

The George Booth Elementary School, Wing Lake near 14 Mile, will hold its first social event of the year, a pancake supper sponsored by the P.T.O., Friday, Oct. 5, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Local Boys Earn Ace-High Records

Two surprises awaited the Rev. and Mrs. Howard E. Bull, 500 Henrietta, Birmingham, when they returned recently from the Minneapolis meeting of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches.

Their son Donald, 18, has earned the Army ROTC Outstanding Basic Cadet Award for his superior achievement during spring term 1962 while a freshman at Michigan State University.

Basis of Donald's award, according to a letter from Colonel James F. Skellis, professor of Military Science, is "by virtue of his standing in the top five percent of his ROTC class."

Donald has transferred to Wayne State University effective with the fall term. His goal: the United States Diplomatic Corps.

concerning another son, Harvey, and written by A. R. Spalding, head of the Department of Freshman Engineering, who said, "On behalf of the Department of Freshman Engineering and Dean Hawkins I want to congratulate you for having achieved a distinguished first-year record."

Harvey, now 21, enlisted in the United States Navy three years ago. In Navy-wide competitive examinations, he was selected to pursue a four-year course under the NESEP program in the field of Electronics Engineering, and commenced his freshman year in the fall of 1961.

Upon completion of the course, Harvey will be eligible for commission as Lieutenant (jg) in the U. S. Navy. He now holds the rank of petty officer, second class.

Rev. Bull is minister of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham.

MRS. JOHN CLYDE LOVE

Jewell Tones Used In Evening Rites

Ivory silk peau de soie fashioned the bridal gown of Nancy Ruth McCortney when she became the bride of John Clyde Love Sept. 1 at an evening ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The gown was detailed by a yoke of handmade Belgian lace which outlined the scoop neckline and accented the snug fitting waistline. Her full puffed skirt extended into a chapel train, and her veil of imported illusion was fastened to a French rose. She carried a single ivory rose and ivy, and wore her mother's pearls.

Sapphire blue floor-length gowns of peau de soie were chosen by the attendants, who wore ivy wreaths in their hair and carried bouquets of the same greens. Garnet and white sweetheart roses were carried by the honor attendants.

The group included Mrs. Charles Day Morris, matron of honor for her sister; Ann Kathryn Hartz, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Pamela Marzulla, Doris Kitson, Lauraine Love, Elaine Sage and Kathryn Taylor.

BEST MAN WAS James Waesche, and seating the guests were Willett J. McCortney Jr., brother of the bride; William Pratt, Henry Pancoast, Richard Price, Eugene Timins and Charles D. Morris.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Willett J. McCortney senior, parents of the bride, greeted guests at a reception given at Orchard Lake Country Club. The bridegroom is the son of John P. Love of Dorchester Road and the late Mrs. Love.

Following a wedding trip to Mackinac Island, the couple will make their home in Baltimore, Md. The bridegroom is attending medical school at the University of Maryland, and the new Mrs. Love will be studying for her master's degree at Johns Hopkins University.

Round of Parties Fetes Bride-Elect

Preceding her marriage Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook, Sara Thompson Conrad, daughter of the Winthrop B. Conrads of Franklin has been honored at numerous pre-nuptial parties.

Sara's fiance is William Williams Blunt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Blunt of Scarsdale, N. Y.

Among hostesses who have entertained for the bride-elect are Mrs. Harry M. Denney, Jr., Mrs. Richard Kern and Mrs. Hugh Martin, Jr.; Mrs. Dwight Ensign, Patricia Eakins and a group of friends of the bride's mother, including Mrs. John Rumsey, in whose home on Wing Lake the party was given. Mrs. Joseph Pace, Mrs. Conard McLaughlin, Mrs. Paul Bowers, Mrs. Louis Gillette, Mrs. Frank Rhodes and Mrs. Robert Black.

THIS EVENING the Robert Vanderkloots will give a cocktail supper in their home on Lone Pine Road, and Friday Penny Blunt will be hostess at the spinster luncheon at the Village Woman's Club. At the same time, the bridegroom-elect will entertain his ushers at a luncheon at the Birmingham Athletic Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Blunt will give the rehearsal dinner Friday at the Detroit Club, and on the day of the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowers will give the wedding breakfast at Orchard Lake Country Club.

MRS. KORDENBROCK

Theater Party Is Incentive For Festivity

Parties are being scheduled preceding Bradford Junior College alumnae's benefit performance of "Carnival" at the Fisher Theater Sunday, Sept. 9.

The Ronald Kordenbrocks of Bates St. (Ann is president of the Bradford Club of Michigan) are having a dessert for 30 of their friends, and down-the-street neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. William Hulbert, will also entertain a group before taking off for Second and Lothrop.

Other hosts include Mr. and Mrs. George Jacob, Puritan Road and Mr. and Mrs. Carleton P. McLain, Jr. of W. Long Lake Road.

After theater parties are being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Aten of Orchard Hill Road, the Milton Manby's of Brookwood Ct.

Postcomers Issue Invitation As Season Opens

On Friday the Postcomers Group will return to the Birmingham Community House to begin the fall and winter activities of the Senior Ladies Workshop.

The Postcomers are looking forward to seeing all former members of the Workshop, and extend an invitation to all Senior Ladies who may be new in the community, to join the group.

Each Friday morning Senior Ladies and Postcomers meet at the Community House at ten a.m. and the morning is spent in making cancer pads, hospital bibs and afghans.

After luncheon is served, the ladies spend a social afternoon playing cards, scrabble or parchesi.

All Senior Ladies are urged to join the group. It is an opportunity to be of service to the community, as well as a chance to make new friends.

If transportation to the Community House is needed, please phone chairman, Louise Smith, 6422 Thornecrest Drive, Birmingham, and it may be possible to arrange it for you.

Kappa Delta Plans First Meeting

Kappa Delta South Oakland alumnae will hold the first meeting of the afternoon group on Tuesday, Sept. 11, at the home of Mrs. Clarence W. Blennan, 4150 Sandy Lane, Birmingham. Co-hostess is Mrs. John C. Crawford, 1912 Washington, Birmingham.

Afternoon activities will include a luncheon at 12:30, a brief organizational meeting, and then a talk by the hostess of her recent European trip, "Europe through Betty's Eyes."

Riverwoods

The Riverwoods Garden Club will hold its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Arthur Van Dugteranof, 24833 Samersett Trail on Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 12 p.m. Mrs. William Rogers and Mrs. Irving Vellbrecht will act as co-hostesses. Mrs. Harry Armiger of Edgmont Road will discuss "All About Iris." Mrs. Armiger is well known for her work in hybridizing iris.

Gardner loves snow babies, toddler-size and designs washable nylon suits to keep them warm, dry and happy despite wintry blasts. We show two from a collection of colorful one and two piece chill-chasers with attached hoods, quilt or pile linings. 2 to 4 sizes. 14.98 to 19.98
