

Corps of Piety Hill Women Plunge into Plans for Show

The twelfth annual Antique Show and Sale sponsored by Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the Community House, corner of Bates and Townsend and will run four consecutive days: Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 19, 20 and 21, from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m., and Saturday, Sept. 22, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Sam Yeagley, of Annville, Pa., an authoritative dealer in antiques, will again manage the show. A widely selected group of exhibitors from Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, New Hampshire and New York, as well as nationally recognized local dealers, will offer American, English and Continental antiques of quality, rarity and interest, within a wide range of price.

The display includes authentic antique furniture, old china, glassware, silver, pewter, fine prints, jewelry and a large collection of old coins and antique dolls.

A HIGHLIGHT of this year's show will be a Patron's Brunch, which will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the opening day only.

Visitors to the show may enjoy luncheon, tea or dinner at the Community House.

Piety Hill has but one fund raising event during the entire year. The proceeds from this show enable the chapter to share with the National DAR in supporting educational, historical and patriotic projects.

Thirteen-DAR approved schools for underprivileged children receive financial aid for new buildings, needed equipment and school-ships. Locally the chapter furnishes American flags for the schools, books for the public library, magazine subscriptions to the Veterans' Hospital, and presents Good Citizenship awards annually to outstanding high school girls in the community.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN for this year's show include Mrs. Robert F. Olinger, Mrs. Francis M. Fisher, Mrs. Llewellyn H. Shippe, Mrs. Leonard J. Quart, Mrs. Frank S. Scott and Mrs. Niel C. Talmage.

Others are Mrs. Clarence V. Crockett, Mrs. William S. Mullens, Mrs. Clarence Clohett, Mrs. John P. Charles, Mrs. John W. Boyd, Mrs. C. W. McClellan, Mrs. Fred M. Harley and Mrs. M. Miller Hanson.

MRS. DAVID SYRETT

Trip to Cape Cod Follows Ceremony

At a ceremony solemnized Sept. 1 in Christ Church Cranbrook, Betty Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wild Blanchard of Lone Pine Road became the bride of David Syrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Syrett of New York City.

The Rev. Robert P. Patterson officiated at the 5 o'clock service, which was followed by a garden reception and supper in the Blanchard home.

The bride wore a gown of white ribbed silk ottoman with a jewel neckline, kabuki sleeves and softly plaited skirt which swept into a full-length train. Her illusion veil was held in place by a crown trimmed in tiny pearls, and she carried Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

MRS. C. RICHARD CADIGAN of Webster Groves, Mo., was matron of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids, all of whom were dressed in willow green and carried daisies and ivy, included Katherine Kyles, Deborah Huey, Lydia Moore of Boston, Mass., and Jean Wilkinson of Summit, N. J.

Nicholas Davis of Princeton, N. J., was best man, and ushers were John and Matthew Syrett of New York, brothers of the bridegroom; John Davis Blanchard, brother of the bride, and C. Richard Cadigan.

Following a wedding trip to Cape Cod, the newlyweds will make their home in New York City.

Off to School

Susan Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Peters Jr. of Oak St., will leave Sept. 10 for her freshman year at Findlay College, Findlay, Ohio.

Needlework Guild

The Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills branch of the Needlework Guild board will hold a combined meeting and luncheon Sept. 11 at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Western Visit

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wentworth of Bickering Road, Birmingham, spent a holiday at Pebble Beach, Calif. recently.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kohlmeier of Birmingham announce the marriage of their daughter Phyllis Ann to George J. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith of New Castle, Ind. The ceremony took place Aug. 31 in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Washington, Mich.

Freshness: one Key to your Enjoyment

WHY FRESHNESS . . . ? You who like vegetables know freezing or canning cannot capture the true flavor or full freshness of vegetables.

You who merely tolerate vegetables (because you know you need their nutritional values) can discover the delicious difference in fresh flavor at Greenfield's. Fresh vegetables are prepared in small quantities . . . not simmered, steamed or re-warmed all day.

You may not become a vegetarian . . . but you will get greater enjoyment from the vegetables you choose . . . WHY? . . . FRESHNESS!
