

Parlez-Vous Francais?

Checking on how the students were doing on their first day in Torrey School's private French program is Arthur Roller, new principal at Torrey. Enrolled in the class which is held in school library during lunch hours are (from left) second graders Tad Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Allison, 1631 Haynes; Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Donald Henderson, 1588 Bennaville; Lee Ann Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Parker 1931 Webster, and Barbara Ann Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, 1605 Mansfield—all from Birmingham. The teacher is Madame Rene Rothschild, an MSUO French instructor.

Novel

creates a political uproar in the community.
These two young people set a thrilling pace with their escapades, which indeed shake the whole world of Itheus.

THE STORY OF these two young people and their effects upon the small community creates an unforgettable tale.

Always in the background is the mysterious mood of religion and the rituals, peculiar to South American Catholics. These beliefs and rituals govern not only the hearts and souls of the people, but the crop of cacao as well.

The Colonels avoided religious functions attendance at Mass was strictly for the women, but they provided funds for the church, the parochial schools and any of the other church activities that required support.

"GABRIELAS" many threads are often lusty, sentimental, realistic and always exciting. The reader becomes involved and absorbed in the very human affairs of the people of a little community in Brazil in the year of 1925.

Jorge Amado has cleverly written a novel of the past with understanding and sympathy for a community he knew well. His exciting, charming novel, with its theme of pride and courage, is a lively comedy—credible and always entertaining.

Legislation creating the original International Bridge Authority was adopted by the Michigan Legislature in 1935, authorizing the authority to build a bridge over the St. Mary's River at Sault Ste. Marie. The present Bridge Authority was created in 1955.
