Edwin W. Deers On Travel Circuit

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Deers of Arlington Road, Birmingham, left Wednesday on a trip East. They will pick up Mrs. Deers' daughter, Patricia, at her school near Philadelphia, then go on to Suffolk Academy to spend some time with Pat's brother Jeff. They will be joined there by Dr. Deers' son Bill, currently in officer's training in Newport, R. I. Shortly following their return from the East on Oct. 23, Dr. and Mrs. Deers will fly out to Long Beach, Calif., to visit his daughter, Joanne, who is attending school at Marymount College.

Punch Party Sets Mood for Benefit

Christ Child Society members are in the throes of making plans for what they hope will be the largest and most attractive "Fair, Fashion Show and Dessert" of the fall season. The huge benefit is scheduled to take place Nov. 16 in Cobo Hall from 12 p.m. on. As a preview to the affair, Birmingham Branch of Christ Child held a punch party Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7, on the grounds of their new school for Exceptional Children, Lahser and Thirteen Mile roads.

SURROUNDED BY golden-leaved trees, the school provided an attractive setting to preview the handmade articles which will fill booths the day of the fair. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dolan—she's chairman of this year's fair—were on hand to greet guests, and so were committee heads Mrs. Joseph E. Risdon, Mrs. Paul M. Kaniut, Mrs. Richard G. Pearce, Mrs. Elmore J. Leonard, Mrs. Robert J. Ivory and Mrs. Hugh C. Ferguson. Guests were free to tour the grounds and inspect the school which is in its final stages of completion.

Newswoman Is Hostess In Beirut

Mrs. Edgerton Cousins of Windemere, Birmingham, has been a house guest of Mrs. Charles Thornburn Maxwell in Beirut for ten days. Mrs. Cousins has been traveling in Europe since mid-September and has returned via Istanbul, Athens, Vienna, and Paris with stops in Germany before starting for Michigan, to arrive in mid-October.

She was in Beirut during the recent visit of the U.S. Sixth Fleet, and was a guest of vice Admiral David L. McDonald, Sixth Fleet Commander, aboard the USS Forrestal at a reception he gave on arrival.

MRS. COUSINS is associated with Smith and Smith, architects in Oakland County while Genevieve Maxwell is a columnist and feature writer for The Daily Star, Beirut, and formerly a resident of Wing Lake, Birmingham.

LOOKING MOST PROUD and happy over the accomplishments of the group were Birmingham director Mrs. James D. Schmidt, assistant director, Mrs. Joseph G. Juett and a number of board members. Included in the latter group were Mrs. Robert Huber, Mrs. Richard Gieryn, Mrs. Judge Boarden, Mrs. J. Norman Alton, Mrs. J. Paul Bergmeyer, Mrs. James Stone and Mrs. Arthur S. Moore. Others were Mrs. B. Lee Embrey, Jr., Mrs. E. Leo Desimpel, Mrs. Francis M. Anderson, Mrs. John Annas, Mrs. Walter J. Cronin, Mrs. J. Timothy Cruise, Mrs. Frank J. MacDonnell and Mrs. H. E. Mountain, Jr.

To Be Bride

Sandra Kaye Haack, daughter of Mrs. Edward A. Haack of Birmingham and the late Mr. Haack, is engaged to C. Lee Meilleur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Meilleur of Redford. The couple will repeat their vows Jan 12 in St. Valentine's Church.

Concord Green Gardeners Get Ideas for Spring

Concord Green Branch WNFGA in spite of autumn weather, is looking ahead to spring possibilities.

Mrs. L. E. Carter of Cherokee Lane, Birmingham, discussed new ideas in the culture and propagation of bulbs and other perennials. In a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Keenan of Square Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, on Monday evening, Mrs. Carter illustrated the discussion with slides.

The Concord Green Branch also participated in the "Calendar Tea" Wednesday at the Community House, sponsored by the Cranbrook Branch as a scholarship fund-raising activity.
