Girl Scouts Celebrate Outdoor Day

Saturday found the Birmingham Girl Scout District participating in Junior High Outdoor Day at Indianwood Girl Scout Day Camp.

General chairman was Mrs. A. J. Mitchell, Jr. An all-camp sing was led by Mrs. H. C. Mehlenbacher of Bloomfield Hills.

Senior Scouts told younger girls about their summer experiences as Round-uppers, C.I.T. Trippers, White Deer Encampment and Camp Narrin Unit members. The sharing of their experiences is part of the Seniors' "Scouting Is Service" program participated in by Cheryl Griffin and Diane Frechette of Southfield, along with Martha MacCleary, Marcia Duval and Sandy Spencer of Birmingham.

Midvale Neighborhood Troop 341, led by Mrs. Arnold Hook, retired colors. Later, 42 girls stayed for overnight camping.

Field Political Adv.

Well, GEORGE ROMNEY,

what are you going to do about the mess in Lansing?

First, let me say that only the people lose from all the bickering in Lansing. All the people.

Why all the bickering? The answer is that there is no leadership in Lansing. The legislature cannot lead. No committee can lead. Only the man in the governor's chair has the authority and the responsibility to lead the state government.

But no man, regardless of his authority and responsibility, can lead unless he has developed the ability to get people thinking and acting together. He certainly cannot get cooperation by blaming the other fellow when things go wrong and taking all the credit when things go right.

We all lose when there is no leadership. We either get lop-sided legislation which suits no one, or we get deadlock. The people can't win when we have deadlock and division in Lansing.

LEADERSHIP is necessary to get all sides working together to provide a government that can get things done for all the people of Michigan. I'd like to put my experience in leading people with diverse ideas to work for you.

Will you give me a chance to PROVE what a new team in Lansing can do?

George Romney

'Come on to My House' Keynotes Moving Day

By NITA HARD
MA 6-3221

They're playing a kind of musical chairs—with houses—in the Winwood Hills area. Several years ago the Marshall Ross moved just one house away from their former home. This week the Edward Ravitzes are moving into the former Roe house, just next door. However, in both cases we're told, it's just as hard to move a few hundred feet as it is to move great distances.

Moving also the first week of November is Mrs. Robert Broadway. She and daughter Ann are packing the household effects accumulated over more than 15 years at Franklin Court and moving into a nice compact apartment in Birmingham.

INFORMALITY keynotes the new format of Franklin School PTA's monthly meetings this year. By working out an entirely different seating arrangement, parents will have better opportunity to enter discussions with guest speakers on parent-child relationships.

Dr. Armin Grams, affiliated with Merrill Palmer's psychology staff, will inaugurate the series on Monday at 8:05 p.m. with the topic, "Study and Researching Parent-Child Relationships and the Education of Parents."

THE CARL Rasmussens of Hersheyvale spent this past week in Boston, combining vacation with business at a most opportune time.

Tonight's the night for all good Frankinites to come to a special dinner meeting of the Franklin Community Association. After dinner, which starts at 7 in the social hall of the Franklin Community Church, there will be an up-to-the-minute report of plans for a new community center and a prospectus on the newly formed Historical Society of Franklin. The society is presently getting started under the loving direction of Bert Wood.

FRANKLIN Village Players have reached a ripe "old" age after nine productive years of bringing theater to the community.

Launching their 10th season, they are in rehearsal these nights to "revive" their initial offering, "You Can't Take It With You." Almost all of the original cast will return to play to roles they created a decade ago.

They have set the weekend of Nov. 29-Dec. 1 for the sentimental milestone which will, of necessity, take place at the Farmington Players Barn on 13 Mile Road.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Friends Shower Guest of Honor At Oakland Hills

Family friends who have known her since she was an infant herself were guests at a baby shower last week for Mrs. Gary Schack, the former Janet Alesian, of Detroit.

Hostess to the luncheon party at Oakland Hills Country Club was Mrs. Kirk Horigan of Birmingham. Table decorations were by Mrs. Tom Varbedian of Bloomfield Hills.

Birmingham area guests included Mrs. Harry Schack and her daughter, Sherry. Mrs. Schack's son, Gary, and his wife are currently residing in East Lansing. The guest of honor was recently graduated from Michigan State University.

Minnesota Is Scene Of Ceremony

Mary Nell Adams and Earl Augustus Austin spoke their marriage vows Saturday in St. Peter, Minnesota.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Willard L. Adams of Birmingham, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Martin G. Austin, of Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Following the ceremonies and reception at Union Presbyterian Church, the couple left for a wedding trip in northern Wisconsin.

They will make their home in Omaha, Nebraska.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Geo. Grossmans To Change Address

Members of Birmingham Athletic Club are losing one of their nicest couples, the George Grossmans. George has accepted a new position with his company in Boston, Mass.

The bowling group, in particular, will miss their vice-president and treasurer.

June and Don Fleming have graciously accepted the duties for George and Trudy. The Flemings have provided much fun for the group, by heading the prize committee for prize nights.

Daughter Arrives

The birth of Lori Love, their third child and the first girl, on Oct. 10 was announced this week, by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Larsen of Taunton, Birmingham. Mrs. Larsen is the former Frances Love, of Franklin.
