MISS CADWELL

The engagement of Janet Cadwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Cadwell of Westchester Way, to Charles E. Lippert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Lippert of Hillsdale, Mich., was announced Thursday evening at a dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Janet's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel T. Cadwell who were celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary, were hosts at the affair.

Charles attended Michigan State University, where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. Both young people now attend Ferris Institute, where he will be graduated from the College of Pharmacy in June. They are planning to be married on Dec. 8.

Among Birmingham couples attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips.

ALUMNAE OF BRIARCLIFF College, which includes Birmingham, Grosse Pointe, Detroit and Toledo, had been invited to a luncheon and swimming party Sept. 7 at the home of Mrs. Maynard Andrews of Ringwood Road.

This will be the first of four meetings, planned for the coming year, and will honor new alumni and new students of the school.

Among those from this area attending will be Linda Stevenson, who was president of the 1962 graduating class; Mary Barr, Mrs. William Pioch, Mrs. Jess Chamberlin, Mrs. Linus W. Pitcher III, Mrs. Edward A. Proctor, Jr.

Still others are Mrs. Robert A. Radtke, Mrs. Gerrold A. Frost, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Manuel, Mrs. Ann Follansbee and Mrs. Marilyn Taylor.

EMILY MINOR, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Lance C. Minor of Pleasant Avenue, returned Friday from San Francisco where she spent three weeks visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Minor, and their sons, Tim and Steve.

Lance Minor, Jr. of Top View, left Sunday for Dallas, Tex., to accept his new assignment with Campbell Ewald as account group field representative for Chevrolet southwest region. He will be joined Saturday by Mrs. Minor and her daughters, Barbara and Virginia, who spent the past week with the senior Minors.

Dr. and Mrs. John C. Maddox of Far Hill Drive, recently entertained at a cocktail and barbecue party in honor of the Minors before their departure for Dallas.

Cranbrook Garden Club is celebrating its fourth birthday at a luncheon Monday at the Village Woman's Club. Each member is bringing an arrangement in a tea cup, which will be judged.

Expected to attend are Mrs. Raymond A. Cragin, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Clarke Andreae, Mrs. James Tenney, Mrs. Edwin O. George, Mrs. Carson Dalton.

Still more are Mrs. Earl MacPherson, Mrs. Russell Norris, Mrs. Lloyd Sherwood, Mrs. Harold Tanner, Mrs. William Mosher and Mrs. Oscar Mezzy.

THE HOWARD BAILEYS of Trenton, N. J., and New York City spent Labor Day weekend as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips of Pleasant Avenue.

Saturday evening the Phillips hosted a cocktail and dinner party to introduce their guests to a number of their

AAUW Plans To Interject Bit of Humor

Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women will hear a "Bluntly-Thakley" report when they meet for a 12:30 p. m. luncheon at the Birmingham Community House, Sept. 12.

Prepared by AAUW writer's group, this humorous review of past accomplishments of the study groups and preview of next year's activities will be presented by Mrs. William Milligan and Mrs. Judge Bearden, and will feature Mrs. Howard Key Morgan and the study group chairman. The AAUW puppets will be put in an appearance also.

NEW OFFICERS. Mrs. Lynn Townsend, first vice president; Mrs. Douglas Keys, second vice president; Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels, program chairman; Mrs. Howard Berg, secretary; and Mrs. Richard Rings, dues chairman, will join Mrs. Preston R. Weir, president; Mrs. H. S. McFarland, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert Surridge, treasurer, who are beginning their second year.

Back Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Arthur McBride have recently returned from a wedding trip through northern Michigan. The bride, formerly Marlene Frances Colburn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Colburn of Purdy St., Birmingham. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harris McBride of Southfield.

friends including Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vater, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cadwell, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rettray, Mr. and Mrs. William Cutting, the Arthur Hudsons and the Lance Minors. The Vaters reciprocated with a brunch and pool party Sunday in honor of the visitors.

The Crittenton General Hospital Auxiliary is having a general meeting on Thursday, Sept. 13, at the hospital. The speaker will be Mrs. George Romney, who will talk on "Citizens Responsibility to Government."

New members who have come into the Auxiliary the past year will also be honored. Those from this area are Mrs. Marshall Chambers, Mrs. William H. Daniels, Mrs. Harold Rowe, Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Mrs. John T. Brennan and Mrs. Arch Walls.

MRS. C. M. HAWES III

Hawes-James Nuptials Solemnized

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting for the Saturday noon wedding of Sheila Susan James and Charles Morris Hawes III. Following the ceremony, a reception-luncheon was held at Botsford Inn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glen James of Wing Lake Road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hawes, Jr. of Bronsville, N. Y. Sheila chose a floor-length gown of silk organza with a chapel train. Embroidered Alencon lace highlighted with tiny pearls outlined the Sabrina neckline, and bands of the same lace were appliqued on the bouffant skirt.

A matching crown secured the veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade of eucharist lilies, staphanotis and ivy attached to her prayer book.

MRS. WILLIAM TYSON, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Winters, Mrs. Robert Forder, Mollie Alexander and Linda Grove.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Peter Hawes, to be best man. Chris James, brother of the bride; Bob Eggenichler, Warren Radtke and Bill Tyson were ushers. Following a honeymoon on the Jersey shore, the couple will live in Cambridge, Mass., where the bridegroom is attending the Episcopal Theological School.
