Decision Made On Account Of...

By HELEN PETERS

We think one of our town's most efficient volunteer public relations people is the ebullient Marti Cahn. After we called her last week, we received an answer through the mail. To quote:

"On account of and because, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Stanchinskas are taking off by Swiss Air for a vacation in Spain and Portugal (the most important items of their apparel have been packed for weeks, i.e. golf shoes), and because our good friends Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Smead are about to leave us for their winter residence at Sea Island—the Stanchinskas both champion golfers, compete in golf tournaments on route to Seaside, even with three little problems to transport."

"Daughter Susan is not one of 'em. But wherever Su is goes to do her horse, Joe and me. The Stanchinskas solve these problems and win golf trophies too—and on account of Mr. and Mrs. Karl P. Kellerman are being transferred back to Washington D. C., and we will miss them—Chet and I would like to have a few of their friends for cocktails and dinner on Oct. 10."

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harold Burrows and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. West will join us to wish the travelers well and a safe and pleasant trip." End quote.

TUESDAY, Mrs. Stanchinskas was honored at a farewell luncheon given by Mrs. Austin Conrad at her home on Burning Bush Road. Among those attending were Mrs. Pierre Mail, Mrs. Friedrich Wittick, Mrs. Al. Shantz, Mrs. R. R. Baloh, Mrs. Jack Rinehart, Mrs. Chester Cahn, Mrs. George Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Joseph Newman, Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Mrs. Ralph Anole, Mrs. Stewart Ferguson and Mrs. Harold Carpenter.

Monday, Mrs. A. S. McCall of Fairfax Road is entertaining the Birmingham unit of the Crittenton Hospital Auxiliary. They are planning their annual fall gift mart, to be held at the home of Mrs. L. J. Lucia on Lahser Road on Oct. 24 and 25.

Mrs. Pearl Painter of St. Louis has returned to her home after spending several weeks as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Richards.

C. E. Dalton; Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. Robert Lovell, Mrs. Charles Marsh and Mrs. Robert Flint.

Still others are Mrs. John Shenefield, Mrs. James Poddar, Mrs. Russell Norris, Mrs. Dale O. Douglas, Mrs. John Annas, Mrs. Wm. Burlington and Mrs. Seth Slauson.

THE WILKARD Vande Waters, who were married recently, are back from their honeymoon and living in their new home on Buckingham Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brams of Boston Road entertained 14 guests for champagne cocktails Sunday, then taking them to the Kingsley Inn for brunch.

Western Fete On N. Adams Stars Couple

By Elizabeth Yates

A western cocktail—complete with chuck wagon, boots and saddles—was the theme on Sunday afternoon when the Robert F. Owens of Brookhaven Drive honored Mrs. Owen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. VanderPyl of Bristol Lane, on their 25th wedding anniversary.

The outdoor celebration has been in the planning stages for the past month. Mrs. Owens composed a western poem, giving the details of the day and mailed them to 140 guests.

AS THE GUESTS arrived in their western togs at a designated spot near the VanderPyl home they were transported to the party in a hay wagon. Chef's dressed in western attire served from the colorful chuck wagon and cowgirls were on hand to assist the guests.

In one corner of the garden, was a gaily decorated bar, sport-

Mu Phi Epsilon Alums to Meet

Joining other Detroit alumnae of Mu Phi Epsilon at a gathering next week will be Mrs. Sol Bernat, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. S. A. Oppenheim and Mrs. Walter Ruffler, all Birmingham residents. The chapter meeting is at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. W. E. Haler, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Grier? He likes photography and hi fi music, and she is a gardener and likes to sew. They, along with David, 7, Peter, 5, and Amy Sue, 2, moved into a house at 1648 Yorkshire the first of September, coming to Birmingham from Dallas, Tex. Mr. Grier, a graduate of the University of Michigan where he was a Sigma Phi, is a sales engineer with the General Electric Corp. Mrs. Grier was also graduated from U. of M. and is a Delta Delta.

Stationed there were bartenders with handle bar mustaches. In another part of the garden, square dancing took place under the hand-hewed beamed carport.
