Cranbrook Cranes

Cranbrook School's homecoming festivities were held last weekend. The annual affair was kicked off Friday afternoon with a cross-country meet against Brother Rice.

The awarding of the Cranbrook jug to the winning house in the dancing competition. After the jug was awarded, the Band marched onto the field followed by 120 "volunteers".

The evening, the Homecoming Dance was held in Cranbrook's auditorium. The school dance band, "The Redemmers 4", did a show that lasted for about 20 minutes.

Distinguished guests of the school for Homecoming were Admiral Thompson, one time athletic director of Cranbrook, and Mr. Julius Corbush, former instructor of Spanish, 1933-1959.

The judges of the inter-house decorating—Mrs. Edna B. Adams, Mrs. James G. Vanhorn Jr., of the Cranbrook class of 1939—Mrs. Henry E. Crouse, mother of last year's head prefect, Barney Crouse, and Dr. Edwin S. Burdick, Cranbrook consultant for the Cranbrook Foundation, toured the campus judging the house exhibits.

Following lunch, the soccer game started at 1:30 p.m. in the lower fields. At 2:30 p.m. the football game commenced. At halftime, the annual show was held.

Organization is the pass word at Brother Rice this week. With the ninth period of each day devoted to these activities, new clubs and organizations are being created, and old ones are rejuvenating themselves.

The Brother Rice Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. John Callaghan, is busy preparing a program of Christmas carols for the school's Mothers' Club. Still another activity of Mr. Callaghan's group is participating in the district Masses, which the Brother Rice student body attends at Saint Regis Church.

No one at Brother Rice is surprised if a student comes up and says, "Smile, please!" and then doesn't take a picture. The student is probably just an eager member of the newly founded Photography Club.

If you ask Brother C. A. Conroy to mention his favorite organization, he would undoubtedly mention the debating club, which moderates. This club includes not only debaters but also his speakers.

esting, timely, and debatable topic. Several teams of four Brother Rice students each have debated one of the three proposed resolutions. Three different debates have been conducted on "Resolved: That the Congress should abolish protective tariffs." Foreign trade policy is a sensitive topic with the 20 members of the Brother Rice Debate Club, who are willing to explain their views to anyone who will listen.
