 Mrs. Paul Penfield (from left), Mrs. Frederick Fisk and Mrs. William McGaughey are among a number of Birmingham-Bloomfield women sponsoring the International Institute's "Treasure Shop Tea" Tuesday, Oct. 23. The tea provides items for one segment of the Old World Market, Nov. 15-18, of which Mrs. Fisk is general chairman. For admission to the tea, according to program chairman Mrs. McGaughey, only a donation is needed—something which can be sold at the Old World Market.

 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shiels of Arlington with their six children recently took a tour through Canada and the United States. They visited Banff and Lake Louise first, then Vancouver and covered the Seattle World's Fair. They stopped at Cozue City and saw the dam, then went on to Yellowstone Park. They came back through the Black Hills and the Badlands and spent some time visiting with relatives in Minneapolis.
 This week Mrs. Shiels invited over a dozen neighbors, a lucky 13 in fact, for coffee and to meet new neighbors, Mrs. Leo Marsh and Mrs. William Hayes.

The Ascension Lutheran Church on 14 Mile Road conducted services and gave a sermon on "The Greatness of God" on Oct. 7. It was his first since suffering a heart attack on June 24.
 Young Mark Zatlouak celebrated a recent birthday with an outdoor cook-out. His guests were Craig Zuidema, Pat Simmons, Hilley Gatterma, Hilley Gatterma, David Gifford and Hilley and Bobby Erban.
 Mrs. Earl Zatlouak opened her home for a neighborhood coffee in honor of her mother, Mrs. Jennetta Homer, visiting here from Onarga, Illinois and to introduce two new neighbors on Elizabeth, Mrs. Peter Sutherland and Mrs. Robert Erban.

The parade will start there, led by the Edison Calliope, and return for a party and refreshments. Mrs. Thomas Richards and her committee, Mrs. Richard Miller, Mrs. Donald Selby, Mrs. Floyd Hansen, Mrs. David Rieck and Mrs. Robert Roth, are in charge of arrangements.
 Forty-six couples from the South Berkshires spent a never-to-be-forgotten evening, beginning with cocktails and followed by dinner. After dinner they enjoyed the music of George Calliope's orchestra for "cha-cha's" and polkas.
