Cranes Lose Soccer Game To Canadians

Cranbrook's soccer team was edged 2-1 last week by stubborn Sarnia Northern players. Bob Friz scored the Cranes' lone goal in the second quarter with a double assist by Steve O'Grady and Roger Marsh.

THE GAME was played on a muddy field and O'Grady's kick skidded to a stop three inches in front of the Sarnia goal. Friz booted it the rest of the way. Marsh received his assist for a pass that set up the goal.

Cranbrook won its first game of the season by a score of 2-1 over Chatham Collegiate, also a Canadian team.

The Cranes are scheduled to meet Oberlin College junior varsity Friday at 4 p.m.

YOU NAME THE PLAY in this situation. Is Spencer Mieras (81) halfback for Cranbrook getting set to boot the ball to Crane halfback Steve Way (23)? And why are Howe Military Academy gridders running away from the action? Actually Mieras has just batted down a pass intended for a Howe end (20). Saving all the scoring plays until the last quarter, Cranbrook edged the Indiana team Saturday, 12-7.

from Denny Hartman to Mac Pearl. Bloomfield overcame a quick deficit to go ahead 24-6 at halftime. In the third period the Barons defensive units had their hands full holding off a Bear comeback that narrowed the margin to 24-19.

The Hoop pointed out Craig Mencher, tackle and Kyle Kerway, defensive captain, as stalwarts in the Hills line.

Little League Lads Find Football 'Fun'

The Birmingham - Bloomfield Little League Football program got off to a flying start last Friday and Saturday and the action was fast and furious for the 10 teams that did battle on the gridiron.

IN THE VARSITY conference, the Tigers of the Southern Division nipped the browns of the Western division, 6-0, behind the passing of Gar Thomas. Heaving with all his might, Thomas unleashed an aerial to Jeff Mays, who raced for the only score of the game. The play covered 45 yards.

Another varsity game between the Spartans and Wolverines was not played because of a schedule mixup. It will be scheduled at a later date, according to Chick Holmes, director of the Little League gridders.

FOUR GAMES were played in the junior varsity conference. The Buckeyes outlasted the Hoosiers, 12-8; the Boilemakers beat the Hawkeyes, 7-0; the Badgers edged the Indians, 6-0; and the Gophers swamped the Wildcats, 25-0.

Ian Muir scored two touchdowns on runs of 30 and 56 yards to put the Buckeyes in front of the Hoosiers. Accounting for the losers' eight points was Randy Batson who scored six on a 58-yard pass play from Joel Hippis and Jim Porter who dumped a Buckeye ball-carrier in the end zone for a two-point safety.

TOM BREW ran four yards for the score and Rick Picorelli passed to Bill Pearson for the extra point in the Boilemaker victory.

IN THE BADGER-INDIAN tilt quarterback Mike Adams passed 10 yards for the touchdown to Ricky Bowman, waiting in the end zone. Ricky Bach and Jeff Watts rounded out the winners' halfback.

John Larkins, coach of the Badgers, commented: "The Indians are a team to be reckoned with in the future." He explained that Mosher was hampered by a leg injury sustained in the 19-6 win over Groves.

This week the Cranes will be working on defense against passes and end runs in preparation for a meeting with Waterford Kettering at 8 p.m. Friday.

"If we don't correct our mistakes, they will beat us," Slater said. "If we do correct them, we have a good chance to win. Either way it should be a close game."

The victory over Howe enables the Cranes to boast a 2-0 record going into the Waterford Kettering game.

Defensive standouts for the winners were Keith Thistle and Pete Leonard. Both had recovered fumbles to their credit.

THE BROWNS will meet the Wolverines at 7 p.m. and the Spartans will clash with the Tigers at 8:30 p.m. Friday, at Pierce Field. On Saturday the schedule is: Badgers vs. Hawkeyes, Seaholm High, 9 a.m.; Gophers vs. Hoosiers, Seaholm, 10:30 a.m.; Wildcats vs. Buckeyes, Derby, 9 a.m.; and the Indians vs. Boilemakers, Derby, 10:30 a.m.

Brother Rice Is Outscored By Mt. Carmel

Brother Rice, playing without the services of two key men, was overwhelmed 33-0 last Sunday by an aggressive Mt. Carmel aggregation.

Both Paul Jagels, quarterback, and Bob Miller, a linebacker, missed the game because of injuries and it is doubtful whether they will play in Sunday's game against St. Alphonsus.

"They ran all over us," explained Rice coach Paul Maloney. "Their line pushed us back play after play." * * *

NOT ONLY did Mt. Carmel score five touchdowns, but they also racked up 270 yards rushing to 82 for the Warriors. One of the scores came on a 70 yard return of a kickoff.

Maloney is optimistic about the upcoming game with St. Alphonsus at Groves Field. "If we're at full strength, we should win. However, after last week I'm not going to make any predictions."

St. Alphonsus has a 0-3 record and Brother Rice will have to beat them to stay out of the league cellar.

The game will start at 2:30 p.m.
