

Operation Parties: Past, Present and Future

A Halloween Party Starts At Bus Stop

When the school bus unloads the occupants of Girls' Ranch at Camp Oakland today, Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will be on hand to greet the youngsters with cider, donuts and an early Halloween party.

The alums will begin the day with lunch at 12:30 p.m. at Alban's Country Cousin. Afterwards, they will make the short jaunt to Camp Oakland in Oxford, to meet the camp's director William J. Matus. He will speak to the group at 2 p.m.

MRS. WILLIAM PIERCE and Mrs. George McClellan are planning the trip, which includes a discussion of Kappa Alpha Theta's sponsorship of an evening at St. Dunstan's to benefit Camp Oakland.

Mrs. William Robertson of Rock Creek Drive, Southfield, is in charge of ticket sales for the St. Dunstan's Guild performance on Nov. 1 of "Wake Up, Darling."

Dinner Parties Precede Rites On Saturday

While James Alvero Corwin, Jr. is being honored at a bachelor dinner tonight, Ann Baumgartner will be the special guest at a spinster dinner.

The dinners are among final parties honoring the couple, who will be married Saturday at Kirk in the Hills.

The groom-to-be is the son of the James A. Corwins of Marblehead Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Best man William Borghin is hosting the bachelor dinner tonight at his home in Royal Oak.

MAID OF HONOR Marcia Fairgrieve is giving the spinster dinner at the home of her aunt in Cross Pointe. The bride-to-be is the daughter of the Max Baumgartners, of Berkeley.

Tomorrow night the groom's parents will be hosts to the rehearsal dinner at their home. Out of town guests at the wedding have been invited to Sunday brunch at the Aspen Road home of the Alfred Davocks in Birmingham.

Birmingham-Bloomfield sponsors of the Cinderella Ball, benefitting the T.B. and Health Society, were gratified to learn this week that the party had netted over $20,000. Guest of honor at the sparkling event was Zsa Zsa Gabor (directly above) who posed with Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus, John and Adams.

An Oriental Lark

Your lowly reporter-photographer team from noble Eccentric attended party over weekend, for which it is felt following invitation is self-explanatory:

"Lady Carrie Lee and Lady Katie Lim, of the ladies of the Oriental Shrine of North American, Za Hir U Din Court Patrol, request the honor of your illustrious presence at a Chinese Feast of the Harvest Moon for the benefit of the Shrine's Crippled Children's Hospitals.

"Lady Carrie Lee of Franklin Village will throw open the outer courtyard gates and lay open the inner courtyard of her humble residence for this benevolent festivity on Saturday, Oct. 13.

"You will dine on exotic celestial delicacies and be entertained in regal oriental splendor. Your most generous Love Donation will be greatly appreciated by the members of the Za Hir U Din, whose untiring efforts to help crippled children never cease.

"Your Love Donation is income tax deductible.

Humbly yours,
Carrie Lee and Katie Lim"
