Fund Chairman Attends Coffees to Plan Campaign

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

There's a crisp "rise and shine" feeling these fall mornings as Torch Fund district chairmen brew hot coffee and make plans. Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, division chairman for the Franklin-Meadowlake area, has arranged her schedule so that she can get together with each group that meets in the next two weeks.

On Monday she attended a coffee at Mrs. Melvin Stockley's and on Wednesday at district chairman Mrs. Lawrence Pizer's home. On Friday, Mrs. Rasmussen will spruce up Mrs. M. R. Scott's home, to Mrs. Thomas Hopkin's, then to a joint coffee held by Mrs. John Anger and Mrs. Thomas Demery. Next week, there'll again be as many others for the busy United Foundation leader.

THE FRANKLIN GARDEN Club will hear Mrs. Bruce Renoud, WSU instructor, speak of "Hidden Treasures in Michigan" when they meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyland, 30620 Telegraph Road at 8 p.m.

IF YOU WANT a real surprise party—ask for one, advises Mrs. Robert Kerr who was so feted last week. Resolved not to spend the day in traditional gloom, she suggested her husband give her a surprise party. And, surprise of surprises, he did... with all the musicians—even the musicians who played for the couple's wedding were on hand for the occasion. Collectors' items in the making.

artist John Hill originals will be sold again this year as Franklin Community Church Christmas cards. Mrs. Robert Hampson is making arrangements to display the charming sketches soon. They are views of the church as seen from the top of the cemetery hill. There'll be a choice of red or blue background which can be ordered from Mrs. Hampson or her committee including Mrs. Paul Settle, Mrs. Robert Swift, Mrs. J. Co-hagen, Mrs. Leonard Pogue or Mrs. J. Robison.

Marries Local Boy

Mary Louise Marvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Marvey of Fortunes Rocks, Biddleford, Me., spoke her marriage vows Sunday to Second Lt. David Walker Lee, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Lee of Bloomfield Hills. Following a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will be at home in San Antonio, Tex.

Sculpture Group Maps Season Plans

Terra Cotta Sculptors opened the season with planning for future speakers and sculpture demonstrations at a session Friday at the home of Barbara Brook.

Following the group's successful exhibition at the Birmingham Art Center this summer, many of the members' works are now on display in current gallery shows.

Girl at Cranbrook

A daughter, Anne Elizabeth Alice, was born September 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Mack C. Goodwin, of Cranbrook School. Mrs. Goodwin is the former Marilyn Griffin, of Pontiac.

Delta Gammars To Get Report On Convention

Mrs. David Taylor of Glenvarry Road will be hostess at 8 p.m. Tuesday to the Birmingham Delta Gamma Alumnae.

The program will be a report of the Delta Gamma National Biennial Convention last July at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island.

Mrs. Donald Hacker, president of Birmingham chapter, will show movies taken at the convention. Mrs. Neil Dillon, convention chairman, and her co-chairmen, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, will depict other highlights.

Mrs. Russel Strickland, newly-elected national vice-president of Delta Gamma, will tell of the Delta Gamma Foundation which supports aid to the visually handicapped, scholarship grants and loans, and international education.

ASSISTING Mrs. Taylor in serving dessert prior to the meeting are: Mrs. Wesley Mueller of Farmington, Mrs. William Schultz of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. J. R. Shreve of Birmingham.

MOTHERS...

We like kids, and we cater to little boys and girls! Let us cut their hair on our horse, "Trigger." (Of course, we'll cut Dad's hair, too.)
