MRS. DAVIDSON

Davidson-Kuschell Vows Are Repeated

The Chapel at Kirk-in-the-Hills, Bloomfield Hills, was the scene of the Saturday evening wedding of Nancy Ann Kuschell and George Peter Davidson.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dugor Harold E. De Windt. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Kuschell, 4803 Beach Road, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson of E. Long Lake Road, Troy.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of satin brocade ending in a graceful fulltail train. Her elbow-length veil fell softly from a lace crown embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of philadelphus orchids and stephanotis.

Nancy was attended by her two sisters: Susan Mary Kuschell and Mrs. Lawrence David McManus, and Diane Davison of Coldwater served as her maid of honor.

The two sisters wore flamingo satin gowns and Miss Davison wore an identically styled turquoise satin gown. They carried butterfly carnations accented with stems of wheat.

David Campbell of Birmingham, a student at Michigan State University, served as best man. Nancy's cousin Thomas Binman, her brother Richard P. Kuschell, Jr., and the groom's brother, Richard, assisted as ushers.

A reception and wedding supper was held at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

Peter's new assignment in the United States Navy requires him to be in San Diego, Calif., and the young couple will spend their honeymoon motoring to the West Coast.
