Couple Plans Winter Rites

Mrs. Chalmers Gough of Quarten Road, Bloomfield Hills, announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Carolyn, to Larry Warren McCormack of Toledo, Ohio.

Mary Carolyn attends the University of Michigan. Her fiancé was graduated from Columbia University and the University of Michigan Law School. A February wedding is planned.

and Mrs. Harrison F. Dunning of Moylan, Pa., exchanged nuptial vows.

The Rev. Doctor Von Ogden Vogt, minister emeritus of the First Unitarian Church in Chicago officiated at the service, which was followed by a reception and supper at the Village Woman's Club.

The bride wore a gown of bouquet taffeta styled with a semi-sheath skirt. A jacket accented by a bateau neckline was worn over a fitted bodice, and Alençon lace circled the waistline creating an empire effect. Her bouffant veil was of imported silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of French roses.

ATTENDANTS. ALL OF whom were gowned in turquoise chiffon taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of white roses, included Mrs. Charles R. Frederickson III, matron of honor; Carolyn A. Vogt, maid of honor; Katherine B. Dunning and Prudence A. Vogt. Honorary attendants were Molly Marshall, Mrs. Louis Molela, Judith Newberg and Katherine Van Dusen.

Best man was Stephen N. Dunning, and ushers included Charles R. Frederickson III, John Ogden Vogt, Dennis C. Goodman and Alex R. McGinnis.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the newlyweds will make their home in Boston, Mass.

A Pair of Shoes for Every Child

Each year, Birmingham-Bloomfield Branch of the Needlework Guild of America donates a check to the Oakland County Branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society for purposes of buying back-to-school clothes for needy children. This year's check was turned over to Alexander G. Zaphiris, executive director of Children's Aid, by Mrs. John S. Judd, first vice president and distribution chairman for Needlework Guild. Also representing Children's Aid was president of the board Mrs. Syver K. Thingstad.

Starr Walker Wed At Christ Church

Starr Walker walked up the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday afternoon to become the bride of Mitchell B. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell E. Foster of Radnor St., Birmingham. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Walker of Yorkshire Road, Birmingham.

Ivory taffeta fashioned the bridal robes which were made with a portrait neckline and skirt appliques of Alençon lace. The same applique was used on the chapel train, and the elbow-length veil was attached to a matching lace medalion. Rubrum lilies, white roses and grape ivy were combined in the bridal bouquet.

THE BRIDESMAIDS wore gowns of turquoise satin—three light, three dark—styled with bell skirts, scoop necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Their bouquets were dark red roses and ivy.

The group included Whitney Walker, her sister's maid of honor; Deborah Walker, another sister who was junior bridesmaid; Sharon Foster, sister of the bridegroom; Jan Thomas of Springfield, Ill.; Anne Ward of St. Louis, Mo., and Madeline Payne of Jackson, Miss.

Best man was Ron Hummel, and seating the guests were Jim Foster, brother of the bridegroom; Sam Walker, brother of the bride; Jamie Barnes, Tom Rockwell of St. Clair Shores; Wally Hedrick of Flint, and Park McGee of Topeka, Kan.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the home of the bride, where Mrs. Walker greeted her guests in a red brocade sheath with matching accessories and Mrs. Foster wore champagne peau de soie.

The bridal couple left for New Orleans and the Gulf Coast on their honeymoon, after which they will live in San Antonio, Tex., where the bridegroom is stationed at Fort Sam Houston.
