

Collegiate Sorosis Alumnae to Lunch

Birmingham alumnae of Collegiate Sorosis held their first organizational meeting of the year at the Broadway Boulevard home of Mrs. R. C. VonMaar who is this year's president.

Other officers in the University of Michigan group are Mrs. Fred Leydoff, vice president; Mrs. Jerry Dudley, treasurer; Mrs. William Whitely, social chairman; Mrs. Roger Struck, secretary; Mrs. Dean Hopper, Pan Hellenic representative; and Mrs. Andrew Klein, public relations.

All alumnae are invited to this year's opening luncheon Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. Ari Refolo. They may call Mrs. William Whitcroft, of 1550 Pierce, Birmingham.

OTHER PLANS for the year include money-making for the total remodeling of and addition to the chapter house in Ann Arbor. The original Sorosis house was an Albert Kahn design. Alumnae bought the house next door, tore it down and are now extending the Sorosis house into the new property with a complete facelift included.

There will be a nationwide bridge benefit to raise money for house furnishings, a Christmas tea, a Village Players' theater benefit and other activities as well as alumnae share in the chapter house renovation.
