Dinner Host Plays A Leading Role in Mystery-Comedy

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3237

Last Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skinner of Lakewood Road, Chalmers Lake, entertained five couples for cocktails at their home, and were hosts at dinner at Bloomfield Hills Country Club before the final performance of "The Gabazo." Skinner had one of the leading parts in the Village Players production.

Guests of the Skinners included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jeynes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hintermeister,

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bordinat, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Breech, Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. Dore Jr. of Foxcroft, the Howard Mordous of Birmingham and Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Latos of Bloomfield Village. These three couples made it a full day, beginning with golf at Red Run during the day, back to the Mandary for the 19th hole and then on to the play in the evening.

ANOTHER GROUP who attended the final performance were Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. Dore Jr. of Foxcroft, the Howard Mordous of Birmingham and Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Latos of Bloomfield Village. These three couples made it a full day, beginning with golf at Red Run during the day, back to the Mandary for the 19th hole and then on to the play in the evening.

WESTWOOD MANOR

A neighborhood bridge tournament has been started in Westwood Manor. The sixteen members will play one month for eight months at the homes of four hostesses. The ladies will gather for luncheon before the play and will enjoy prize for prizes.

CHALMERS LAKE

It is always a thrill to go on a pleasure trip, but to go on a mystery trip is even better. That is what Mrs. Donald Kitchen found out when her husband surprised her on their 19th wedding anniversary. The couple who live on Lakewood Road spent a week end at Hidden Valley.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Mrs. Donald Hubbard of Westwood Court and Mrs. David Porter of Thurber Road have organized Brownie Troop 108 for fourth graders of Conant and Wing Lake schools. Co-leader is Mrs. Daniel Smith. The girls held their first meeting yesterday at Wing Lake School.

Mrs. Alvin Clark and Mrs. David Riordan are in the process of organizing another troop at Conant School for the seven and eight-year-olds.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Latos of Clifton Road were among those attending the Cinderella Ball held recently at the Sheraton Cadillac. Mr. and Mrs. William Gerhard and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norderlander, both of Birmingham, also joined the Latos' in welcoming Zaza Gabor crown the queen.

CHALMERS LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brubaker of Bywood Road returned recently from a two-week vacation out west. The Brubakers were from Detroit to San Francisco to join former Birminghamites, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holmes of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fraser, now of Dallas, Tex. The three couples spent one week at Carmel and divided the rest of their vacation between Monterey and Lake Tahoe, before returning to San Francisco for the return flight home.

DELLS OF BLOOMFIELD

New residents in the Dell of Bloomfield are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Duncan and their three children. The Duncan family only had to go around the corner to move into their new home. They formerly lived in Westwood Manor on Westwood Lane, Claudia 12, Sara, 10, and Jennifer, 6, helped their parents move into their Lone Pine Road home in August.
