith of Gilbert Lake Road and Mrs. Ray Lull of Bridle, Bloomfield Hills.

THE FAIR will be Nov. 1 and 2 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Southfield.

The group plans to join with other South Oakland Kappa Deltas in arranging this year's Founders' Day celebration. A dessert at 8 p.m. Oct. 22 in Wayne State University Alumni House will entertain Wayne State's Gamma Omicron chapter members.

Officers of the afternoon group, organized several years ago, are Mrs. Gordon H. Fowle of Inverary, chairman, and Mrs. Richard D. Minge, of Arlington Road, vice-chairman.

SECRETARY is Mrs. Walter Dennis, of Berkeley, and Mrs. E. L. Haberkorn, of Royal Oak, is treasurer.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. George F. Miles, Mrs. Donald Rader, Mrs. Wayne Stettbacher, Mrs. Donald W. Fleser and Mrs. John H. Leonard.

Homage on Horizon for a Homemaker

This Could Be You!

Sometime early in November, at a festive event in Chicago, a suburban housewife will step forward to receive the congratulations of her family, friends and the nation as she accepts a trophy and a $5,000 cash grant as the "National Suburban Homemaker of the Year."

Prior to this time, the national search for a woman who has contributed most to "advancing family and community life" is being carried on by member newspapers of the Suburban Press Foundation in Chicago, of which The Birmingham Eccentric is a member.

Everybody in the Act

Nominations for the woman who will be the "Suburban Homemaker of 1962" in our community—and perhaps in the nation—are coming into our newspaper's offices in great numbers.

They are coming not only from individuals but from many civic groups, women's clubs, church groups, etc. Each organization is hopeful that its representative will be the lucky woman chosen as our community's top homemaker.

All over the country suburban communities are choosing their Homemaker of the Year. The women so selected will form the group from which a national "Suburban Homemaker of the Year" will be chosen.

To nominate the woman you believe deserves this high honor merely fill out the Official Entry Blank which appears in this paper and attach a letter of no more than 500 words telling how your nominee personifies the qualities suggested in the "Official Judging Standards."

It Couldn't Be Simpler

No writing talent or fancy language is required. Just write simply about the qualities your nominee possesses which qualify her for the title, "Suburban Homemaker of 1962."

Deadline for nominations is midnight, Saturday, October 20.

The national "Suburban Homemaker of 1962" will be announced at a National Award Ceremony to be held in Chicago in November. That honored woman could be the one YOU nominated, so don't let the deadline slip by. Send in your nomination today.

Nationally Speaking

The national Suburban Homemaker of 1962 will be chosen by a panel of judges made up of national authorities in the fields of education, nutrition, civic affairs and other areas of suburban homemaking and living.

Candidates from the various suburban communities represented by Suburban Press Foundation Newspapers, included (See HOMEMAKER, 7-CC)
